Love War And Hate

David Patterson Hatch (Elsa Barker)

Love War And Hate:

Love, War and Hate Thomas Crawley, 2017-07-13 November 22nd 1963 is a day that I ll never forget The day started just like all the others Little did I know how much my life was going to change on this particular day Thomas F Crawley From a dishwasher to a soldier fighting in Vietnam what sounds like a rather odd version of the American Dream somehow describes Tom s life But there s much more to it Starting as a school drop out in his hometown in Virginia Love War and Hate tells the story of the author s youth based on a true story aiming for the full picture It s a story about many things such as love passion and war but it mainly is the story of a young man and his own development It shows how unpredictable and somewhat bizarre the ways of life can be It tells the extraordinary but honest story of a simple man Love, War and Hate Washington M. Davis, 1976 New-Church Messenger, 1929 War and Existence Michael Gelven, 2005-07-26 War is a multifaceted and complex phenomenon that cannot be understood merely by isolating its underlying principles The elements that compose the vast mosaic of our conceptions of war must be identified and examined in light of their philosophical origins Michael Gelven not only identifies what the fundamental principles are but he also extracts from the history of philosophy the arguments and analyses of the concepts that explain how we think about it War and Existence is primarily concerned with what war is or what the truth about war is rather than the moral question of whether war ever ought to be waged it only indirectly considers the military concerns of how war out to be carried out The elements or marks of war such as courage horror heroism sacrifice command and vastness are each examined by reference to a great philosophical figure whose critical analyses of these elements provide us with a deep understanding of them Gelven does not restrict his inquiry to mere formal concerns since the philosophical marks of war are concretized in judgments about actual wars His holistic approach includes not only actual historical events that surround our greatest military conflicts but also literary figures poets and composers whose works wrestle with the enormity of this splendid yet troubling phenomenon The two phenomena war and peace are viewed against the entire background of humanity with all its folly and sublimity War and Existence thus offers a thoughtful coherent response to one of the most problematic issues of humanity Trauma, Religion and Spirituality in Germany during the First World War Jason Crouthamel, 2021-10-21 This book explores the impact of violence on the religious beliefs of front soldiers and civilians in Germany during the First World War The central argument is that religion was the main prism through which men and women in the Great War articulated and processed trauma Inspired by trauma studies the history of emotions and the social and cultural history of religion this book moves away from the history of clerical authorities and institutions at war and instead focuses on the history of religion and war from below Jason Crouthamel provides a fascinating exploration into the language and belief systems used by ordinary people to explain the inexplicable From Judeo Christian traditions to popular beliefs and superstitions German soldiers and civilians depended on a malleable psychological toolbox that included a hybrid of ideas stitched together using prewar concepts mixed with images or experiences derived from the surreal environment of modern combat Perhaps most interestingly studying the front experience exposes not only lived religion but also how religious beliefs are invented Front soldiers in particular constructed new subjective spiritual and religious concepts based on encounters with industrialized weapons the sacred experience of comradeship and immersion in mass death which profoundly altered their sense of self and the supernatural More than just a coping mechanism religious language and beliefs enabled victims and perpetrators of violence to narrate concepts of psychological renewal and rebirth In the wake of defeat and revolution religious concepts shaped by the war experience also became a cornerstone of visions for radical political movements including the National Socialists to transform a shattered and embittered German nation Making use of letters between soldiers and civilians diaries memoirs and front newspapers Trauma Religion and Spirituality in Germany during the First World War offers a unique glimpse into the belief systems of men and women at a turning point in European history War Letters from the Living Dead Man Elsa Barker, 1917 Eternalism Dale Armon Eaton, 2020-07-24 John A Widtsoe said The Gospel may be said to be The philosophy of Eternalism The Gospel is immersed in the ocean of eternity Neal A Maxwell said Eternalism is defined as that view of man and the universe which not only acknowledges but exults in the existence of a Heavenly Father Eternalism focuses on the individual and on those processes in which the individual is taught correct principles and then is given optimum opportunity to govern himself For those who believe we are all going to be around forever it is both natural and wise to concern ourselves with such questions and also with such principles which are also going to be around forever These quotes involving the word Eternalism indicate a deep philosophical foundation underlying everything about the restored gospel of Jesus Christ This book describes some of the philosophical foundations of what Latter day Saints call the Restoration In the broadest sense philosophy is concerned with mankind s relationship to existence whereas theology is concerned with mankind s relationship to God Both philosophy and theology are important to Latter Day Saints because one s view of God is greatly influenced by one s view of reality Eternalism then in the broadest sense is Latter day Saint theology explained within a philosophically sound structure

