Painfully Gross Jokes:

Secretly Inside Hans Warren, 2006 In the Dutch countryside the war seems far away For most people at least But not for Ed a Jew in Nazi occupied Holland trying to find some safe sanctuary Compelled to go into hiding in the rural province of Zeeland he is taken in by a seemingly benevolent family of farmers But as Ed comes to realize the Van t Westeindes are not what they seem Camiel the son of the house is still in mourning for his best friend a German soldier who committed suicide the year before And Camiel s fiery unstable sister Mariete begins to nurse a growing unrequited passion for their young guest just as Ed realizes his own attraction to Camiel As time goes by Ed is drawn into the domestic intrigues around him and the farmhouse that had begun as his refuge slowly becomes his prison Lowering the Bar Marc Galanter, 2006-10-10 What do you call 600 lawyers at the bottom of the sea Marc Galanter calls it an opportunity to investigate the meanings of a rich and time honored genre of American humor lawyer jokes Lowering the Bar analyzes hundreds of jokes from Mark Twain classics to contemporary anecdotes about Dan Quayle Johnnie Cochran and Kenneth Starr Drawing on representations of law and lawyers in the mass media political discourse and public opinion surveys Galanter finds that the increasing reliance on law has coexisted uneasily with anxiety about the legalization of society Informative and always entertaining his book explores the tensions between Americans deep seated belief in the law and their ambivalence about lawyers Losing Your Pounds of Pain Doreen Virtue, 2002-01-01 This book shows how you can break the damaging connection between emotional pain and overeating to uncover your true natural self by shedding the false skin of unhappiness Schooling New Media Tyler Bickford Ph.D., 2017-05-02 Popular music and digital media are constantly entwined in elementary and middle school children s talk interactions and relationships and offer powerful cultural resources to children in their everyday struggles over institutionalized language literacy and expression in school In Schooling New Media author Tyler Bickford considers how digital music technologies are incorporated into children s expressive culture their friendships and their negotiations with adults about the place of language music and media in school Schooling New Media is a groundbreaking study of children s music and media consumption practices examining how transformations in music technologies influence the way children their peers and adults relate to one another Based on long term ethnographic research with a community of schoolchildren in Vermont Bickford focuses on portable digital music devices i e MP3 players to reveal their key role in mediating intimate face to face relationships and structuring children s interactions both with music and with each other Schooling New Media provides an important ethnographic and theoretical intervention into ethnomusicology childhood studies and music education emphasizing the importance and yet under appreciation of interpersonal interactions and institutions like schools as sites of musical activity Bickford explores how headphones facilitate these school centered interactions as groups of children share their earbuds with friends and listen to music together while participating in the dense overlap of talk touch and gesture of their peer groups He argues that children treat MP3 players more like toys than technology and that these devices expand the repertoires of childhood communicative practices such as passing notes and whispering all means of interacting with friends beyond the reach of adults These connections afforded by digital music listening enable children to directly challenge the language and literacy goals of classroom teachers Bickford's Schooling New Media is unique in its intensive ethnographic attention to everyday sites of musical consumption and performance and offers a sophisticated conceptual approach for understanding the problems and possibilities of children's uses of new media in schools

Drawing on a range of sources including Last Tango in Paris, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Claudia Rankine, Christopher Isherwood, Bhanu Kapil, the Occupy movement, and resistance to anti-Black state violence, Berlant poses inconvenience as an affective relation and considers how we might loosen our attachments in ways that allow us to build new forms of life.
