The Trojan Horse and Other Stories Julia Kindt, 2024-01-11 What makes us human What if anything sets us apart from all other creatures Ever since Charles Darwin s theory of evolution the answer to these questions has pointed to our own intrinsic animal nature Yet the idea that in one way or another our humanity is entangled with the non human has a much longer and more venerable history

In the West it goes all the way back to classical antiquity This grippingly written and provocative book boldly reveals how the ancient world mobilised concepts of the animal and animality to conceive of the human in a variety of illuminating ways Through ten stories about marvelous mythical beings from the Trojan Horse to the Cyclops and from Androcles lion to the Minotaur Julia Kindt unlocks fresh ways of thinking about humanity that extend from antiquity to the present and that ultimately challenge our understanding of who we really are Catalogue of All Books in the Circulating and Reference Departments of the Public School Library, Columbus ... Columbus (Ohio). Crowley and Jenny Blain on topics as diverse as the Druids Goddess Worship Norse Paganism and more this book also includes informatin on tools rituals and the meaning and history of the eight sabbats British Books ,1907 Ambiguous Locks Roberta Milliken,2014-01-10 It has long been said that a woman s hair is her crowning glory Indeed throughout history hair has remained an important cultural symbol of femininity In medieval art iconic images of long flowing locks can express sexuality and the cutting of a woman s hair often signals her feminine misbehavior Artists of all kinds in the Middle Ages used women s long hair to manipulate their audience s estimation of their female figures This interdisciplinary work explores the significance of women s hair in literature and art from the medieval period through 1525 putting into historical context the ways in which hair participates in construction of the female identity Perpetua Barbara K. Gold,2018-09-17 Perpetua was an early Christian martyr who died in Roman Carthage in 203 CE along with several fellow martyrs including one other woman Felicitas She has attracted great interest for two main reasons she was one of the earliest martyrs especially female martyrs about whom we have any knowledge and she left a narrative written in prison just before she went to her death in the amphitheater Her narrative is embedded in a tripartite telling of the arrest and deaths of these martyrs the Passio Sanctarum Perpetuae et Felicitatis The other two parts of her tale were written by Saturus a fellow martyr and probably her teacher and a nameless editor or confessor who introduces her circumstances and group and then tells of her death after she stops writing Her story is steeped in mystery and every aspect of her life and death has generated much controversy Some do not believe that she herself could have written the narrative the circumstances of her imprisonment and the limitations of her ability to write such a rhetorically complex tale are inconceivable Some believe that her editor was none other then Tertullian the famous 2nd 3rd century church father and Perpetua s fellow north African Some including Augustine wonder why the feast day was named only for Perpetua and Felicitas and not for her fellow male martyrs Some believe that these martyr tales were largely fabricated or constructed in order to generate publicity for the early Christians This book will investigate and try to make sense of all aspects of Perpetua s life death and circumstances her family and life in Carthage Christians and Romans in Carthage and in the Roman empire in this period the comparisons of martyrs to athletes the influence of these martyr tales upon the Acts of the Apostles and the Greek novel the reactions of later church fathers like Augustine to her story and her popularity and the gendering of this text The Churchman ,1895 The Encyclopedia Americana Frederick Converse Beach,1903
