The Coombs Brij V. Lal, Allison Ley, 2014-09-01 The Coombs Building at The Australian National University is a Canberra icon Named after one of Australia's greatest administrators and public intellectuals Nugget Herbert Cole Coombs for more than forty years the building has housed two of the University's four foundational Schools the Research School of Pacific and Asian Studies and the Research School of Social Sciences This volume of recollections is about the former It looks at life in the building through the prism of personal experience and happenstance Part memoir part biography and part celebration this book is about the people of Coombs past and present Through evocative and lucid reflections present and former denizens of the building share their passions and predilections quietly savour their accomplishments and recall the failings and foibles of the past with a kindly tolerance

Confusion Paul Strangio, Nick Dyrenfurth, 2009-11-15 In Confusion some of Australia's foremost political historians including Judith Brett and Stuart Macintyre revisit the seminal moment when liberals threw in their lot with the conservatives In May 1909 Alfred Deakin the radical liberal doyen struck an agreement for a controversial fusion with the anti Labor factions with the new grouping later adopting the name Liberal Party After a heated campaign Labor won the 1910 election forming the first majority government in the history of the Commonwealth The Australian party system as we still largely know it one hundred years on had crystallised How had this occurred For most of the previous decade Labor and Deakin had been allies Was the anti Labor alliance the inevitable outcome of middle class men rallying against the growing electoral might of the workers party What were the long term consequences for both sides of politics With Labor in power federally and in all but one state the non Labor side of politics has been plunged into a period of introspection about its coalition arrangements and about the legitimate traditions of Australian liberalism Can the current Liberals learn from the events of a century ago

With Love & Fury Judith Wright, 2006 This wide range of letters reminds us of Judith Wright's deep engagement with life her love of the world and of friends and the fine fury that led her to battle so courageously on the world's behalf

In Denial Robert Manne, 2001-04-01 In this national bestseller Robert Manne attacks the right wing campaign against the Bringing them home report that revealed how thousands of Aboriginal children had been taken from their parents What was the role of Paddy McGuinness as editor of Quadrant How reliable was the evidence that led newspaper columnists from Piers Akerman in the Sydney Daily Telegraph to Andrew Bolt in the Melbourne Herald Sun to deny the gravity of the injustice done In a powerful indictment of past government policies towards the indigenous Australians Robert Manne has written a brilliant polemical essay which doubles as a succinct history of how indigenous Australians were mistreated and an exposure of the ignorance of those who want to deny that history In complex intellectual conflicts there will always be argument about whether the antagonists are committed to finding the truth or to winning the battle This essay tells us that Robert Manne is intent on finding the truth Morag Fraser editor Eureka Street In Denial is a work of both the head and the heart It is carefully researched and powerfully expressed It needs to be widely read The Hon P

