Loves Mind An Essay On Contemplative Life:

Love's Mind John S. Dunne, 1993 Do we love with a love we know or with a love we do not know This question posed to author John S Dunne in a dream and its answer prompts Dunne to describe in Love's Mind the journey one takes in contemplating and coming to know love a journey that involves moving from the loneliness and restless longing of the human heart through spiritual friendship to the ultimate spiritual destination of love of God and union of love with God The compass one uses on this personal journey is the way of contemplation For Dunne the contemplative life is a dimension of every human life and should not be limited to the monastic way of life instead he considers it the missing dimension in our lives and times times where violence has supplanted spiritual contemplation and left individuals deprived of the joy and challenge of the spiritual journey that ultimately leads to a union of love with God As Dunne describes this journey three features of the contemplative way of life emerge the way of words the way of music and the way of spiritual friendship He explores each with characteristic eloquence and introspection drawing on his experiences of giving spiritual retreats his presentations on violence and the contemplative life and his insights on contemplation as the missing dimension in American life In addition Dunne considers the contemplations of Aquinas Aristotle and Augustine and draws on a rich store of literary sources in harmony with his view that art literature and music point to God Ultimately his insights lead him to a vision like Augustine's of the city of God a city of the heart where contemplation takes the place of violence Love's Mind is the story of how unknowing love becomes knowing love when one comes to the realization that our being in love may be God loving in us and that our blind love may be God's unconditional love in us BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Love Song for the Life of the Mind Gene Fendt, 2007-08 Love Song for the Life of the Mind develops the view of comedy that the author argues would have been set out in Aristotle's missing second book of Poetics As such it is both a philosophical and a historical argument about Aristotle and the theory of comedy it elucidates is meant to be trans historically and trans culturally accurate

Life M. Kronegger, Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 In her Introduction Tymieniecka states the core theme of the present book sharply Is culture an excess of nature's prodigious expansiveness an excess which might turn out to be dangerous for nature itself if it goes too far or is culture a natural congenial prolongation of nature life If the latter then culture is assimilated into nature and thus would lose its claim to autonomy its criteria would be superseded by those of nature alone Of course nature and culture may both still be seen as being absorbed by the inner powers of specifically human inwardness on which view human being caught in its own transcendence becomes separated radically in kind from the rest of existence and may not touch even the shadow of reality except through its own prism Excess therefore or prolongation And on what terms The relationship between culture and nature in its technical phase demands a new elucidation Here this is pursued by excavating the root significance of the multiple rationalities of life In contrast to Husserl who differentiated living types according to their degree of participation in the world the phenomenology of life disentangles living types from within the onto-poietic web of life itself The human creative act reveals itself as the Great Divide of the Logos of Life a divide that does not separate but harmonizes thus dispelling both naturalistic and spiritualistic reductionism The Spiritual Horizon of Psychotherapy William S. Schmidt, Merle R. Jordan, 2013-09-13 This book explores the wise and conscious use of spiritual resources within counselling and psychotherapy Written by veteran clinicians from different spiritual perspectives and from various therapeutic schools of thought this book provides a broad view of how the spiritual is present within therapeutic practice The work of counselling and psychotherapy is increasingly seeking to ground its efforts within the richness of spiritual traditions One of the surprising developments of the contemporary psychotherapeutic scene is a growing reliance on both hard objective sciences such as for example neurology or Genetics whilst at the same time engaging very subjective soft sciences such as states of consciousness studies psychology of religion clinical or Pastoral Theology and the over arching tasks of meaning making Written by and for clinicians who are also teachers in the field this collection offers a variety of viewpoints in terms of the diverse spiritual traditions they draw from theoretical sources that guide and inform them or the spiritual applications they bring to their work This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Spirituality in Mental Health The Poetization of Metaphors in the Work of Novalis Veronica Freeman, 2006 The poet Friedrich von Hardenberg Novalis 1772 1801 exemplifies romantic ideals in his nostalgic yearning for spiritual fulfillment and in doing so invokes the language of authentic mystics While romantics and mystics believe in the common goal of original union the path toward wholeness has led them down separate roads which it may be argued have converged only linguistically This book therefore emphasizes the importance of examining metaphors in their respective traditions Challenging the Whole Child Marge Scherer, 2009-08-20 This special e book collection of articles from Educational Leadership and other ASCD publications examines the kinds of challenges that best prepare students for college the world of work and life The authors examine what excellence and high performance mean in various schools and settings around the world and explore how to make learning richer and more thought provoking through both rigorous curriculum and formative assessment They look at some ways that both elementary and secondary school teachers can teach problem solving and innovative and analytical thinking and they consider how to challenge students preparing for college as well as those readying themselves for careers after high school Articles also examine ways to lead students to address today's 21st century problems acknowledging that citizens of the future will face new challenges and will need new knowledge and skills The final section takes on the question of how to motivate students to embrace challenge cation that works and made it thrive Note This product listing is for the Adobe Acrobat PDF version of the book Spirituality Kees Waaijman, 2002 This textbook is a systematic guide to the extensive field of spirituality Kees Waaijman charts the multiform phenomenon of spirituality the spirituality of ordinary people the great spiritual traditions and the force of counter movements From the foundation of this survey he answers questions like

