Rosa Parks The Movement Organizes:

Rosa Parks Kai Frieese,1990-01-01 A biography of the Alabama Black woman whose refusal to give up her seat on a bus helped establish the civil rights movement      Rosa Parks Kai Frieese,1990 A biography of the Alabama Black woman whose refusal to give up her seat on a bus helped establish the civil rights movement      Building a Movement to End the New Jim Crow: an organizing guide Daniel Hunter,2015 Seeks to focus people in the direction of dismantling our nation s huge and egregious prison industrial systems the old but new Jim Crow In it Daniel Hunter describes key organizing principles and offers an array of examples that describe concrete ways that individuals organizations and coalitions are achieving significant successes which cultivate the soil for more and more significant campaigns in this crucial struggle      Rosa's Bus Jo S. Kittinger,2020-10-20 Celebrate the remarkable heroism of Rosa Parks and the Montgomery Bus Boycott in this illustrated Black history book for kids told from the perspective of Bus 2857 Free verse stanzas and gorgeous large scale oils bring to life a pivotal moment in the Civil Rights Movement that changed American history Like all buses in Montgomery Alabama in the 1950s Bus 2857 was segregated white passengers sat in the front and Black passengers sat in the back Bus 2857 was ordinary until a woman named Rosa Parks refused to give up her seat to a white passenger After Rosa s arrest Bus 2857 s passengers chose to walk rather than ride the buses in Montgomery for 382 days In this children s picture book for ages 7 10 Bus 2857 tells the remarkable story of the Montgomery Bus Boycott from the streets it rode to its present day home in the Henry Ford Museum Told with stunning free verse and oil illustrations this kids Black history book offers a unique perspective on a major event in the Civil Rights Movement and celebrates the heroism of Rosa Parks Martin Luther King Jr and other freedom riders      Organizing Your Own Say Burgin,2024-04-16 The untold story of how white activists in Detroit heeded Black Power s call for them to organize against racism in white communities      Marching to the Mountaintop Ann Bausum,2012 In early 1968 the grisly on the job deaths of two African American sanitation workers in Memphis Tennessee prompted an extended strike by that city s segregated force of trash collectors Workers sought union protection higher wages improved safety and the integration of their work force Their work stoppage became a part of the larger civil rights movement and drew an impressive array of national movement leaders to Memphis including on more than one occasion Dr Martin Luther King Jr King added his voice to the struggle in what became the final speech of his life His assassination

Pursuit of Liberation Emily A. Nemeth,Ashley N. Patterson,2022-04-01 The authors of this volume collectively demonstrate the importance of critical service learning in this historic moment as we participate in and witness ongoing struggles for justice around the world The contributors of this volume offer guidance to educators and scholars alike who are interested in designing participating in and studying the potential of alliances formed through critical service learning The volume emphasizes theoretical and historical foundations of critical service learning pressing questions facing the field exploration of outcomes of and ongoing challenges for the pedagogy and design features and larger scale models of critical service learning that can be implemented across the educational landscape of elementary secondary and higher education

ENDORSEMENTS This volume in the Advances in Service Learning Research series does not disappoint Emily Nemeth and Ashley Patterson have amassed an amazing team of authors who take readers on a rewarding journey across diverse cultural communities and educational contexts revealing the limitations of traditional service learning approaches in addressing issues of racial injustice Readers of this volume will gain a greater understanding of the rapidly evolving and maturing nature of higher education service learning pedagogy and the need to adopt more critical perspectives in the study and practice of service learning Andrew Furco University of Minnesota Pursuit of Liberation conceived and written during tumultuous times in the United States offers hope for the possibility of social justice and liberation in educational spaces The modern day brutal lynching of George Floyd an African American man by a white police officer and the COVID 19 pandemic revealed the horridness and inhumanity of a country that advertises itself as a beacon of equity and inclusion This volume is a reminder that social justice and liberation require vigilance The editors Professors Nemeth and Patterson persuade us to understand that the work of inclusion and liberation in education is complex multidisciplinary continuous and iterative Most importantly they convincingly assert that communities and educational institutions need to take bold steps toward a more just hopeful and loving world through critical service learning Shirley Mthethwa Sommers University of Mpumalanga

