(Adapted by the author from her original German novel "Ille Mihi." Translated ... by E. introduced by an expansive headnote which tells the story of her life and writing career The poems all have full explanatory notes to help readers unfamiliar with the period A Bibliography lists general sources as well as useful further readings Written in an engaging and accessible manner the extensive annotations throughout Victorian Women Poets ensure that this fascinating poetry is enjoyable for undergraduate and non specialist readers

May,2019-03-28 Simon May develops a radically new understanding of love as the emotion we feel towards those we experience as grounding our life as offering us a promise of home in a world that we supremely value He also proposes that the child is supplanting the romantic partner as the supreme object of love Love and Poetry in the Middle East Atef Alshaer,2021-12-30 Love has been an important trope in the literature of the region we now call the Middle East from ancient times to modern This book analyses love poetry in various ancient and contemporary languages of the Middle East including Akkadian ancient Egyptian Classical and Modern Standard Arabic Persian Hebrew Turkish and Kurdish including literary materials that have been discovered and highlighted for the first time Together the chapters reflect and explore the discursive evolution of the theme of love and the sensibilities styles and techniques used to convey it They chart the way in which poems in ancient poetry give way to complex and varied reflections of human sentiments in the medieval languages and on to the modern period which in turn reflects the complexities and nuances of present times Offering a snapshot of the diverse literary languages and their relationship to the theme of love the book will be of interest to scholars of Near and Middle Eastern Literature and Culture Salim Barakat, Mahmud Darwish, and the Kurdish and Palestinian Similitude Aviva Butt,2021-08-03 The poetry of Salim Barakat aims to recapture the ancient oral culture of the Kurdu and in so doing re invent a distinctly Kurdish culture Through poetic innovation this intensely Kurdish poet brings modernity to ancient Kurdish structures This book provides an overview of new developments in modern Arabic poetry as seen through the creativity of its leading exponents Barakat and Mahmud Darwish as well as the older Syrian poet Adunis Its unsurpassed translations of the work of these poets open up possibilities for the reader to enjoy first hand what modern Arabic poetry has to offer Translating Barakat s poetry and understanding something of what this great poet has to say has thrown new light on the output of his friend Mahmud Darwish It becomes clear that the Palestinian poet uses a semblance of Barakat s Kurdish Shahnama and also his Ballade genres that hail from orality Analyzing Darwish s Fewer Roses and The Hoopoe we find that the former is an epic with 50 episodes telling of the wanderings of Palestinians in exile The Hoopoe is specifically a Sufi poem based in the literary Sufism of medieval poets Darwish has left us with clear instructions on how to translate his poetry which this book carefully follows The Mind and its Stories Patrick Colm Hogan,2003-09-29 There are profound extensive and surprising universals in literature which are bound up with universals in emotion Hogan maintains that debates over the cultural specificity of emotion are misdirected because they have ignored a vast body of data that bear directly on the way different cultures imagine and experience emotion literature This is the first empirically and cognitively based discussion of narrative universals Professor Hogan argues that to a remarkable degree the stories people admire in different cultures follow a limited number of patterns and that these patterns are determined by cross culturally constant ideas about emotion

In formulating his argument Professor Hogan draws on his extensive reading in world literature experimental research treating emotion and emotion concepts and methodological principles from the contemporary linguistics and the philosophy of science He concludes with a discussion of the relations among narrative emotion concepts and the biological and social components of emotion

Mahmoud Darwish, Exile's Poet Hala Khamis Nassar, Najat (ed.) Rahman, 2008 Mahmoud Darwish's work has long been considered seminal in shaping modern Arabic poetry He has received wide international recognition and is regarded as a contender for the Nobel Prize Often deemed the Poet of the Resistance no substantial critical study exists that addresses the complexity of Darwish's poetry in rewriting the homeland and articulating exile His later poetry consciously marks a move away from his earlier portrayals of identity home and poetry yet many critics have failed to take note of this shift His oeuvre yokes poetry and history the political and the poetic probing identities in perpetual exile This book examines the complex connections between poetry myth lyric prose and history in Darwish's poetry The scholarly articles in this volume situate his work in relation to both modern Arabic and world poetry In addition the articles address issues such as the future of poetry the role of the poet language cultural heritage lyrical modes as well as the relationship of place and identity