Terrorism and War Jean Arundale, Coline Covington, Jean Knox, Paul ((Psychotherapist)) Williams, 2018-03-29 Following the attacks of September 11th 2001 one of the resounding questions asked was What would make anyone do such a thing The psychological mentality of the suicidal terrorist left a gaping hole in people s understanding This essential volume represents a much needed effort to collate and examine some of the material already at our disposal as an encouragement to serious thought on this question and other related questions If terrorism is not new what is it about the recent attacks that gives us a sense that something has changed Is it the scale of the destruction or the anxiety that we are facing some altogether new uncertainty Are we in some sense facing a new enemy In reflecting on these and other related questions we may be facing a similar watershed of understanding to that faced by Freud at the end of the Great War In the absence of progress in our thinking today political leaders and public opinion will likely turn to previous political and religious ideas investing in them with a fundamentalist certainty that spells disaster The Red Cross Magazine ,1919 American Red Cross Bulletin ,1919 Bulletin no 1 includes Letter from the secretary of war transmitting the Report of the proceedings of the American National Red Cross Jan 1906 59th Cong 1st Sess House Doc No 383 Letters From a Living Dead Man, War Letters From the Living Dead Man, Last Letters From the Living Dead Man David Patterson Hatch (Elsa Barker), One night last year in Paris I was strongly impelled to take up a pencil and write though what I was to write about I had no idea Yielding to the impulse my hand was seized as if from the outside and a remarkable message of a personal nature came followed by the signature X The purport of the message was clear but the signature puzzled me The following day I showed this writing to a friend asking her if she had any idea who X was Why she replied don t you know that that is what we always call Mr I did not know Now Mr was six thousand miles from Paris and as we supposed in the land of the living But a day or two later a letter came to me from America stating that Mr had died in the western part of the United States a few days before I received in Paris the automatic message signed X So far as I know I was the first person in Europe to be informed of his death and I immediately called on my friend to tell her that X had passed out She did not seem surprised and told me that she had felt certain of it some days before when I had shown her the X letter though she had not said so at the time Naturally I was impressed by this extraordinary incident X was not a spiritualist I am not myself and never have been a spiritualist and so far as I can remember only two other supposedly disembodied entities had ever before written automatically through my hand This had happened when I was in the presence of a mediumistic person but the messages were brief and I had not attached any great importance to the phenomena In childhood I had several times put my hand upon a planchette with the hand of another person and the planchette had written the usual trivialities On one occasion some months before the first X letter I had put my hand upon a planchette with the hand of a non professional medium and the prophecy of a fire in my house during a certain month in the following year was written supposedly by a dead friend which prophecy was literally verified though the fire was not caused by my hand nor was it in my own apartment A few times years before I had been persuaded by friends to go with them to professional s ances and had seen so called materialisations I had also seen independently a few appearances which I could not account for on any other hypothesis than that of apparitions of the dead But to the whole subject of communication between the two worlds I felt an unusual degree of indifference Spiritualism had always left me quite cold and I had not even read the ordinary standard works on the subject Nevertheless I had for a number of years almost daily seen hypnagogic visions often of a startlingly prophetic character and the explanation of them later given by X may be the true explanation Soon after my receipt of the letter from America stating that Mr was dead I was sitting in the evening with the friend who had told me who X was and she asked me if I would not let him write again if he could I consented more to please my friend than from any personal interest and the message beginning I am here make no mistake came through my hand It came with breaks and pauses between the sentences with large and badly formed letters but quite automatically as in the first instance The force used on this occasion was such that my right hand and arm were lame the following day Several letters signed X were automatically written during the next few weeks but instead of becoming enthusiastic I developed a strong disinclination for this manner of writing and was only persuaded to continue it through the arguments of my friend that if X really wished to communicate with the world I was highly privileged in being able to help him X was not an ordinary person He was a well known lawyer nearly seventy years of age a profound student of philosophy a writer of books a man whose pure ideals and enthusiasms were an inspiration to everyone who knew him His home was far from mine and I had seen him only at long intervals So far as I remember we had never discussed the question of postmortem consciousness Gradually as I conquered my strong prejudice against automatic writing I became interested in the things which X told me about the life beyond the grave I had read practically nothing on the subject not even the popular Letters from Julia so I had no preconceived ideas The messages continued to come After a while there was no more lameness of the hand and arm and the form of the writing became less irregular though it was never very legible For a time the letters were written in the presence of my friend then X began to come always when I was alone He wrote either in Paris or in London as I went back and forth between those two cities Sometimes he would come several times a week again nearly a month would elapse without my feeling his presence I never called him nor did I think much about him between his visits During most of the time my pen and my thoughts were occupied with other matters Only in one instance before the writing began had I any idea as to what the