Cognitive Approaches to Contemporary Media Teodora Popescu, 2021-07-27 This collection represents a fresh perspective on metaphorical language used in the media nowadays and will inform and captivate both the general reader and the specialist It explores the fascinating facets of metaphor use in journals and films and given the mediatic tendencies of manipulative framings of reality offers fresh insights into how figurative language works in the media nowadays may be useful in order to educate audiences and train their decoding abilities in order to avoid being misled and biased Its complexity and wide array of perspectives would make this book a must read for anyone genuinely interested in achieving a broader picture of the field from undergraduate students of English language and linguists to people working in the media

The Wedding Spectacle Across Contemporary Media and Culture Jilly Boyce Kay, Melanie Kennedy, Helen Wood, 2019-10-24 This book interrogates the hyper visibility and stubborn endurance of the wedding spectacle across media and culture in the current climate The wide ranging chapters consider why the symbolic power of weddings is intensifying at a time when marriage as an institution appears to be in decline and they offer new insights into the shifting and complex gender politics of contemporary culture The collection is a feminist project but does not straight forwardly renounce the wedding spectacle Rather the diverse contributions offer close analyses of the myriad forms and practices of the wedding spectacle from reality television and cinematic film to wedding videography and bridal boutiques Drawing on feminist and queer theory the chapters illuminate the paradoxes contradictions disappointments cruelties and pleasures that are intimately bound up with the wedding spectacle Written by leading and emerging feminist scholars the chapters range across different national and cultural contexts to explore how the gender politics of weddings are changing and adapting to a new cultural and social landscape This in depth analysis of the wedding spectacle will appeal to academics and researchers in the fields of gender and mass media cultural studies feminist studies and intercultural communication

The Aesthetics of Violence in Contemporary Media Gwyn Symonds, 2011-11-03 The topic of violence in the media seems as inundated as can be Countless studies and research projects have been conducted mostly to show its negative effects on society What Gwynneth Symonds proposes though takes this significant topic one step further studying the aesthetics of media violence By defining key terms like the graphic nature and authenticity of violent representations and discussing how those definitions are linked to actual violence outside the film and television screen Symonds broadens the arena of study Engagingly written The Aesthetics of Violence in Contemporary

Media fills an important gap Symonds uses existing studies for the empirical audience reception data together with discussions of the different representations of violence to look at violence in the media as an art form in of itself By looking at The Simpsons Bowling for Columbine and Norma Khouri s Forbidden Love just to name a few Symonds cross analyzes violence in multiple media to see their affective role in audience reception an important aspect when discussing media The book strikes a balance between the readers need to see how theory matches what actually happens in the texts in question and the demands of a theoretical overview Student Journalism & Media Literacy Homer L. Hall,Megan Fromm, Ph.D.,Aaron Manfull,2015-01-15 This comprehensive resource covers everything student journalists need to know in a rapidly changing media landscape Approachable and non intimidating this book features important concepts and examples from current school publications from around the country Foremost it teaches skills such as the fundamentals of good writing and the basics of newspaper layout and design Also addressed however are topics that journalists are only now facing such as the responsibilities of citizen journalists managing a news website and digital security for reporters in the electronic age This textbook is on the cutting edge in teaching students how to navigate this evolving field EBOOK PRICE LISTED IS FOR SINGLE USE ONLY CONTACT US FOR A PRICE QUOTE FOR MULTI USE ACCESS Contemporary Media Stylistics Helen Ringrow,Stephen Pihlaja,2020-04-16 Media discourse is changing at an unprecedented rate This book presents the most recent stylistic frameworks exploring different and changed forms of media The volume collates recent and emerging research in the expanding field of media stylistics featuring a variety of methods multimodal source material and a broad range of topics From Twitter and Zooniverse to Twilight and Mommy Blogs the volume maps out new intellectual territory and showcases a huge scope neatly drawn together by leading scholars Helen Ringrow and Stephen Pihlaja Contributors write on topics that challenge the traditional notions and conceptualisations of media and the consequences of technological affordances for the development of media production and consumption There is a particular focus on the ways in which contemporary media contexts complicate and challenge traditional media models and offer new and unique ways of approaching discourse in these contexts Media and Market Forces V. S. Gupta,Rajeshwar Dyal,1997 Contributed research papers of various seminars organized by Asian Mass Communication Research and Information Centre and Friedrich Ebert Stiftung Essays on Contemporary Media Theory and Practices Manish Verma,Nithin Kalorth,2017-07-01 The book is released with an Introductory Article by Prof Denis McQuail on Future of Field of Communication The collection essays are part of ICMCS 2017 an International conference organized by Amity University Rajasthan in 2017