The Forest of Medieval Romance Corinne J. Saunders, 1993 Corinne J Saunders's exploration of the topos of the forest a familiar and ubiquitous motif in the literature of the middle ages is a broad study embracing a range of medieval and Elizabethan texts from the twelfth to the sixteenth centuries the roman d'antiquite Breton lay and courtly romance the hagiographical tradition of the Vita Merlini and the Queste del Saint Graal Spenser and Shakespeare Saunders identifies the forest as a primary romance landscape as a place of adventure love and spiritual vision offers a pleasurable overview of the narrative function of the forest as a literary landscape Based on a close comparative and theoretically non partisan reading of a broad range of literary texts drawn from the European canon Saunders's study explores the continuity and transformation of an important motif in the corpus of medieval literature

MODERN LANGUAGE REVIEW Dr CORINNE SAUNDERS teaches in the Department of English at the University of Durham

BLURB EXTRACTED FROM TLS REVIEW An immense tract not only of medieval literature but of human experience is engagingly introduced and presented here Corinne Saunders considers first forests in reality a reality which keeps breaking through in romance She looks also at the classical and biblical models including Virgil Statius and

Nebuchadnezzar only then does she turn to the non real and non Classical i e the medieval and romantic Here she follows a clear chronological plan from twelfth to fifteenth centuries also covering the allegorized landscape of Spenser and the lovers woods of Arden or Athens in Shakespeare Her text by text layout does justice to the variety of possibilities taken up by different authors the forest as a place where men run mad and turn into animals a place of voluntary suffering a focus of significance in the Grail quests a lovers bower above all and centrally the place where the knight is tested and defined even as with Perceval created

Love Cures Laine E. Doggett, 2012-04-30 What is love Popular culture bombards us with notions of the intoxicating capacities of love or of beguiling women who can bewitch or heal to the point that it is easy to believe that such images are timeless and universal Not so argues Laine Doggett in Love Cures Aspects of love that are expressed in popular music such as love is a drug sexual healing and love potion number nine trace deep roots to Old French romance of the high Middle Ages A young woman heals a poisoned knight A mother prepares a love potion for a daughter who will marry a stranger in a faraway land How can readers interpret such events In contrast to scholars who have dismissed these women as fantasy figures or labeled them witches Doggett looks at them in the light of medical and magical practices of the high Middle Ages Love Cures argues that these practitioners as represented in romance have shaped modern notions of love Love Cures seeks to engage scholars of love marriage and magic in disciplines as diverse as literature history anthropology and philosophy

Love After The Tale of Genji Charo B. D'Etcheverry, 2020-03-23 The eleventh century masterpiece The Tale of Genji casts a long shadow across the literary terrain of the Heian period 794 1185 It has dominated critical and popular reception of Heian literary production and become the definitive expression of the aesthetics poetics and politics of life in the Heian court But the brilliance of Genji has eclipsed the works of later Heian authors who have since been displaced from the canon and relegated to critical obscurity Charo B D Etcheverry calls for a reevaluation of late Heian fiction by shedding new light upon this undervalued body of work D Etcheverry examines three representative texts The Tale of Sagoromo The Tale of the Hamamatsu Middle Counselor and Nezame at Night as legitimate heirs to the literary legacy of Genji and as valuable indexes to the literary tastes and readerly expectations that evolved over the Heian period Balancing careful analyses of plot character and motif with keen insights into the cultural and political milieu of the late Heian period D Etcheverry argues that we should read such works not as mere derivatives of a canonical text but as dynamic fictional commentaries and variations upon the tropes and subplots that continue to resonate with readers of Genji