J Keating former Prime Minister of Australia      The Dystopia in the Desert Tadhgh Purtill, 2018-02-02      Free Trade and Social Welfare in Europe Lucia Coppolaro, Lorenzo Mechi, 2020-01-24 This book deals with the historical relationship between international trade liberalisation one of the backbones of globalisation and the development of social welfare In Europe the issue has regularly been at the centre of the political debate for at least two centuries and still nowadays it continues to inspire decisions of the highest order as in the recent case of Brexit Analysing a number of particularly meaningful episodes and moments the eight chapters of this edited volume provide an overview of how the liberalisation welfare nexus has been addressed in Europe since the end of the 19th century Describing the oscillations from phases in which state non state and transnational actors saw the two elements as widely conflicting to others in which more harmonious visions prevailed the book uncovers the political complexity of the issue and contributes to clarifying its connections with the current economic situation political balances and general social conditions      The Seven Dwarfs and the Age of the Mandarins Samuel Furphy, 2015-07-06 In the history and folklore of Australia s Commonwealth Public Service the idea of the Seven Dwarfs has been remarkably persistent Originally a witty epithet applied to a powerful group of senior public servants the term has come to represent the professionalisation of Australian government administration during the Second World War and post war reconstruction era and into the following two decades of expansion This was a period when for the first time talented university graduates entered the public service rose to senior levels and exerted great influence over the affairs of the Commonwealth With the secure tenure of being permanent heads of departments they defined the age of the public service mandarin This book explores the lives and influence of the Seven Dwarfs and their colleagues bringing together the leading researchers on post war Australian administration Featuring four thematic chapters and ten biographical portraits it offers a fascinating insight into the workings of the Commonwealth Public Service during a critical period in its history      The Devil and James McAuley Cassandra Pybus, 1999 Follows McAuley s life from his student days at Sydney Uni through the war years his conversion to Catholicism his anticommunist activities during the Cold War period and his editorship of Quadrant with revelations about CIA funding and involvement with ASIO A controversial new political biography      Indigenous Australia For Dummies Larissa Behrendt, 2021-02-17 A comprehensive relevant and accessible look at all aspects of Indigenous Australian history and culture What is The Dreaming How many different Indigenous tribes and languages once existed in Australia What is the purpose of a corroboree What effect do the events of the past have on Indigenous peoples today Indigenous Australia For Dummies 2nd Edition answers these questions and countless others about the oldest race on Earth It explores Indigenous life in Australia before 1770 the impact of white settlement the ongoing struggle by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to secure their human rights and equal treatment under the law and much more Celebrating the contributions of Indigenous people to contemporary Australian culture the book explores Indigenous art music dance literature film sport and spirituality It discusses the concept of modern Indigenous identity and examines the ongoing challenges facing Indigenous communities today from health and housing to employment and education land rights and self determination Explores significant political moments such as Paul Keating s Redfern Speech Kevin Rudd s apology and more Profiles celebrated people and organisations in a variety of fields from Cathy Freeman to Albert Namatjira to the Bangarra Dance Theatre and the National Aboriginal Radio Service Challenges common stereotypes about Indigenous people and discusses current debates such as land rights and inequalities in health and education Now in its second edition Indigenous Australia For Dummies will enlighten readers of all backgrounds about the history struggles and triumphs of the diverse proud and fascinating peoples that make up Australia s Indigenous communities With a foreword by Stan Grant it s a must read account of Australia s first people Australia in the Age of International Development, 1945-1975 Nicholas Ferns,2020-07-18 This book examines Australian colonial and foreign aid policy towards Papua New Guinea and Southeast Asia in the age of international development 1945 1975 During this period the academic and political understandings of development consolidated and informed Australian attempts to provide economic assistance to the poorer regions to its north Development was central to the Australian colonial administration of PNG as well as its Colombo Plan aid in Asia In addition to examining Australia s perception of international development this book also demonstrates how these debates and policies informed Australia s understanding of its own development This manifested itself most clearly in Australia s behavior at the 1964 United Nations Conference on Trade and Development UNCTAD The book concludes with a discussion of development and Australian foreign aid in the decade leading up to Papua New Guinea s independence achieved in 1975 Australia's Boldest Experiment Stuart Macintyre,2015-06-01 In this landmark book Stuart Macintyre explains how a country traumatised by World War I hammered by the Depression and overstretched by World War II became a prosperous successful and growing society by the 1950s An extraordinary group of individuals notably John Curtin Ben Chifley Nugget Coombs John Dedman and Robert Menzies re made the country planning its reconstruction against a background of wartime sacrifice and austerity The other part of this triumphant story shows Australia on the world stage seeking to fashion a new world order that would bring peace and prosperity This book shows the 1940s to be a pivotal decade in Australia At the height of his powers Macintyre reminds us that key components of the society we take for granted work welfare health education immigration housing are not the result of military endeavour but policy planning politics and popular resolve Born of the Conquerors Judith Wright,1991 All chapters with Aboriginal content annotated separately The Backroom Boys Graeme Sligo,2013-10-05 The Backroom Boys is the remarkable but little known story of how a varied group of talented intellectuals drafted into the Australian Army in the dark days of 1942 provided high level policy advice to Australia s most senior soldier General Blamey and through him to the Government for the remainder of the war and beyond This band of academics lawyers and New Guinea patrol officers formed a unique military unit the Directorate of Research and Civil Affairs under the command of an eccentric and masterful string puller Alf Conlon The Directorate has been depicted as a haven for underemployed poets or meddlesome soldier politicians Based on wide ranging research this book reveals a fuller and more fascinating picture The fierce conflicts in the wartime bureaucracy between public servants and soldiers in which the Directorate provided critical support to Blamey went to the heart of military command accountability and the profession of arms The Directorate was a pioneer in developing approaches to military government in areas liberated by the combat troops as demonstrated by the Australian Army in New Guinea and Borneo in 1945-46 It is an issue of enduring importance The Directorate established the Australian School of Pacific Administration and had an important role in founding the Australian National University Its influence extended into post war Australia The Backroom Boys emphasises the personality of Colonel Alf Conlon as well as the talented men and women he recruited Above all this book shows how unexpectedly the Australian Army fostered a group of men and women who made a lasting contribution to the development of Australia in the decades after the war

