Sex, Drugs & Jesus De'Vannon Hubert, 2022-03-28 Transparency is one of the most effective tools we have that can help us heal It can also help us understand ourselves better as well as other people What would you do if you believed you only had months to live How would you feel if your community was stolen from you Could you survive living on the streets for any length of time Can you imagine what it s like to try to find a job when you have felonies on your record Are there any words to describe the heart of a mother as she watches her youngest child die It s taken my whole life to realize that the main person I ve been battling against has been me As such my memoir delves into raw detail about my war with my myself I open up about my crystal meth addiction and how I became a drug dealer in Houston Tx The pain of growing up in poverty under the hand of an abusive dad is put on display as well The time I spent serving in the Air Force during Don t Ask Don t Tell and the promiscuity that went along with it is also divulged I talk about how I received my HIV diagnosis on a voicemail and my Hep B diagnosis in the postal mail My story gets more intense as I share about how I got 3 felonies the time I spent in jail and how I ended up homeless after S W A T kicked my door in I talk about the biggest heartbreak in my life which happened when I was kicked out of a megachurch that I had served with my whole soul for years just because I am a member of the 2SLGBTQIA community and refused to accept the conversion therapy package they offered So often people judge those who have been in similar situations My hope is that my honesty can offer a glimpse into these issues from the inside rather than from the outside looking in I struggled with dividing my memoir into two separate books but I felt it would be more impactful to tell everything all at once My memoir is my testament and it s the greatest form of outreach I have ever offered to the world I hope that I can earn your trust and attention with the words I have written within these pages

New Fiction in English from Africa: West, East, and South André Viola, Jacqueline Bardolph, Denise Coussey, 2022-05-20 The term recent or new covers novels and some short fiction published between 1980 and 1995 a period characterized by growing pessimism about the state of affairs in both East and West Africa The section on South Africa deals more narrowly with the 1985 95 watershed marking the end of official apartheid and the beginning of reconstruction The three sections aim at giving a coherent picture of the main directions in production highlighting three main centres of interest Nigeria Kenya and the Republic of South Africa although some novelists from neighbouring countries are also considered such as Kofi Awoonor from Ghana Nuruddin Farah from Somalia and M G Vassanji and Abdulrazak Gurnah from Tanzania The evaluations conducted in the three sections lead to the emergence of a number of common themes in particular the writers predilection for topicality the role of the past and the controversy over the idea of the nation Central themes also include the role of women in fending for themselves both in rural and in urban environments A further major theme is the role of the past the Nigerian civil war the Mau Mau period in Kenya the revisiting of slavery the refurbishing of myth the questioning of historical reconstructions The preoccupation of the West East and South African novel with the idea and ideal of the nation is explored particularly in the context of migrancy hybridity and transculturalism characterizing the anglophone diaspora The volume is aimed at literary scholars and students and more generally readers of fiction seeking an introduction to contemporary literary developments in various parts of sub Saharan anglophone Africa No categorical distinction is drawn between popular and high literature Though still selective and not intended as an exhaustive catalogue the present survey covers a large number of titles Rather than resorting to broad and ultimately somewhat abstract thematic categories the contributors endeavour to keep control over this mass of material by applying a micro thematic taxonomy This approach well tested in the tradition of literary studies within France groups works analytically and evaluatively in terms of such categories as actional motifs plot frames and sociologically relevant locations or topics thereby enabling a clearer focus on the dynamics of preoccupation and tendency that form networks of affinity across the fiction produced in the period surveyed