What exactly is spirituality What forms can a scholarly approach take Finally the book provides methodic access to the study of spirituality focusing on the following questions Which are the different forms of spirituality and how can we describe them How can spiritual texts be given a reliable reading Which themes can be distinguished in the field of spirituality and what would be a meaningful way to address them What do we mean by spiritual guidance and what can we learn from it This textbook has no equal It is indispensable to scholars wishing to study the subject but also to others who want to learn about spirituality

The Insurmountable Darkness of Love Douglas E. Christie, 2022 This book is a reflection on the meaning of spiritual darkness especially those difficult places in human experience where meaning seems to elude us where we are emptied out and are compelled to dig deeper into who we truly are Douglas E Christie takes up this facet of experience in ordinary human experience but also in relation to the Christian contemplative and mystical traditions where such experience is often understood to be both painful and transformative allowing the mind and heart to open in love

Reflections on Aging and Spiritual Growth Andrew J. Weaver, Harold George Koenig, Phyllis C. Roe, 1998 Noted experienced voices in the Christian community come together in this volume to reflect on aging as part of their faith journey One by one they offer lessons and wisdom about the changes challenges and advantages of aging To read this book is to sit with these men and women on retreat discovering the fulfillment of life its purpose and meaning Together you will reflect on questions such as these How have your losses deepened or diminished your faith How do you affirm aging as a person of faith in a society perpetually fascinated with the young and the new What spiritual direction might you offer to others on the journey of faith young and old What counsel does our Christian heritage offer as we live in or approach our later years Love's Shadow Paul A. Bové, 2021-01-12 A case for literary critics and other humanists to stop wallowing in their aestheticized helplessness and instead turn to poetry comedy and love Literary criticism is an agent of despair and its poster child is Walter Benjamin Critics have spent decades stewing in his melancholy What if instead we dared to love poetry to choose comedy over Hamlet's tragedy or to pursue romance over Benjamin's suicide on the edge of France of Europe and of civilization itself Paul A Bov challenges young lit critters to throw away their shades and let the sun shine in Love's Shadow is his three step manifesto for a new literary criticism that risks sentimentality and melodrama and eschews self consciousness The first step is to choose poetry There has been since the time of Plato a battle between philosophy and poetry Philosophy has championed misogyny while poetry has championed women like Shakespeare's Rosalind Philosophy is ever so stringent try instead the sober cheerfulness of Wallace Stevens Bov's second step is to choose the essay He praises Benjamin's great friend and sometime antagonist Theodor Adorno who gloried in writing essays not dissertations and treatises The third step is to choose love If you want a Baroque hero make that hero Rembrandt who brought lovers to life in his paintings Putting aside passivity and cynicism would amount to a revolution in literary studies Bov seeks nothing less and he has a program for achieving it Essays on the Powers of the Human Mind Thomas Reid, 1827 Dictionary of Phrase and Fable Ebenezer Cobham Brewer, 1879 Dictionary of phrase and fable. [A dictionary of English literature] by W.D. Adams, with additions Ebenezer Cobham Brewer, 1885 Current Contents Arts and Humanities, 1995
