Concentrationary Imaginaries Griselda Pollock, Max Silverman, 2015-11-30 In 1945 French political prisoners returning from the concentration camps of Germany coined the phrase the concentrationary universe to describe the camps as a terrible political experiment in the destruction of the human This book shows how the unacknowledged legacy of a totalitarian mentality has seeped into the deepest recesses of everyday popular culture It asks if the concentrationary now infests our cultural imaginary normalizing what was once considered horrific and exceptional by transforming into entertainment violations of human life Drawing on the political philosophy of Hannah Arendt and the analyses of violence by Agamben Virilio Lacoue Labarthe and Nancy it also offers close readings of films by Cavani and Haneke that identify and critically expose such an imaginary and hence contest its lingering force Reimagining the Human in Contemporary French Science Fiction Christina Lord, 2023-04-15 The study of French science fiction even in France remains an underexploited field Only recently have French literary scholars been able to gain recognition for the validity of studying SF but their works are often literary histories This is the first book length study to take into account both French and Anglo American intellectual trends theories and SF scholarship and apply them to a corpus of French works It shows how contemporary French SF imagines two broad philosophical inquiries into the powerful yet terrifying geological age of the Anthropocene posthumanism and transhumanism While the posthumanist perspective calls attention to the interdependence and co evolution of humans and nonhumans within a complex ecosystem of life the transhumanist view of coping with the Anthropocene offers more pragmatic tool based solutions rather than a reworking of the human imagination Given the history of philosophical thought's entanglement with literature in France French SF can tell us a lot about this existential crisis of Anthropos as both destroyer and savior of worlds and bodies alike With a focus on encounters between humans nonhumans and posthumans in selected works this book investigates both the immaterial the psychological state of the mind and material the body stakes of posthumanist or transhumanist thinking in French SF Super Bitches and Action Babes Rikke Schubart, 2014-08-23 With actress Pam Grier's breakthrough in Coffy and Foxy Brown women entered action science fiction war westerns and martial arts films genres that had previously been considered the domain of male protagonists This ground breaking cinema however was and still is viewed with ambivalence While women were cast in new and exciting roles