The House That Jack Built James Colman, 2016-09-01 This is the story of how an ordinary bloke from the bush became the key figure in a movement that would change the shape of our cities and bring about lasting political and legal reform This is the story of the house that Jack Munday built Without the green bans movement of the 1970s Sydney and many other cities would look very different Pulling together an unlikely alliance of environmentalists and union players earned Jack Munday a reputation as both the best known unionist and best known conservationist in Australia Under his leadership the movement fought against the slash and burn philosophy that almost saw The Rocks fitted out with high rise buildings a highway through the centre of Glebe and total development of Centennial Park In this long awaited book James Colman reflects on Jack's remarkable life and his ongoing legacy Munday overturned the bulldozer mentality of the 1960s and 1970s and helped to persuade Australians everywhere to cherish and protect the heritage of special buildings places and sites

Between Consenting Peoples Jeremy H. A. Webber, Colin Murray Macleod, 2010 Consent has long been used to establish the legitimacy of society But when one asks who consented how to what type of community consent becomes very elusive more myth than reality In Between Consenting Peoples leading scholars in legal and political theory examine the different ways in which consent has been used to justify political communities and the authority of law especially in indigenous/nonindigenous relations They explore the kind of consent the kind of attachment that might ground political community and establish a fair relationship between indigenous and nonindigenous peoples

International Law and Indigenous Peoples Joshua Castellino, Niamh Walsh, 2005-03-01 This volume a collection of essays by a variety of scholars in the field of indigenous rights originates from the Irish Centre for Human Rights at the National University of Ireland in Galway It highlights those instances in the work of international organizations where advances have been made concerning indigenous rights It also devotes attention to the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues to the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination and to a number of thematic issues in the field The human rights situations facing indigenous peoples in Australia Bangladesh Canada India Kenya Mexico Nicaragua Nigeria and South Africa are dealt with in separate chapters These surveys show a range of reactions to the multiple problems of discrimination or lack of proper responses as far as domestic legislation national implementation of the laws and national compliance with the applicable international standards are concerned Central Banks, Democratic States and Financial Power Jocelyn

Pixley,2018-10-11 Assesses central bank policies towards capitalist money creation and war finance against inflationary and deflationary class strengths in specific democracies Oceans Andrew Dwyer,2009 One of the most satisfying culinary pursuits is to catch prepare and eat absolutely fresh seafood The recipes and stories in this book are a celebration of Australia our maritime history our oceans and the wonderful seafood they provide Securing Village Life Scott

MacWilliam,2013-05-01 SECURING VILLAGE LIFE DEVELOPMENT IN LATE COLONIAL PAPUA NEW GUINEA examines the significance for post World War II Australian colonial policy of the modern idea of development Australian officials emphasised the importance of bringing development for both the colony of Papua and the United Nations Trust Territory of New Guinea The principal form that development took involved securing smallholders against the tendencies of other forms of capitalist development that might have separated households from land In order to make household occupation of their holdings more secure and at higher standards of living the colonial administration coordinated and supervised increases in production of crops and other agricultural produce Contrary to suggestions that colonial policy and practice ignored indigenous agriculture and concentrated on plantation crops grown by international firms and expatriate owner occupiers the study shows how the main focus was instead upon increasing smallholder output for immediate consumption as well as for local and international markets Simultaneously development stimulated increases in consumption including of goods produced through manufacturing processes and imported into the colony Only as Independence approached was the pre eminence of the earlier focus upon smallholders weakened In part the change occurred due to the political advance of the indigenous capitalist class and their allies seeking to extend their base in largeholding agriculture and related commercial activities This advance and the uncertainty over which form of development would prevail once indigenes held state power in post colonial Papua New Guinea stood in marked contrast to the definite direction pursued under the colonial administration of the 1950s and early 1960s From Moree to Mabo Pamela Burton,2010 This is the remarkable story of Mary Gaudron

AC QC the first female Justice of the High Court of Australia With wit astonishing intellect and the tool of the law Gaudron exposed inequality and discrimination in the workforce and campaigned vigorously for women to be accorded equal pay and equal opportunities

The Top Books of the Year Nugget Coombs The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Nugget Coombs : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
