Martyrdom and Persecution in the Early Church W. H. C. Frend, 2014-04-15 Although the story of the triumphant rise of Christianity has often been told it was a triumph achieved through blood and tribulation The literal meaning of the term martyr meant witness but among early Christians it quickly acquired a harsher meaning one who died for the faith and that witness through death was responsible for many conversions including those of Justin Martyr who himself offered just such witness and perhaps even Tertullian Persecution was seen by early Christians as by later historians as one of the crucial influences on the development of the early church and Christian belief Why did the Roman Empire persecute Christians Why did thousands of Christians not merely accept but welcome martyrdom In his classic work Martyrdom and Persecution in the

Early Church the late W H C Frend explores the mindset of Christians who suffered persecution as well as the motivations of those who persecuted them He shows the critical importance of Jewish ideas to early Christians heavily influenced as they were by the story of Daniel and the revolt of the Maccabean He argues that the Christian concept of martyrdom held in such high regard among early Christians can only be understood as springing from Jewish roots Frend explores a number of major persecutions to show both common themes and variations and examines also the relationship between the heavenly kingdom of Christ and the rule of the earthly emperor In doing so he shows how persecution formed an essential part in a providential philosophy of history that has profoundly influenced European political thought The Bodleian Quarterly Record, 1926

Martin, 1999-12-03 This book is packed with a wealth of material ample consideration being given to the many divergent viewpoints represented by scholars of all backgrounds Designed for classroom teaching on the university and seminary level Highly recommended Choice Essays in Honor of John Dewey, on the Occasion of His Seventieth Birthday, October 20, 1929 John Dewey, 1929 Hellenistic Civilisation William Woodthorpe Tarn, 1927 Women in the Church Lesly F. Massey, 2002 The status of women in the church is one of the most hotly debated issues of our time Some Protestant churches have either abandoned or radically modified their interpretations of Biblical passages to allow women to take leadership roles and to accommodate social change for others the Old and New Testament passages forbid women to take leadership roles even though equality between the sexes was taught by Jesus Christ and demonstrated in the early Christian community The current fervor concerning women in the church is examined in this book which also traces the status of women through 2 000 years of church history Chapters are devoted to women in the life and ministry of Jesus women in the earliest Christian community solutions to transitional problems the church's reversion to patriarchal models Alexander Campbell and the American Restoration Movement in the 19th century the antislavery movement and modern feminism and the differing stances taken by churches concerning women in leadership roles Idol Meat in Corinth Wendell Willis, 2004-06-15 This work has several objectives to understand what the problem of idol meat at Corinth involved to establish the attitude of the Corinthians to this issue what course of conduct had they followed or proposed to follow and how did they seek to defend their position to explain the reply of Paul to the Corinthian inquiry and finally in the process of the exegesis and in the conclusions this study will seek to identify fundamental norms and themes which are operative here as a part of Paul's ethical thought Pagan Regeneration Harold R Willoughby, 2008-01-01 A History of Rome to 565 A.D. Arthur Edward Romilly Boak, 1929 Early Christians Speak, Vol. 1 3rd Ed. Everett Ferguson, 1999-11-01 These studies in early church history cover various aspects of the church life of early Christians They focus on the second century What did the second century Christian leaders say about faith baptism infant baptism worship services the Lord's Supper prayer singing church organization mercy and the role of women New Testament texts bearing on the topic are listed at the