Organizing America Erik Loomis, 2025-08-12 From the acclaimed author of A History of America in Ten Strikes a sweeping account of the impact of organizers on United States history We are living through a time when real social change seems to be in the rearview mirror But this rousing new book offers a beacon of hope the stories of organizers who have shown America the way forward in the darkest of times Author of the celebrated A History of America in Ten Strikes a Kirkus Reviews best book of 2018 Erik Loomis uncovers a rich and revealing history of social change activism with immediate relevance to our present In twenty short biographies Organizing America tells the story of America through its most important organizers A chronological story with a vast sweep Organizing America considers a cross section of social justice activists across time race gender and movement examining lives as varied as Benjamin Lay Ida B Wells Eugene V Debs Elizabeth Gurley Flynn Bob Moses Yuri Kochiyama Daniel Berrigan Dolores Huerta Barbara Gittings and many more With an introduction that explains what organizing is and how collective action works and how we should think about the power of organizing in 2025 and beyond Loomis sets a tone that is both practical and historical providing context and inspiration for anyone seeking to step into the work of changing America for the better

Community Organizing David S. Walls, 2015-02-03 This incisive book provides a critical history and analysis of community organizing the tradition of bringing groups together to build power and forge grassroots leadership for social economic racial and environmental justice Begun by Saul Alinsky in the 1930s there are today nearly 200 institution based groups active in 40 U S states and the movement is spreading internationally David Walls charts how community organizing has transcended the neighborhood to seek power and influence at the metropolitan state and national levels together with such allies as unions and human rights advocates Some organizing networks have embraced these goals while others have been more cautious and the growing profile of community organizing has even charged political debate Importantly Walls engages social movements literature to bring insights to our understanding of community organizing networks their methods allies and opponents and to show how community organizing offers concepts and tools that are indispensable to a democratic strategy of social change Community Organizing will be essential reading for advanced undergraduates and graduate students of sociology social movements and social work It will also inform organizers and grassroots leaders as well as the elected officials and others who contend with them

People of Purpose Arnold Cheyney, 1998 Learn about 80 people who have made a difference in the world a culturally diverse group of men and women representing a wide range of professions and occupations One page biographical profiles are followed by reading and social studies activities that promote critical thinking and writing Useful in many different school and home settings Fighting Against the Injustice of the State and Globalization A. Jalata, 2002-02-08 The book examines compares and contrasts the African American and Oromo movements by locating them in the global context and by showing how life chances changed for the two peoples and their descendants as the modern world system became more complex and developed Since the same global system that created racialized and exploitative structures in African American and Oromo societies also facilitated the struggles of these two peoples this book demonstrates the dynamic interplay between social structures and human agencies in the system African Americans in the United States of America and Oromos in the Ethiopian Empire developed their respective liberation movements in opposition to racial ethnonational oppression cultural and colonial domination exploitation and underdevelopment By going beyond its focal point the book also explores the structural limit of nationalism and the potential of revolutionary nationalism in promoting a genuine multicultural democracy Civil Rights Since 1787 Jonathan Birnbaum, Clarence Taylor, 2000-06 Editors Birnbaum writer and Taylor history Florida International U have gathered an impressive array of documentary materials from a variety of sources including excerpts from books and articles and recent newspaper articles Their material divided into the broad categories of slavery reconstruction segregation the second reconstruction backlash redux and towards a third reconstruction traces the ongoing black struggle for civil rights from the arrival of the first Africans to America today Each major section begins with a brief introduction by the editors Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR People of Purpose Arnold B. Cheyney, 1998 Educational resource for teachers parents and kids Faith-Rooted Organizing Rev. Alexia Salvatierra, Peter Heltzel, 2013-12-06 Since the 1930s organizing movements for social justice in the U S have largely been built on secular assumptions But what if Christians were to shape their organizing around the implications of the truth that God is real and Jesus is risen Reverend Alexia Salvatierra and theologian Peter Heltzel propose a model of organizing that arises from their Christian convictions with implications for all faiths Encyclopedia of Race, Ethnicity, and Society Richard T. Schaefer, 2008-03-20 This encyclopedia offers a comprehensive look at the roles race and ethnicity play in society and in our daily lives Over 100 racial and ethnic groups are described with additional thematic essays offering insight into broad topics that cut across group boundaries and which impact on society

