Painted Lives:

Painted Lives Charlotte Vale Allen, 1999 Mattie Sylvester a widow of one of America's most celebrated painters reveals the sordid truth of the past and of her husband to her secretary A Biographical History of the Five Arts being memoirs of the lives and works of eminent painters, engravers, sculptors and architects... SPOONER, 1867 Masks, with Jim's beast, Tides, Among the lions, The reason, The house George Middleton, 2022-08-21 In Masks with Jim's beast Tides Among the lions The reason The house George Middleton intricately weaves a tapestry of human emotion and existential inquiry This collection of poetic narratives captures the essence of identity the interplay between man and nature and the inevitable confrontation with selfhood Middleton's lyrical style is marked by its vivid imagery and a reliance on symbolism allowing readers to traverse the intricate landscapes of personal and collective experience while simultaneously reflecting the Modernist quest for meaning amidst the chaos of contemporary life George Middleton a significant voice in early 20th century American literature draws from his own experiences and cultural milieu to inform his work Often confronted with themes of alienation and the fragility of the human condition Middleton's literary journey echoes the struggles of an era marked by profound societal change His background in both journalism and poetry enriches his prose melding narrative with observation in a distinctly original voice that speaks to the human experience This collection is highly recommended for readers seeking profound reflection on the nature of existence and identity Middleton's ability to evoke emotion and provoke thought through his skillful manipulation of language makes this work an essential addition to the canon of modern poetry inviting readers to wear their own masks and explore the depths of their humanity Giovan Pietro Bellori: The Lives of the Modern Painters, Sculptors and Architects Giovanni Pietro Bellori, Hellmut Wohl, 2005-11-21 This is the first complete translation of the biographies of fifteen artists including Annibale Carracci Caravaggio Rubens Van Dyck and Poussin written by the seventeenth century antiquarian Giovan Pietro Bellori Originally conceived as a continuation of Vasari's famous Lives it is a fundamental source for seventeenth century Italian art and artistic theory providing detailed descriptions of extant and lost works of art while casting light on the cultural politics of contemporary Rome and the relations between Rome and France The importance of Bellori's Lives lies in the scrupulous documentation of artists many of whom he knew personally the author's detailed descriptions of their works and his exposition of the classicist theory of art in the introductory lecture the Idea This volume contains the twelve Lives published in the original edition of 1672 and three Lives Guido Reni Andrea Sacchi and Carlo Maratti that survive in manuscript form and that were published for the first time in 1942

Transnational, National, and Personal Voices Elisabetta Marino, 2004 The growing heterogeneity of Asian American and Asian diasporic voices has also given rise to variegated theoretical approaches to these literatures This book attempts to encompass both the increasing awareness of diasporic and transnational issues and more traditional analyses of Asian American culture and literature Thus the articles in this collection range from investigations into the politics of literary and cinematic representation to digging into the past through literary archeology or analyzing how consequential bodies can be in recent literature by Asian American and Asian diasporic women writers The book closes with an interview with critic and writer Shirley Lim where she insightfully deals with these transnational national and personal issues Elisabetta Marino is Assistant Professor of English literature at the University of Rome Tor Vergata Her main fields of interest are Asian American and Asian British literature children s literature Italian American literature Bego a Simal is Assistant Professor of English literature at the Universidade da Coru a Spain She has published critical work on both Asian American literature and comparative cross ethnic studies
