Pacific Politics Asian Australasian Oceanic:

Pacific Politics I. F. Nicolson, Colin A. Hughes, 1972 PACIFIC POLITICS I. F. NICOLSON, Regional Politics in Oceania Stephanie Lawson, 2024-02-22 Stephanie Lawson's book is by far the most comprehensive study of regional politics in Oceania produced to date. Drawing on a range of interdisciplinary sources, she provides a systematic account of major issues facing the region and presents conceptual and theoretical issues in a sophisticated but accessible manner. She traces the trajectories of regional politics from the earliest human settlements to European exploration and colonization, the period of formal regionalization in the post-war period, decolonization, the Cold War, and key geopolitical developments in the post-Cold War period. She also focuses on identity politics manifest at various levels from the local through to the national, subregional, and regional, as well as broader configurations around the West/non-West divide. This book will be of interest to anyone engaged with the history and politics of Oceania or comparative regional studies, especially given the relevance of themes to Asian, African, and Latin American contexts.

Politics, Development and Security in Oceania David Hegarty, Darrell Tryon, 2013-04-01 French and Australian collaborative research in the humanities and the social sciences in the South Pacific has grown and intensified significantly over the past two decades, beginning with the international symposium Changing Identities in the Pacific at the Dawn of the Twenty First Century held at the Australian Embassy in Paris in 1997. In April 2006, another French government-sponsored international symposium AGORA Ateliers Gouvernance et Recherche Appliquée was held at IRD Institut de Recherche pour le Développement Nouméa, New Caledonia, major themes being governance and economic development, again bringing together Francophone and Anglophone scholars from France and the Pacific region. This was followed in October 2009 by two conjoint Francophone/Anglophone conferences held at the IRD Centre in Nouméa: Stability, Security and Development in Oceania, preceded by AGORA 2, an international conference on Anglophone research in the humanities and the social sciences in the Francophone Pacific, sponsored by the French Government and the Government of New Caledonia. The first of these conferences was sponsored by the French Fonds Pacifique and the State Society and Governance Program at The Australian National University. An edited selection of presentations from this symposium constitutes the present volume.

Preface Christian Politics in Oceania Matt Tomlinson, Debra L. McDougall, 2013 The phrase Christian politics evokes two meanings: political relations between denominations in one direction, and the contributions of Christian churches to debates about the governing of society. The contributors to this volume address Christian politics in both senses and argue that Christianity is always and inevitably political in the Pacific Islands. Drawing on ethnographic and historical research in Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands, Vanuatu, and Fiji, the authors argue that Christianity and politics have redefined each other in much of Oceania in ways that make the two categories inseparable at any level of analysis. The individual chapters vividly illuminate the ways in which Christian politics operate across a wide scale from interpersonal relations to national and global interconnections.

Routledge Handbook of National and Regional Ocean Policies Biliana Cicin-Sain, David Vanderzwaag, Miriam C.

Balgos, 2015-05-15 This comprehensive handbook prepared by leading ocean policy academics and practitioners from around the world presents in depth analyses of the experiences of fifteen developed and developing nations and four key regions of the world that have taken concrete steps toward cross cutting and integrated national and regional ocean policy All chapters follow a common framework for policy analysis While most coastal nations of the world already have a variety of sectoral policies in place to manage different uses of the ocean such as shipping fishing oil and gas development in the last two decades the coastal nations covered in the book have undertaken concerted efforts to articulate and implement an integrated ecosystem based vision for the governance of ocean areas under their jurisdiction This includes goals and procedures to harmonize existing uses and laws to foster sustainable development of ocean areas to protect biodiversity and vulnerable resources and ecosystems and to coordinate the actions of the many government agencies that are typically involved in oceans affairs The book highlights the serious conflicts of use in most national ocean zones and the varying attempts by nations to follow the prescriptions emanating from the 1982 UN Law of the Sea Convention and the outcomes of the 1992 2002 and 2012 sustainable development summits The interrelationship among uses and processes in the coast and ocean requires that ocean governance be integrated precautionary and anticipatory Overall the book provides a definitive state of the art review and analysis of national and regional ocean policies around the world The New World Politics of the

Indo-Pacific Josukutty C A, Joyce Sabina Lobo, 2024-06-03 The book offers a vivid analysis of the new geopolitics in the Indo Pacific in terms of big power rivalry between the US China and country wise perspectives situating largely within the late 2000s and culminates with the developments of the COVID 19 period The great power shift marked by the rise of China and the relative decline of the US poses a serious challenge to the balance of power in the Indo Pacific region and the world order in general Ironically the play of realism in the region is stymied by broad partnerships of key countries that utilise the liberal approaches of cooperation with both rivals the US and China The book captures the mosaic of stakeholders rivals the US and China along with Russia other QUAD members Australia India and Japan key ASEAN members Indonesia Malaysia Singapore and Vietnam vulnerable states in East Asia viz Taiwan and South Korea and groupings including the ASEAN and QUAD that constitute the new world politics of the Indo Pacific The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of Indo Pacific studies global politics and international relations Gender, Property and Politics in the Pacific Rebecca