Contemporary Chinese Print Media Zheng Yi,2013-10-01 This book examines the transformations in form genre and content of contemporary Chinese print media It describes and analyses the role of post reform social stratification in the media focusing particularly on how the changing practices and institutions of the industry correspond to and accelerate the emergence of a relatively affluent urban leisure reading market It argues that this reinvention of Chinese print media vis vis

the creation of a post socialist taste class culture is an essential part of the cultural and affective transformations in contemporary Chinese society and demonstrates how the reinvention of such taste culture effectively creates through new kinds of reading materials and carefully demarcated target audiences a middle class civility that serves as the locus of the new niche media market Sameness and Repetition in Contemporary Media Culture Susana Tosca, 2023-08-02 The ebook edition of this title is Open Access and freely available to read online Our culture has an uneasy relationship with repetition and sameness On the one hand we find familiarity pleasurable and soothing on the other we crave novelty and long for a sense of discovery We blame algorithms intent on selling us more of the same and on a media industry too greedy to risk investing in intellectually challenging radically new products Sameness and Repetition in Contemporary Media Culture takes a comprehensive approach that both theorises and historically grounds the idea of repetition in relation to media as something that is deeply embedded in our cultural tradition This project received funding from the Carlsberg Foundation

Contemporary Culture and Media in Asia Daniel Black, Olivia Khoo, Koichi Iwabuchi, 2016-09-23 The study of Asian culture media and communications is an area that has developed rapidly over the past two decades This rapid development has led to the deployment of diverse scholarly approaches while simultaneously raising important questions regarding the extent to which the use of key terms such as nation citizenship and modernity must be modified to reflect the specificity of an Asian context Furthermore the irrepressible flows of popular cultural forms and the enthusiastic adoption of new communications technologies across the region demand approaches that can accommodate the dynamism and diversity of Asian culture and media Contemporary Culture and Media in Asia brings together leading scholars from Asia North America and Australia to address questions related to these challenges producing new insights and frameworks that can be productively utilized by students and scholars working in the field Renaissance of Classical Allusions in Contemporary Russian Media Svitlana Malykhina, 2014-02-27 Renaissance of Classical Allusions in Contemporary Russian Media builds on a growing body of work concerning post Soviet media culture during the last transformative decade Making sense of the literary allusions in media discourse Svitlana Malykhina reminds us that allusions can serve as a primary marker of identity national and cultural and may also be a way of negotiating the gap between what has to be reported and what can be banned by censorship Malykhina presents the changes and continuities between rhetoric strategies of Soviet style media and postcommunist Russian media identifying the key literary and historical references in public discourse which are then picked up by the media The book analyzes the political cultural and social factors at play in the development and expansion of these allusions in both official and alternative discourses Examining the rise of the Internet which has remained wholly uncensored in Russia Malykhina reveals that the Russian Internet media began to function as alternative mass media Yet the success of the Internet media has also brought complex and unintended consequences Malykhina offers an empirically rich examination of conventional classical allusions in media discourse focusing mainly on the rhetorical techniques by which subversive meanings of these references were generated Food, Media and Contemporary Culture Peri

Bradley, 2016-01-26 Food Media and Contemporary Culture is designed to interrogate the cultural fascination with food as the focus of a growing number of visual texts that reveal the deep psychological relationship that each of us has with rituals of preparing presenting and consuming food and images of food Contemporary Weaving in Mixed Media Rachna

