Christian Reading Blossom Stefaniw, 2019-05-21 Uncovered in 1941 near Cairo the Tura papyri brought to light numerous works attributed to Didymus the Blind including commentaries and grammatical lessons on the Psalms and Ecclesiastes Previously thought to reflect exercises in exegesis or instruction in virtue the lessons include 300 authentic student questions demonstrating that grammar in late antiquity was based not on Homer or Menander but on the Old Testament Blossom Stefaniew argues that these lessons constitute an unusual instance of non confessional reading and study of the Bible directed at conveying general knowledge of the linguistic moral physical and social orders to young people Grammar was about knowledge of the general order of things not only how to read and speak well but how to behave properly and know what is appropriate Didymus s work epitomizes this transformation of education and civic culture raising a claim that language comportment and common sense were governed by a Christian order By reanalyzing the paradigms of religion and pedagogy Christian Reading intervenes in existing
