Rubin, 2015-03-25 A collection of articles written from 1989 to 2009 updated for this volume An Afghan Prince in Victorian England R.D. McChesney, 2024-07-25 In 1894 Great Britain invited Abd al Rahman Khan the amir of Afghanistan to England for a state visit Then at the height of its imperial might Britain sought to strengthen ties with the strategically important Afghanistan which shared a long frontier not yet a border with British India The amir's aim for the visit was to secure permission for an Afghan legation embassy in London while the British unaware of this goal hoped to overawe the amir with displays of military and industrial might as well as performances to show the strength and unity of British civil society The amir citing illness ultimately declined the invitation but in a calculated snub sent his second son Prince Nasr Allah Khan in his place This book narrates the events of the prince's mission in a number of revealing ways Using both British and Afghan sources including the journal of a senior member of the Afghan contingent McChesney places the visit in its international and historical context and analyzes the internal dynamics of the prince's delegation the seventy members of whom represented Afghanistan but included two Englishmen and two English women A further twenty members representing the Government of British India were as multi ethnic and multilingual as the members of the Afghan delegation This bilateral and complex mission left India in April 1895 and remained together for the next six months From the beginning it was riven by incidents of misogyny racism and class conflict that affected its ability to perform its diplomatic functions The reader gains insights into the goals and tactics of two asymmetrical yet competing powers as well as a rare look at the human element in this cross cultural diplomatic encounter U.S. Marines in Afghanistan, 2001-2009, 2014 U S Marines in Afghanistan 2001 1009 Anthology and Annotated Bibliography presents a collection of 37 articles interviews and speeches describing many aspects of the Corp's participation in Operation Enduring Freedom from 2001 to 2009 This history Division publication is intended to serve as a general overview and provisional reference to inform both Marines and the general public until monographs dealing with major Marine Corps operations during the campaign can be completed The accompanying annotated bibliography provides a detailed look at selected sources that currently exist until new scholarship and archival materials become available Pennell of the Afghan Frontier Alice Maud Pennell, 1914 Afghan Hearts & Minds Shafie Ayar, 2010-10 Shafie Ayar was a 17 year old medical student at Kabul University when the Russians invaded Afghanistan Lipstick in Afghanistan Roberta Gately, 2010-11-09 Roberta Gately's lyrical and authentic debut novel inspired by her own experiences as a nurse in third world war zones is one woman's moving story of offering help and finding hope in the last place she expected Gripped by haunting magazine images of starving refugees Elsa has dreamed of becoming a nurse since she was a teenager Of leaving her humble working class Boston neighborhood to help people whose lives are far more difficult than her own No one in her family has ever escaped poverty but Elsa has a secret weapon a tube of lipstick she found in her older sister's bureau Wearing it never fails to raise her spirits and cement her determination With lipstick on she can do anything even travel alone to war torn Afghanistan in the wake of 9 11 But violent nights as an ER nurse in South Boston could not prepare Elsa for the devastation she witnesses at the small medical clinic she runs in Bamiyan As she struggles to prove herself to the Afghan doctors and local villagers she begins a forbidden romance with her only confidant a charming Special Forces soldier Then a tube of lipstick she finds in the aftermath of a tragic bus bombing leads her to another life changing friendship In her neighbor Parween Elsa finds a kindred spirit fiery and generous Together the two women risk their lives to save friends and family from the worst excesses of the Taliban But when the war waging around them threatens their own survival Elsa discovers her only hope is to unveil the warrior within Roberta Gately's raw intimate novel is an unforgettable tribute to the power of friendship and a poignant reminder of the tragic cost of war