letter would contain One night as I took up the pencil I knew what X was going to write about but though I remember the incident I have forgotten to which message it referred While writing these letters I was generally in a state of semi consciousness so that until I read the message over afterwards I had only a vague idea of what it contained In a few instances I was so near unconsciousness that as I laid down the pencil I had not the remotest idea of what I had written but this did not often happen When it was first suggested that these letters should be published with an introduction by me I did not take very enthusiastically to the idea Being the author of several books more or less well known I had my little vanity as to the stability of my literary reputation I did not wish to be known as an eccentric a freak But I consented to write an introduction stating that the letters were automatically written in my presence which would have been the truth though not all the truth This satisfied my friend but as time went on it did not satisfy me It seemed not quite sincere I argued the matter out with myself If I said I publish these letters without a personal introduction they will be taken for a work of fiction of imagination and the remarkable statements they contain will thus lose all their force as convincing arguments for the truth of a hereafter If I write an introduction stating that they came by supposedly automatic writing in my presence the question will naturally arise as to whose hand they came through and I shall be forced to evasion But if I frankly acknowledge that they came through my own hand and state the facts exactly as they are only two hypotheses will be open first that they are genuine communications from the disembodied entity second that they are lucubrations of my own subconscious mind But this latter hypothesis does not explain the first letter signed X which came before I knew that my friend was dead does not explain it unless it be assumed that the subconscious mind of each person knows everything In which case why should my subconscious mind set out upon a long and laborious deception of me on a premise which hadnot been suggested to it by my own objective mind or that of any other person That anyone would accuse me of deliberate deceit and romancing in so serious a matter did not then and does not now seem likely my fancy having other and legitimate outlets in poetry and fiction The letters were probably two thirds written before this question was finally settled and I decided that if I published the letters at all I should publish them with a frank introduction stating the exact circumstances of their reception by me The actual writing covered a period of more than eleven months Then came the question of editing What should I leave out What should I include I determined to leave out nothing except personal references to X s private affairs to mine and to those of his friends I have not added anything Occasionally when X s literary style was clumsy I have reconstructed a sentence or cut out a repetition but I have taken far less liberty than I used as an editor to take with ordinary manuscripts submitted to me for correction Sometimes X is very colloquial sometimes he uses legal phraseology or American slang Often he jumps from one subject to another as one does in friendly correspondence going back to his original subject without a connecting phrase He has made a few statements relative to the future life which are directly contrary to the opinions which I have always held These statements remain as they were written Many of his philosophical propositions were quite new to me Sometimes I did not see their profundity until months afterwards Thoughts in War Time Bernard Ward,1915 The European War ,1917 The Vietnam War Jayne Susan Werner,Luu Doan Huynh,1993-03-31 In addition to Jayne Werner and Luu Doan Huynh the contributors are Mark Bradley William Duiker David Elliott Kristin Pelzer George Vickers James Harrison George Herring Ronald Spector Paul Joseph Jeffrey Clarke Ngo Vinh Long Benedict Kiernan Marilyn Young David Hung Keith Taylor and Tran Van Tra The New York Times Current History of the European War ,1915 The Light in the Window William Peters,2011-08-24 the light in the window is 160 pages of Divine Inspiring Poetry This offering promises to carry you away on a flow of inspiration that will sweep your Heart Soul and Mind away As you experience this journey with Bill you will feel his connection to the collective Universal Energies the Soul of the very Earth all of Nature and all People His voice of Love Understanding and Deep Passion for Life and Love are indeed the whisperings of his soul Bill s gift of expression sheds an extraordinary light on those moments in life we so often allow to slip through our fingers let go unnoticed or deem ordinary every day occurrences For Bill there in lie the Treasures If you asked him about his writing he would simply say It s Not Me then he may tell you about a walk in nature a ride on a bus or a moment stuck in rush hour traffic His inspiration seemingly flows from a 4th person or on looker s standpoint He holds on to it only long enough to grab a pen and notebook where another voice takes over and he acts as merely the scribe Thoughtfully and lovingly included in this work are a few selected poems and writings by his children Their hearts are right there on the pages their souls speaking

Ben-Dov,2024-11-15 Since the nation s founding Israel has existed in a state of near perpetual warfare Despite this Hebrew novels that deal with the experience of contemporary conflict are surprisingly rare In War Lives Nitza Ben Dov argues that Israeli writers employ the freedoms granted by fiction to challenge the heroic myth of war She suggests that these writers do so not only by turning inwards towards the home front and the psyches of individuals marked by post trauma but also by unsettling the relationship between historical fact and fiction between purported reliability and representation Through close readings of a range of novels by authors such as S Y Agnon Yehuda Amichai and Amos Oz Ben Dov foregrounds war as a coordinate from which Israeli novels are driven and to which they return in equal measure While each chapter focuses on a different theme from mourning to battleground camaraderie to vengeance Ben Dov s literary analyses demonstrate how these canonical works afford an in depth view of the symbiosis between civilian and military life the comorbidity of life living