Monson, 2023-01-26 Legal scholars economists and international development practitioners often assume that the state is capable of securing rights to land and addressing gender inequality in land tenure In this innovative study of land tenure in Solomon Islands Rebecca Monson challenges these assumptions Monson demonstrates that territorial disputes have given rise to a legal system characterised by state law custom and Christianity and that the legal construction and regulation of property has in fact deepened gender inequalities and other forms of social difference These processes have concentrated formal land control in the hands of a small number of men leaders and reproduced the state as a hypermasculine domain with significant implications for public authority political participation and state formation Drawing insights from legal scholarship and political ecology in particular this book offers a significant study of gender and legal pluralism in the Pacific illuminating ongoing global debates about gender inequality land tenure ethnoterritorial struggles and the post colonial state

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2006 The International Politics of the Asia-Pacific Michael Yahuda,2019-03-18 This fully revised fourth edition of Michael Yahuda s successful textbook brings the subject up to date introducing students to the international politics of the Asia Pacific region since 1945 As well as assessing the post cold War uncertainties that challenged balance and power with the region the book also examines the first two decades of the new millennium which includes no let up on the war on terror new political administrations in all the key player states and increased cooperative security between some nations polarised by volatile relationships between others Analyzing politics in terms of global regional and local trends this new edition features Discussion and evaluation of the Trump Presidency and its implications for the Asia Pacific region Analysis of Japan s more assertive foreign policy Examination of the continued Rise of China under Xi Jinping in terms of politics security economic dominance and territorial conflicts in the region Ongoing debates concerning the war on terror and how this shifts forms and reforms relationships Explanation of how America s war s in the greater Middle East and the financial crash of 2008 undermined the American led international order This new fourth edition will continue to be a core text for students of Asian politics international relations and Cold War history Pacific Histories David Armitage,Alison Bashford,2014-01-23 The first comprehensive account to place the Pacific Islands the Pacific Rim and the Pacific Ocean into the perspective of world history A distinguished international team of historians provides a multidimensional account of the Pacific its inhabitants and the lands within and around it over 50 000 years with special attention to the peoples of Oceania It providing chronological coverage along with analyses of themes such as the environment migration and the economy religion law and science race gender and politics Maritime Security in the Indo-Pacific Mohan Malik,2014-09-24 In the twenty first century the Indo Pacific which spans from the western Pacific Ocean to the western Indian Ocean along the eastern coast of Africa has emerged as a crucial geostrategic region for trade investment energy supplies cooperation and competition It presents complex maritime security challenges and interlocking economic interests that require the development of an overarching multilateral security framework This volume develops common approaches by focusing on geopolitical challenges transnational security concerns and multilateral institution building and cooperation The chapters written by a cross section of practitioners diplomats policymakers and scholars from the three major powers discussed United States China India explain the opportunities and risks in the Indo Pacific region and identify specific naval measures needed to enhance maritime security in the region Maritime Security in the Indo Pacific opens by introducing the Indo Pacific and outlining the roles of China India and the United States in various maritime issues in the region It then focuses on the security challenges presented by maritime disputes naval engagement legal issues sea lanes of communication energy transport humanitarian assistance and disaster relief as well as by nontraditional threats such as piracy terrorism and weapons proliferation It compares and contrasts the roles and perspectives of the key maritime powers analyzing the need for multilateral cooperation to overcome the traditional and nontraditional challenges and security dilemma This shows that in spite of their different interests capabilities and priorities Washington Beijing and New Delhi can and do engage in cooperation to deal with transnational security challenges Lastly the book describes how to promote maritime cooperation by establishing or strengthening multilateral mechanisms and measures that would reduce the prospects for conflict in the Indo Pacific region

The Politics of Global Ocean Regions Christian Bueger,Elizabeth Mendenhall,Rebecca Strating,2025-07-08 The oceans are not just vast expanses of blue but dynamic political spaces shaped by complex regional dynamics In this fascinating study the authors advance a novel analytical framework for the study of the politics of global ocean regions They shed new light on the complex interactions in ocean spaces such as the Arctic Indo Pacific or Indian Ocean Written by leading experts in different ocean regions the book demonstrates how important yet diverse and complex regional maritime politics are Its emphasis on the emergence organization and effects of global ocean regions provides a useful framework for guiding future research The book will be essential reading for students and analysts interested in regionalism the oceans and the governance of global commons