French, 2017-06-12 A great guide for painters who want to experiment with mixed media and make their landscape paintings more adventurous Popular artist and teacher Soraya French encourages readers to experiment with mixing media and to create more adventurous paintings and broaden their artistic horizons The media that Soraya uses in this book are acrylics pastels and collage and she shows how to bring the best out of mixing these media with handy tips some simple projects and several step by step demonstrations Landscape and the way it changes over the seasons is the ideal subject for experimenting with different textural effects using mixed media Contemporary Landscapes in Mixed Media is divided into four seasonal chapters with each section dealing with the colours shapes patterns and textures particular to each season There is information on mixing colours relevant to each season as well as interesting ways of painting flowers and other details of nature how to create exciting compositions and how to add architectural aspects within the landscape In some landscapes figures may be added in order to animate the composition and create a narrative This practical and inspirational book will help and encourage the reader to explore the fascinating potential of mixed media and to adopt a freer attitude in their painting The Metareferential Turn in Contemporary Arts and Media Werner Wolf, 2011-01-01 One possible

description of the contemporary medial landscape in Western culture is that it has gone meta to an unprecedented extent so that a remarkable meta culture has emerged. Indeed, metareference i.e. self reflexive comments on or references to various kinds of media related aspects of a given medial artefact or performance specific media and arts or the media in general is omnipresent and can nowadays be encountered in high art and literature as frequently as in their popular counterparts in the traditional media as well as in new media. From the Simpsons pop music children's literature computer games and pornography to the contemporary visual arts feature film postmodern fiction drama and even architecture everywhere one can find metareferential explorations comments on or criticism of representation medial conventions or modes of production and reception and related issues. Within individual media and genres notably in research on postmodernist metafiction this outspoken tendency towards metaization is known well enough and various reasons have been given for it. Yet never has there been an attempt to account for what one may aptly term the current metareferential turn on a larger transmedial scale. This is what The Metareferential Turn in Contemporary Arts and Media Forms Functions Attempts at Explanation undertakes to do as a sequel to its predecessor the volume Metareference across Media vol 4 in the series Studies in Intermediality which was dedicated to theoretical issues and transhistorical case studies. Coming from diverse disciplinary and methodological backgrounds the contributors to the present volume propose explanations of impressive subtlety breadth and depth for the current situation in addition to exploring individual forms and functions of metareference which may be linked with particular explanations. As expected there is no monocausal reason to be found for the situation under scrutiny yet the proposals made have in their compination a remarkable explanatory power which contributes to a better understanding of an important facet of current media production and reception. The essays assembled in the volume which also contains an introduction with a detailed survey over the possibilities of accounting for the metareferential turn will be relevant to students and scholars from a wide variety of fields cultural history at large intermediality and media studies as well as more particularly literary studies music film and art history.

Indigenous Media and Political Imaginaries in Contemporary Bolivia Gabriela Zamorano Villarreal, 2017-07-01. Fray Bernardino de Sahagún INAH Award in Mexico for Best Research Work in Anthropology. Gabriela Zamorano Villarreal examines the political dimension of indigenous media production and distribution as a means by which indigenous organizations articulate new claims on national politics in Bolivia a country experiencing one of the most notable cases of social mobilization and indigenous based constitutional transformation in contemporary Latin America. Based on fieldwork in Bolivia from 2005 to 2007 Zamorano Villarreal details how grassroots indigenous media production has been instrumental to indigenous political demands for a Constituent Assembly and for implementing the new constitution within Evo Morales's controversial administration. On a day to day basis Zamorano Villarreal witnessed the myriad processes by which Bolivia's indigenous peoples craft images of political struggle and enfranchisement to produce films about their role in Bolivian society. Indigenous Media and Political Imaginaries in Contemporary Bolivia contributes a wholly new and original perspective on indigenous media worlds in Bolivia the collaborative and decolonizing authorship of indigenous media against the neoliberal multicultural state and its key role in reimagining national politics Zamorano Villarreal unravels the negotiations among indigenous media makers about how to fairly depict a gender territorial or justice conflict in their films to promote grassroots understanding of indigenous peoples in Bolivia s multicultural society

The Top Books of the Year Packaging The Contemporary Media The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year.

The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail.

Packaging The Contemporary Media : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery.

Packaging The Contemporary Media : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting.

These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered.

The novel begins with Richard Paffen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts.

The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
