Contested Ideas of Regionalism in Asia Baogang He,2016-09-13 Deepening regionalism in Asia demands new leadership Strong elites who are committed to a supranational identity are a minimum requirement of successful regionalism Regional leaders are increasingly seen as a new set of leaders in Europe Currently Asian regional leaders largely come from the diplomacy community or trade and economic sectors Yet further regionalization demands a new type of leadership from civil society and citizens In this context it is important to cultivate new regional leadership through the development of regional citizenship This book examines contested ideas of regionalism in Asia with a particular focus on two competing ideas of pan Asianism and Pacificism It also identifies a new trend and contestation the fundamental shift from a civilization understanding of regionalism to a technocratic and functional understanding of regionalism in the form of regulatory regionalism. It also examines the other contested imaginations of regionalism in Asia including elitist versus participatory approaches to regionalism and democracy centric versus nationalism centric approaches to regionalism. Confronting Global Neoliberalism Patrick Bond, Paul Clooney, 2011-02-28. With the world's attention fixed on the travails of leading global economies due to a still unfolding financial crisis of gigantic proportions there has been a studied silence on the fate of the third world as the malaise increasingly impacts it. This silence is particularly disturbing because questions of potential pitfalls in the neoliberal policy package which the third world unlike Western Europe and Japan was largely forced to adopt were never countenanced as one third world state after another discovered that international institutions were in effect hostile to their governments if they chose alternative developmental models or otherwise resisted the neoliberal triage of liberalization, privatization and deregulation. This collection is a tour de force effectively countering not only the neoliberal ideology of development as a whole but the marginalizing within today's mainstream crisis discourse of any discussion of the monstrous misallocation of global resources wrought by the so called Washington Consensus and the suffering and destruction it has wreaked on third world peoples and economies. This edited volume is intended as both a textbook for introductory classes in global development or area studies and as a conduit for advanced students, policymakers, NGO activists and an educated readership to gain knowledge about the socio economic conditions existing across much of the world we live in and the policies that brought them about. The specially commissioned and peer reviewed chapters are written by experts in the fields of economics, politics, sociology and international studies. Chapter authors hail from around the world including Brazil, Mexico, Canada, United States, United Kingdom, South Africa, South Korea and Thailand. The countries, regions, neoliberal experience and potential futures covered in this book are Brazil, China, Cuba, Egypt, Mexico, Southeast Asia, Indonesia, Malaysia and Vietnam, South Africa, South Korea, Syria, Thailand and Venezuela.

The Political Economy of Emerging Markets Richard Westra, 2017-03-16. Rapid and sustained growth in the twenty first century global economy of large developing economies including Brazil, Russia, India, China and South Africa has captivated policy makers and popular business press pundits alike. The coining of the new acronym BRICS and widespread adoption in international economics discourse of the designation emerging markets is symptomatic of that interest. The Political Economy of Emerging Markets situates the BRICS phenomena in the global economic context of advanced economies continuing to languish in recession and hovering over a deflationary abyss several years after the meltdown. A key question this volume seeks to answer is whether the BRICS and so called emerging market phenomenon is really the new miracle it is presented as offering new or modified varieties of reloaded capitalist development to the world or yet another mirage. Written by ten leading global experts this book answers the tough questions over BRICS and emerging markets potentially realizing new varieties of reloaded capitalism. It is not only international and interdisciplinary but uniquely multiperspectival. Theories framing chapters are not of one genre but generate theoretical debate at the frontier of knowledge in political economy along with nuanced empirical analysis which flows from it This book is of great importance to those who study political economy development economics and international political economy
