became one of New Zealand's great unsolved mysteries discussing what it reveals about the interplay of popular stories hidden histories and media narratives in constructing allegories of national and moral identity In the second Jackson reflects on journeys up and down the islands of New Zealand touching on the ways that personal stories are interwoven with social and historical events Throughout this groundbreaking book Jackson juxtaposes philosophy history and ethnography in an attempt to do justice to the extraordinary variety of temporal experience at the same time exploring the ethical and existential quandaries that arise from the complexity of lived time

The Auckland University Press Anthology of New Zealand Literature Jane Stafford, Mark Williams, 2013-11-01. From the earliest records of exploration and encounter to the globalized multicultural present, this compilation features New Zealand's major writing from Polynesian mythology to the Yates Garden Guide, from Allen Curnow to Alice Tawhai and from Wiremu Te Rangikaheke's letters to Katherine Mansfield's notebooks. Including fiction, nonfiction, letters, speeches, novels, stories, comics and songs, this imaginative selection provides new paths into New Zealand writing and culture.

Changing Times Jenny Carlyon, Diana Morrow, 2014-02-01. From the golden weather of postwar economic growth through the globalization, economic challenges and protest of the 1960s and 1970s to the free market revolution and new immigrants of the 1980s and 1990s and beyond, this account is the most complete and comprehensive history of New Zealand since 1945. It illustrates the chronological and social history of the country with the engaging stories of real individuals and their experiences. Leading historians Jennifer Carlyon and Diana Morrow discuss in great depth New Zealand's move toward nuclear-free status, its embrace of a small state free market ideology and the seeming rejection of its citizens of a society known for the worship of averages. Stories of pirate radio in Auckland's Hauraki Gulf, the first DC8 jets landing at Mangere airport, feminists liberating pubs, public protests over the closing of post offices and indigenous language nests vividly demonstrate how a postwar society famous around the world for its dull conformity became one of the most ethnically, economically and socially diverse countries on earth.
