Multicultural Comics Frederick Luis Aldama, 2010-09-15 Multicultural Comics From Zap to Blue Beetle is the first comprehensive look at comic books by and about race and ethnicity The thirteen essays tease out for the general reader the nuances of how such multicultural comics skillfully combine visual and verbal elements to tell richly compelling stories that gravitate around issues of race ethnicity gender and sexuality within and outside the U S comic book industry Among the explorations of mainstream and independent comic books are discussions of the work of Adrian Tomine Grant Morrison and Jessica Abel as well as Marv Wolfman and Gene Colan s The Tomb of Dracula Native American Anishinaabe related comics mixed media forms such as Kerry James Marshall s comic book community performance DJ Spooky s visual remix of classic film the role of comics in India and race in the early Underground Comix movement The collection includes a one stop shop for multicultural comic book resources such as archives websites and scholarly books Each of the essays shows in a systematic clear and precise way how multicultural comic books work in and of themselves and also how they are interconnected with a worldwide tradition of comic book storytelling

Educating the Muslims of America Yvonne Y Haddad, Farid Senzai, Jane I Smith, 2009-02-26 As the U S Muslim population continues to grow Islamic schools are springing up across the American landscape Especially since the events of 9 11 many have become concerned about what kind of teaching is going on behind the walls of these schools and whether it might serve to foster the seditious purposes of Islamist extremism The essays collected in this volume look behind those walls and discover both efforts to provide excellent instruction following national educational standards and attempts to inculcate Islamic values and protect students from what are seen as the dangers of secularism and the compromising values of American culture Also considered here are other dimensions of American Islamic education including new forms of institutions for youth and college age Muslims home schooling the impact of educational media on young children and the kind of training being offered by Muslim chaplains in universities hospitals prisons and other such settings Finally the authors look at the ways in which Muslims are rising to the task of educating the American public about Islam in the face of increasing hostility and prejudice This timely volume is the first dedicated entirely to the neglected topic of Islamic education     Roots of World Wisdom Helen Buss Mitchell,1983
