Global/Local Rob Wilson,Wimal Dissanayake,1996-05-27 This groundbreaking collection focuses on what may be for cultural studies the most intriguing aspect of contemporary globalization the ways in which the postnational restructuring of the world in an era of transnational capitalism has altered how we must think about cultural production Mapping a new world space that is simultaneously more globalized and localized than before these essays examine the dynamic between the movement of capital images and technologies without regard to national borders and the tendency toward fragmentation of the world into increasingly contentious enclaves of difference ethnicity and resistance Ranging across issues involving film literature and theory as well as history politics economics sociology and anthropology these deeply interdisciplinary essays explore the interwoven forces of globalism and localism in a variety of cultural settings with a particular emphasis on the Asia Pacific region Powerful readings of the new image culture transnational film genre and the politics of spectacle are offered as is a critique of globalization as the latest guise of colonization Articles that unravel the complex links between the global and local in terms of the unfolding narrative of capital are joined by work that illuminates phenomena as diverse as yellow cab interracial sex in Japan machinic desire in Robocop movies and the Pacific Rim city An interview with Fredric Jameson by Paik Nak Chung on globalization and Pacific Rim responses is also featured as is a critical afterword by Paul Bov Positioned at the crossroads of an altered global terrain this volume the first of its kind analyzes the evolving transnational imaginary the full scope of contemporary cultural production by which national identities of political allegiance and economic regulation are being undone and in which imagined communities are being reshaped at both the global and local levels of everyday existence Pacific Yew Draft Environmental Impact Statement: appendices ,1993 Item no 0080 F The Forest Service in the Pacific Northwest ,1984 Pacific Wilderness Janis A Kraulis,J. A Hero for the Atomic Age Axel Andersson, 2010 Nomination for Best Foreign Film at the 2013 Academy Awards In English and many other languages the name Kon Tiki has become a byword for adventure and the exotic The journey of the Kon Tiki from Peru to Polynesia in 1947 became one of the founding myths of the postwar world In the voyage of six Scandinavians and a parrot on a balsa raft across the Pacific Ocean the classic journey of discovery was reinvented for generations to come Kon Tiki spoke of heroism masculinity free spirited rebellion against scientific dogmatism and the promise of an attainable exotic world while it updated these mythological staples to fit the times After years of relentless media exploitation of the 101-day raft journey Heyerdahl emerged as the protagonist in a legend that helped to create a new postwar West A Hero for the Atomic Age tells the story of how Heyerdahl organized an expedition to sail a balsa raft from Callao in Peru to the Tuamotu Islands in French Polynesia and explains how he turned this physical crossing into an epic narrative that became imbued with a universal appeal The book also addresses for the first time the problematic nature of Heyerdahl's theory that a white culture bearing race had initiated all the world's great civilizations
