Sir William Rooke Creswell and the Foundation of the Australian Navy Sheila Dwyer, 2014-03-26 The six Australian colonies united on 1st January 1901 to become the Commonwealth of Australia One of the reasons given for this federation was that the Commonwealth could provide a common defence William Rooke Creswell argued that as an island continent Australia could not defend itself without a navy He saw no point in having a 70 000 strong army if only one enemy battleship could destroy port cities and disrupt maritime trade and sea communications Creswell was not alone in his campaign to establish a navy for Australia but he was the one constant advocate throughout the years from his first proposals on a navy for Australia in 1886 to when the first ships of the Australian Fleet sailed into Sydney Harbour in October 1913 Homer Lea Lawrence M. Kaplan, 2010-10-01 The unlikely story of Lea s attempts to train a cadre of soldiers in American Chinatowns who would return to their homeland to make it a modern world power Pacific Historical Review As a five feet three inch hunchback who weighed about 100 pounds Homer Lea 1876 1912 was an unlikely candidate for life on the battlefield yet he became a world renowned military hero Homer Lea American Soldier of Fortune paints a revealing portrait of a diminutive yet determined man who never earned his valor on the field of battle but left an indelible mark on his times Lawrence M Kaplan draws from extensive research to illuminate the life of a man of mystery while also yielding a clearer understanding of the early twentieth century Chinese underground reform and revolutionary movements Lea s career began in the inner circles of a powerful Chinese movement in San Francisco that led him to a generalship during the Boxer Rebellion Fixated with commanding his own Chinese army Lea s inflated aspirations were almost always dashed by reality Although he never achieved the leadership role for which he strived he became a trusted advisor to revolutionary leader Dr Sun Yat sen during the 1911 revolution that overthrew the Manchu Dynasty As an author Lea garnered fame for two books on geopolitics The Valor of Ignorance which examined weaknesses in the American defenses and included dire warnings of an impending Japanese American war and The Day of the Saxon which predicted the decline of the British Empire More than a character study this biography provides insight into the establishment and execution of underground reform and revolutionary movements within US immigrant communities and in southern China as well as early twentieth century geopolitical thought
