"The Artist-Operas of Pfitzner, Krenek and Hindemith " Claire Taylor-Jay,2017-07-05 This is the first book length study of the genre of artist opera in which the work s central character is an artist who is uncomfortable with his place in the world It investigates how three such operas Pfitzner s Palestrina 1915 Krenek s Jonny spielt auf 1926 and Hindemith s Mathis der Maler 1935 contributed to the debate in early twentieth century Germany about the place of art and the artist in modern society and examines how far the artist character may be taken as functioning as a persona for the real composer of the work Because of their concern with the place of art within society the works are also engaged with inherently political questions and each opera is read in the light of the political context of its time conservatism circa World War I Americanism and democracy and the rise of National Socialism

The Cambridge Companion to Metal Music Jan-Peter Herbst,2023-09-14 Exploring the musical styles and cultures of metal this Companion is an indispensable introduction to this popular and distinctive genre

Stages of European Romanticism Theodore Ziolkowski,2018 Employs an innovative approach by stages to offer a unified vision of European Romanticism over the half century of its growth and decline Romanticism was a truly European phenomenon extending roughly from the French Revolution to the 1848 revolutions and embracing not only literature and drama but also music and visual arts Because of Romanticism s vast scope most treatments have restricted themselves to single countries or to specific forms notably literature art or music This book takes a wider view by considering in each of six chapters representative examples of works from across Europe and across a range of the arts that were created in a single year For instance in the first chapter focusing on the year 1798 Beethoven s Pathétique sonata Wordsworth and Coleridge s Lyrical Ballads Tieck s novel Franz Sternbalds Wanderungen and Goya s painting El sue o de la raz n The following chapters treat works from the years 1808 1818 1828 1838 and 1848 This approach by stages makes it possible to determine characteristics of six stages of Romanticism in its historical and intellectual context and to note the conspicuous differences between these stages as European Romanticism developed for example the waxing and waning of religious themes the shifting visions of landscape the gradual ironic detachment from early Romanticism In sum the volume offers a unified vision of European Romanticism in all its aesthetic forms over the half century of its growth and decline Theodore Ziolkowski is Professor Emeritus of German and Comparative Literature Princeton University

The Historical School: From Friedrich List to the Social Market Economy Zemfira Nazarova,2024-01-17 The monograph is a historical and philosophical analysis of the emergence and development of the

German historical school and its evolution into the theory of the social market economy the penetration of the ideas of the historical school into Russia and its relevance in modern conditions Music and Literature in German Romanticism

Siobhán Donovan, Robin Elliott, 2004 During the Romantic era many in Germany believed music to be the highest art form representing the quintessence of Romanticism and able to express what could not be expressed in words This book studies the work of composers during this period and examines the cross over between music and literature Hemingway, Fitzgerald and the Muse of Romantic Music Nicole J. Camastra, 2023-12-21 Both Ernest Hemingway and F Scott Fitzgerald grew up in the Midwest and were strongly influenced by Romantic music anchored by the aesthetic tastes of the German immigrants who settled across that region Hemingway's ear for form and Fitzgerald's penchant for lyricism stem from early and frequent exposure to such masters as Johannes Brahms and Franz Schubert Nostalgia is typically associated with romanticism and the acoustic longing found in Hemingway and Fitzgerald's fiction resonates with it characterized in the narrative voices in Hemingway's Winner Take Nothing Fitzgerald's Tender Is the Night and other of their fiction from the early thirties Understanding that each writer has his own kind of musical biography charts new ways to read material we already think we know Reading their work within a musico historical context means acknowledging it as an extension of the 19th century it means reading them as Romantic Modernists This work reads each author's prose musically considering how Romantic music inspired their craft and distinguished their work through the pivotal juncture of the early to mid 1930s when each man faced an artistic crisis of conscience Initial chapters provide background information in music history Following chapters focus on how the life of each author was shaped by music and how they worked with specific influences that grew out of steady interactions with it evidence of which is found in archival documents and collections AP European History Premium, 2025: Prep Book with 5 Practice Tests + Comprehensive Review + Online Practice Seth A.
