Rooster Mask Poems:

The Rooster Mask Henry Hart, 1998      Poetry from Sojourner Ruth Lepson, 2004 Collection of poems from 25 years of Sojourner For much of its history Sojourner was the most widely circulated feminist literary journal in America and more than 1 200 poems have appeared in its pages since it began publication in 1975 Nearly 150 of those poems are collected in this volume where together they form a powerful testament to the vibrancy wit and diversity of feminist poetry In addition to works by such well known poets as Molly Peacock Nikki Giovanni Betsy Sholl and Adrienne Rich this collection includes poems by women from a host of different backgrounds including many whose work appeared in print for the first time in Sojourner Some of these poems explode with energy others speak with a haiku like softness some discuss love lust and sexuality while others deal with loss divorce and revenge The voices collected here are old and young rural and urban straight and gay from mothers and daughters to wives lovers and countless others all contributing to this anthology s wide ranging conversation about feminism and feminist poetics      Collected Poems, 1930-83 Josephine Miles, 1998 Winner of the 1984 Lenore Marshall Poetry Prize Originally published in 1983 Miles s Collected Poems received seven awards including the Lenore Marshall Nation Poetry Prize and was one of three finalists for the 1983 Pulitzer Prize in Poetry A striking consistency of tone of diction of purpose characterizes Miles s life work It has been a life well spent Publisher s Weekly Miles is a poet of the first rank whose work might well be compared to that of Williams or Moore Collected Poems is a treasury of poetic wit and human understanding that belongs in all poetry collections Library Journal Miles s work is one of the finest and most solid bodies of poetry to be found in this country A R Ammons      Asian American Poetry Victoria Chang, 2004 This exciting anthology of work by up and coming writers is the first to profile a new generation of Asian American poets Building on the legacy of now canonized poets such as Li Young Lee Cathy Song and Garrett Hongo who were the first to achieve widespread recognition in the American literary community this new generation also strikes off in bold new directions Asian American Poetry The Next Generation gathers for the first time a broad cross section of the very best work of these young poets all under the age of forty including Timothy Liu Adrienne Su Sue Kwock Kim Rick Barot Brenda Shaughnessy Mong Lan as well as less familiar names A foreword by Marilyn Chin puts the book in context of both Asian American national identity and history and makes the important distinctions between generations clear Asian American Poetry The Next Generation opens the door on a dynamic developing part of the poetic world making it finally accessible to students scholars and poetry fans alike      The Hollow Log Lounge R. T. Smith, 2010-10-01 This is no fairy tale It s all fantastic and bizarre and true It s my life a raspy song that sounds better if you sing along The men and women who live and work near Opelika Alabama gather at the Hollow Log Lounge There under the watchful eye of the stuffed fox behind the bar they unload their gripes and worries tell their stories argue joke commune complain and confess In this collection of poems R T Smith paints a vividly imagined portrait of the community in this small town bar capturing the chorus of the patrons voices echoing off the knotted wood paneled walls Smith's stand in Sam Buckhannon scribbles stories heard and overheard as tongues loosened by liquor spin out monologues in which southern idiom and vernacular seem perfectly at home within the constraints of measured verse

Seamus Heaney's Mythmaking Ian Hickey, Ellen Howley, 2023-04-28 Seamus Heaney's Mythmaking examines Seamus Heaney's poetic engagement with myth from his earliest work to the posthumous publication of Aeneid Book VI. The essays explore the ways in which Heaney creates his own mythic outlook through multiple mythic lenses. They reveal how Heaney adopts a demiurgic role throughout his career creating a poetic universe that draws on diverse mythic cycles from Greco-Roman to Irish and Norse to Native American. In doing so this collection is in dialogue with recent work on Heaney's engagement with myth. However it is unique in its wide ranging perspective extending beyond Ancient and Classical influences. In its focus on Heaney's personal metamorphosis of several mythic cycles this collection reveals more fully the poet's unique approach to mythmaking from his engagement with the act of translation to transnational influences on his work and from his poetic transformations to the poetry's boundary crossing transitions. Combining the work of established Heaney scholars with the perspectives of early career researchers this collection contains a wealth of original scholarship that reveals Heaney's expansive mythic mind. Mythmaking an act for which Heaney has faced severe criticism is reconsidered by all contributors prompting multifaceted and nuanced readings of the poet's work.

Renunciation Corey Marks, 2000 Renunciation introduces a powerful new poet whose work though it treads the ground of silence and loss bears a redemptive grace. Disquieting and healing Corey Marks's poems hold to a moment when possibility bristles so close it holds a shape in the air. The sculptor Gislebertus. Doubting Thomas. Theseus and John Keats share space in the pages of Renunciation with a survivor of the bomb in Hiroshima a blind girl in the South American jungle and DeSoto's thirteen swine in the hold of a ship bound for America. Rich with almost palpable nuances of light and sound Marks's lyric meditations unravel a constant play of loss and continuation mending sense from spare threads and hovering over connections undone even as they are made.

Battles & Lullabies Richard Michelson, 2006 In this poignant book of poetry Michelson weaves together the past and present seeing within his children his own difficult childhood within current wars the burning memory of the Holocaust and within himself the ghost of his father.

Veil and Burn Laurie Clements Lambeth, 2010-10-01 Concerned with physical experience pain and disability Veil and Burn illuminates an intense desire to feel through the Other embrace it become it and in the transformation to understand the suffering body. In poems about animals artifacts and monsters Lambeth displays a fascination for all bodies while exploring their pain common fate alienation and abilities. Hovering between poem and prose fragment between the self and fellow creatures Laurie Clements Lambeth celebrates physical sensation imbuing it with lyric shape however broken however imprisoned the shape may be.

Visiting Picasso Jim Barnes, 2010-10-01 Jim Barnes's familiarity with the European poetic traditions has been deepened through long periods spent in France Germany and Italy and through his translations of European poetry. In Visiting Picasso he repays Europe for its gifts to him in a series of poems that evoke the lush poetic history that ties European culture together sometimes darkly A heightened sense of place and purpose infuses the poems of Visiting Picasso with meaning drawn from actual landscapes events and observations A Deed to the Light Jeanne Murray Walker,2010-10-01 In A Deed To the Light Jeanne Murray Walker asks probing questions about the depth of grief about letting go and about the possibility of faith Her poems have been described by John Taylor writing in Poetry as splendid subtly erudite uplifting and funny Arts of a Cold Sun G.
