Parsons,2017-02-16 Excerpt from Nursing Problems and Obligations Arms working together for the sick both in peace and in war through so many years it goes without saying that Miss Parsons and I agree on the points of ethics with which she deals in this book otherwise one of us would have convinced the other But as a fact I think both of us have been convinced by the same masters by daily trial and error by daily experience What she here records is well founded because it is a transcript of what any honest intelligent nurse finds written into her life by the successes and failures of her work When she and others have followed the path described in this book things have gone right other wise wrong About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Nursing Problems and Obligations Sara E Parsons,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1916 edition Excerpt CHAPTER IV ETHICS AND THE STUDENT NURSE Continued There is always a best way of doing everything if it be to boil an egg Manners are the happy way of doing things Emerson Personality Skill and education avail little if one s Success and personality is not pleasing It is scarcely appiness worth while for a woman to begin training if her personality is positively unpleasant Every pupil does well to study herself with a view to improvement in every possible way during the three years in which she is an undergraduate Why do we say of certain people that their personality is attractive Is it because they are beautiful to look at No most assuredly not At the moment I think of a nurse who was most popular with her patients the doctors and all her associates To strangers she was plain and unquestionably she was awkward yet she had magnetism and charm As nearly as I can analyze her attraction it lay in her goodness her lack of self consciousness in her humor and originality She was always desperately in earnest to do well whatever she had to do and she was untiring in her efforts She was sympathetic and intelligent with her patients attentive and honest in her relations with the doctors She was unselfishly interested in the nurses professionally and socially always ready to do her share on any occasion She had faults which she struggled with and in the main conquered Study the people you know and decide what characteristics interest or antagonize you Think how much depends upon manner voice appearance Daintiness Few o us can e beautiful but we may all be well groomed This in itself will be a charm and offset some