Organizing Justice Church Paul Kittlaus,2023-09-28 Called to work on social justice in the church in the early 1960s Paul Kittlaus tells his story of defining the issues for his time finding colleagues who would be trustworthy companions on a rather rough path learning and teaching skills for social change and empowering both clergy and laity to define their faith in terms of justice for those who are poor and marginalized He also calls to the church of today to place social change and justice at the center of its ministry

The Routledge International Handbook of Penal Abolition Michael J. Coyle,David Scott,2021-03-30 The Routledge International Handbook of Penal Abolition provides an authoritative and comprehensive look at the latest developments in the 21st century penal abolitionism movement both reflecting on key critical thought and setting the agenda for local and global abolitionist ideas and interventions over the coming decade Penal abolitionists question the legitimacy of criminal law policing courts prisons and more broadly the idea of punishment to argue that rather than effectively handling or solving social problems interpersonal disputes conflicts and harms they actually increase individual and societal problems The Routledge International Handbook of Penal Abolition is organized around six key themes Social movements and abolition organizing Critical resistance to the penal state Voices from imprisoned and marginalized communities Diversity of abolitionist thought International perspectives on abolitionism Building new justice practices as a response to social and individual wrongdoing A global centred and world encompassing project this book provides the reader with an alternative and critical perspective from which to reflect and raises the visibility of abolitionist ideas and strategies in a time when there is considerable discussion of how we will move forward in response to what has given rise to the criminalizing system white supremacy racial capitalism and human wrongdoing It is essential reading for all those engaged with punishment and penology criminology sociology corrections and critical prisons studies It will appeal to any reader who seeks an innovative response to the calamitous failures of the modern criminalizing system

Landscapes of Realism Svend Erik Larsen,Steen Bille Jørgensen,Margaret R. Higonnet,2022-03-15 Few literary phenomena are as elusive and yet as persistent as realism While it responds to the perennial impulse to use literature to reflect on experience it also designates a specific set of literary and artistic practices that emerged in response to Western modernity Landscapes of Realism is a two volume collaborative interdisciplinary investigation of this vast territory bringing together leading edge new criticism on the realist paradigms that were first articulated in nineteenth century Europe but have since gone on globally to transform the literary landscape Tracing the manifold ways in which these paradigms are developed discussed and contested across time space cultures and media this second volume shows in its four core essays and twenty four case studies four major pathways through the landscapes of realism The psychological pathways focusing on emotion and memory the referential pathways highlighting the role of materiality the formal pathways demonstrating the dynamics of formal experiments and the geographical pathways exploring the worlding of realism through the encounters between European and non European languages from the nineteenth century to the present This volume is part of a book set which can be ordered at a special discount     Resources in Education ,1991-10     Organizing Black America: An Encyclopedia of African American Associations Nina Mjagkij,2003-12-16 With information on over 500 organizations their founders and membership this unique encyclopedia is an invaluable resource on the history of African American activism Entries on both historical and contemporary organizations include African Aid Society African Americans for Humanism Black Academy of Arts and Letters Black Women s Liberation Committee Minority Women in Science National Association of Black Geologists and Geophysicists National Dental Association National Medical Association Negro Railway Labor Executives Committee Pennsylvania Freedmen s Relief Association Women s Missionary Society African Methodist Episcopal Church and many more
