Twenty-First Century World Order and the Asia Pacific J. Hsiung, 2001-08-10 After examining the global system's political volatility at the dawn of the new millennium the book looks at how some of the identifiable system wide trends e.g. globalization democratization fragmentation etc may find repercussions in the Asia Pacific The book also addresses the question of comprehensive security in comparison with other regions in a wide range of areas subsuming economic security geoeconomics environmental security ecopolitics and human security In addition the book recognizes the idiosyncrasies of the region such as the defensiveness of most Asian governments toward the protection of their financial markets against external forces following the regional financial crisis of the late 1990s Regional Integration - Europe and Asia Compared Woosik Moon, 2017-07-05 The aim of this book is to examine and compare the integration process in both Europe and Asia and to draw some possible lessons for East Asia from the European experience which culminated with the establishment of the economic and monetary union The book embraces the political dimension of integration peace and security economic trade and monetary aspects and cultural aspects Written by well known experts in the field of integration this book represents one of the first attempts at comparing Europe and Asia in the process of integration by incorporating the latest developments in the field The main theme of the book integration in Asia from a comparative perspective has been relatively unexplored as most experts in the field of integration are also area experts i.e. European integration experts or Asian experts The contributors to the book provide a distinctive perspective based upon their understanding of integration political economic and socio cultural across various regions of the world Promoting Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation Y. potential for creating a cooperative comprehensive security relationship The author concludes with an assessment on the utility of the concept of multi dimensional security cooperation as a framework for studying and improving the prospects for Russian South Korean bilateral relations      Whose Ideas Matter? Constructive Interventions L. Kirchhoff, 2008-05-16 In the contemporary discipline of conflict resolution adjudication and alternative dispute resolution ADR are often seen as antagonistic trends This important book contends that on the contrary it is the bringing together of these trends that holds the most promise for an effective system of international justice With great insight and passion built firmly on a vast knowledge of the field Lars Kirchhoff exposes the contemporary structural barriers to effective conflict resolution defining where adjudication ends and ADR and particularly the recent development of mediated third party intervention from an art to a veritable science must come into play The work starts by defining the challenges potentials and shortcomings of different approaches to conflict resolution in an interdependent world where the multiplicity of actors topics and interests involved even in seemingly bilateral conflict situations is clearly manifest and goes on to define useful models and connect the various elements relevant for the resolution of conflicts in a transparent way In the course of its investigation the book accomplishes the following illustrates the various departure points and perspectives scholars of conflict resolution have taken as the basis for their work discusses who should become involved in conflicts as a third party and by which techniques this should occur systematically conveys the nature and consequences of intervention through mediation focusing on the method s critical challenges and clarifies the particular model of international mediation under development through UN initiatives In approaching these intertwined topics the author draws concrete conclusions for the realms of international law and related disciplines as well as for the organizational context of the United Nations He explores such diverse scenarios as conflicts between States conflicts involving international organizations and in accordance with the changing parameters of international law even conflicts involving individuals clarifying which constellations can be tackled by international mediation and which conflicts should be dealt with by other forms of diplomacy or adjudication It is the conviction of many intermediaries and scholars that the considerable potential inherent in resolving conflicts peacefully is rarely put into practice Although some of the reasons for this phenomenon are beyond the influence of scholarly debate in many instances the reasons for failure of peaceful resolution processes are more structural or systemic in nature It is the great virtue of this book that it establishes enough clarity in an unclear and complex field to make concrete and workable recommendations in these instances and for that reason it will be of immeasurable value and benefit to all scholars policymakers and activists dedicated to the pursuit of peace      Reconfiguring East Asia Mark Beeson, 2014-04-23 Focuses both on specific regional organizations like ASEAN The Asian Development Bank and APEC as well as on key institutions such as East Asian legal systems the media organized labour Asian business systems and the developmental state
