Lighted Windows Mary Paul,2008 As a journalist poet novelist and war correspondent from China in 1938 Robin Hyde wrote about the movements and debates of a volatile period Hyde dared to broach such subjects as the plight of soldiers returned from the First World War and the dangers of new found freedoms for women This first critical study of her diverse writings includes new information on her life and work and enlarges our understanding of the vitality richness and wit of her writing

BOOK JACKET A Passport To Hell George Rathmell,2002 A Passport to Hell is the enigmatic story of Richard Realf a prodigy poet published in his teens a gifted teacher of the poor a courageous member of John Brown s band of anti slavery fighters a Union Army volunteer decorated for gallantry in battle a devoted family man and a spellbinding temperance lecturer He was also a drunkard and a bigamist who abandoned two wives and three children Realf was very much a man of his time and reflected the turbulent 19th century s awakening of the common man the championing of freedom and the desperate search for human perfectibility His ambiguous life is a virtual allegory of the pursuit of self realization and the price of failing to achieve it

The Damned Don't Cry - They Just Disappear

Harlan Greene, 2017-12-29 A biography of an unconventional Southern writer who illuminated gay life in the South In The Damned Don't Cry They Just Disappear literary historian and Lambda Award winning novelist Harlan Greene has created a portrait of a nearly forgotten southern writer unearthing information from archives rare books film libraries and small town newspapers Greene brings Harry Hervey 1900 1951 to life and explicates his works to reveal him as a hardworking writer and master of many genres bravely unwilling to conform to conventional values As Greene illustrates Hervey's novels short stories nonfiction books and film scripts contain complex mixtures of history and thinly disguised homoerotic situations and themes They blend local color naturalism melodrama and psychological and sexual truths that provide a view to the circles in which he moved Living openly with his male lover in Savannah Georgia and Charleston South Carolina Hervey set novels in these cities that scandalized the locals and critics as well He challenged the sexual mores of his day sometimes subtly and at other times brazenly presenting texts that told one story to gay male readers while still courting a mainstream audience His novels and nonfiction may have been coded and thus escaped detection in their day but twenty first century readers can decipher them easily Greene also discusses Hervey's travel books and successful Hollywood scriptwriting as well as his use of exotic elements from Asian cultures The iconic film Shanghai Express starring Marlene Dietrich was based on one of his original stories He also wrote some of the first travel books on Indochina with descriptions of male and female prostitution and allusions to his own sexual adventures which still make for sensational reading today Despite Hervey's output and his perseverance in presenting gay characters and themes as openly as he could he has not been included in any survey of twentieth century gay writers Greene now rectifies this omission providing the first book length study of Hervey's life and work and the first scholarly attention to him in more than fifty years It furthers our understanding of gay life in the South as well as the impact of gay artists on popular culture in the first half of the twentieth century The Encyclopedia of Fantastic Film R. G. Young, 2000-04 Thirty five years in the making and destined to be the last word in fanta film references This incredible 1 017 page resource provides vital credits on over 9 000 films 1896 1999 of horror fantasy mystery science fiction heavy melodrama and film noir Comprehensive cast lists include directors writers cinematographers and composers Also includes plot synopses critiques re title translation information running times photographs and several cross referenced indexes by artist year song etc Paperback An Orphan of Hell's Kitchen Liz Freeland, 2020-02-25 In 1914 Hell's Kitchen is an apt name for New York City's grittiest neighborhood as one of the city's first policewomen Louise Faulk is about to discover when the death of a young prostitute leads her on a grim journey through the district's darkest corners Filthy dangerous and deadly Hell's Kitchen is no place for a lady but Louise Faulk is no ordinary woman The amateur investigator turned rookie policewoman is investigating the death of young prostitute Ruthie who leaves behind a baby boy Although detectives are quick to declare it a suicide Louise is less certain after she discovers clues implying murder while attempting to find a caretaker for Ruthie's orphaned son. Uncovering the truth won't be easy especially since Louise is struggling to make a name for herself amid the boys club of the New York City Police Department. But Ruthie's case keeps tugging at Louise luring her beyond the slums drawn curtains and tenement doors into an undercover investigation that often seems to conceal more than it reveals. Louise is convinced Ruthie's secrets got her killed but can she prove it before they catch up to her too.

Assumed Identity David Morrell, 2024-09-24 From the author of The Covenant of the Flame and The Fifth Profession Brendan Buchanan is an undercover intelligence operative who has impersonated more than 200 people in the last eight years. But now his multi personality occupation threatens to destroy him.

Hell's Heaven Anthony Florence, 2021-08-26 My life started in the ghetto of Roxbury Massachusetts a mile away from the drug infested neighborhood where Bobby Brown came up. My father left our family when I was one. My mother had five children one of whom died in early childhood. My mother struggled every day to feed us. I'm sure many times not feeding herself. A lot of our food and Christmas toys came from the government. Despite all her struggles my mother did everything in her power to give me an academic edge. After I won the Boston Mayor's Award for academics when I graduated from the sixth grade my mother colluded with a white family to put me on an academic and cultural Rocketship. This was the point where I had to begin to navigate my path mostly on my own as my mother's knowledge and experience regarding my new world was very limited. All I could do was to try to hold on. I attended the University of Massachusetts and a computer electronics class at Benjamin Franklin Institute where IBM hired me. After 20 years in the world of high technology I became disillusioned with corporate life and moved with my family to Costa Rica where I had the pleasure of meeting a man named Dr Deepak Chopra who contacted me and invited my wife and I to join him at his private lunch with the presidential candidate of Costa Rica during his one day conference. How People always ask me Why after 17 years did you return from the paradise of Costa Rica to the U S. This is my true story.

The Adjustment John Gess, 2016-11-09 The Adjustment continues the story of Jacob Cahill the son of American missionaries in China who were killed during the great purges of Mao Tse tung early in his reign. In Book One Jacob survives through the goodwill and good graces of his Chinese godmother Mu Ju and her son a former Buddhist monk who cares for and trains the boy until he is old enough to flee China. To the shock of his caretakers they realize that Jacob is a child prodigy possessed of extraordinary intellectual abilities which they struggle to help him realize. Now back in America fifteen year old Jacob must adjust to the enormous changes in his life and the society around him using his great gifts to not only survive but thrive. Yet there are roadblocks thrown in his path as the racial fires are burning harshly in 1960s America. As he faces those who violently confront him he must make difficult choices of life and death and question his own morality in the process. His talents carry him far yet is he becoming a savior or a monster.
