Lygia Pape Mark Pascale, 2023-01-01 An engaging investigation of contemporary Brazilian artist Lygia Pape's early body of woodblock prints which profoundly influenced the trajectory of her oeuvre One of Brazil's best known contemporary artists Lygia Pape 1927 2004 was a founding member of the Neo Concrete movement in the late 1950s along with artists such as Lygia Clark and Hélio Oiticica Pape explored new visual languages in painting performance printmaking and sculpture and her work much of it based in geometry invited viewers to participate in the existential sensorial and psychological experience of her art Presenting the first in depth treatment of the experimental woodblock prints Pape made between 1952 and 1960 this volume examines the foundational role these works played in the rest of Pape's career foreshadowing her philosophy of magnetized space Composed of overlapping geometric and linear elements that at times suggest atomic particles or slides of microscopic specimens Pape's prints display an extraordinary depth accentuated by her use of incredibly thin translucent Japanese papers The artist applied the title Tecelares to these works decades after their creation Loosely translated as weavings the term captures Pape's uniquely handmade approach to printmaking Lavishly illustrated this study is filled with revealing insights into how the artist's printmaking aesthetic materials and process embody her core ideas about art Distributed for the Art Institute of Chicago Exhibition Schedule Art Institute of Chicago February 11 June 5 2023 Harry Bertoia, Printmaker June Kompass Nelson, 2017-12-01 A representation of the principal styles and themes that emerges from Harry Bertoia's printmaking and structure work The seventy nine monotypes in this catalogue represent the principal styles and themes that emerged not only in Harry Bertoia's printmaking but in his sculpture as well June Kompass Nelson author of Harry Bertoia Sculptor analyzes the graphic works and places them in the context of Bertoia's total oeuvre with particular regard to their relationship with his sculpture A teacher of metalwork and printmaking at the Cranbrook Academy of Arts in Bloomfield Hills Michigan Bertoia began working in monotype in 1940 nearly a decade before his first attempts at sculpture and continually returned to the medium until his death in 1978 Nelson's introduction biographical material and well documented chronology contribute to the portrait of a Michigan artist of international repute who maintained his regionalist sensibility Rembrandt's

Religious Prints Charles M. Rosenberg, 2017-09-11 A stunning catalogue of the seventy religious prints from the 2017

exhibition featuring detailed background information on each piece Rembrandt's stunning religious prints stand as evidence of the Dutch master's extraordinary skill as a technician and as a testament to his genius as a teller of tales Here several virtually unknown etchings collected by the Feddersen family and now preserved for the ages at the University of Notre Dame are made widely available in a lavishly illustrated volume Building on the contributions of earlier Rembrandt scholars noted art historian Charles M Rosenberg illuminates each of the seventy religious prints through detailed background information on the artist's career as well as the historical religious and artistic impulses informing their creation Readers will enjoy an impression of the earliest work The Circumcision 1625-26 the famous Hundred Guilder Print the enigmatic eighth state of Christ Presented to the People one of a handful of examples of the very rare final posthumous state of The Three Crosses and an impression and counterproof of The Triumph of Mordecai From the joyous epiphany of the coming of the Messiah to the anguish of the betrayal of a father Jacob by his children from choirs of angels waiting to receive the Virgin into heaven to the dog who defecates in the road by an ancient inn The Good Samaritan Rembrandt's etchings offer a window into the nature of faith aspiration and human experience ranging from the ecstatically divine to the worldly and mundane Ultimately these prints modest intimate fragile objects are great works of art which like all masterpieces reward us with fresh insights and discoveries at each new encounter Despite many reliable catalogues of Rembrandt etchings very few have focused on the religious content of these prints The outstanding range of the Feddersen Collection offers an excellent occasion for closer examination of Rembrandt's development as a printmaker but also as a spiritual devout Christian especially evident from his thoughtful return to the same subjects across his career Charles Rosenberg and his team at the Snite Museum deserve our thanks for fresh analysis of Rembrandt's religious prints combined with the latest scholarship on the artist and his etchings output Rembrandt scholars but also all lovers of the artist will want to consult this important catalogue Larry Silver author with Shelley Perlove of Rembrandt's Faith Church and Temple in the Dutch Golden Age Rembrandt's etchings of religious themes capture the emotional heart of their subjects through a uniquely inventive approach to both technique and content The seventy prints gathered by Jack and Alfrieda Feddersen span the full range of Rembrandt's production and offer an outstanding resource for appreciation and research This catalogue tells the fascinating story of how the collection was formed and brings a fresh analysis to each print Charles Rosenberg's extensive catalogue entries will be useful reading for anyone interested in the history of European art and one of its most talented practitioners Rembrandt van Rijn Stephanie Dickey Queen's University

Noir Lee Hendrix, 2016-02-09 Due to the technological advances of the nineteenth century an abundance of black drawing media exploded onto the market Charcoal conte crayon and fabricated black chalks and crayons fixatives various papers and many lifting devices gave rise to an unprecedented amount of experimentation Indeed innovation became the rule as artists developed their own unique and often experimental processes

The exploration of black media in drawing is inextricably bound up with the exploration of black in prints and this volume presents an integrated study that rises above specialization in one over the other. Noir brings together such diverse artists as Francisco de Goya, Maxime Lalanne, Gustave Courbet, Odilon Redon, and Georges Seurat and explores their inventive works on paper. Sidelining labels like conservative or avant garde, the essays in this book employ all the tools that art history and modern conservation have given us, inviting the reader to look more broadly at the artists' methods and materials. This volume accompanies an eponymous exhibition on view at the J. Paul Getty Museum from February 9 to May 15, 2016. Philippe de Montebello and the Metropolitan Museum of Art James R. Houghton, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2009

The Painterly Print, 1980 Misogyny, Misandry, and Misanthropy R. Howard Bloch, Frances Ferguson, 2023-04-28

Publications of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1964-2005 Metropolitan Museum of Art, 2012-10-09 The present volume, Publications of The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1964-2005, is a successor to a volume published by the Museum in 1965 entitled Publications of The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1870-1964. These two bibliographic volumes endeavor to list all the known books, pamphlets, and serial publications bearing the Museum's imprint and issued by the institution during the first 135 years of its existence through June 2005. The first volume was compiled by Albert Ten Eyck Gardner at the time an Associate Curator of American Paintings and Sculpture, and the present volume has been compiled from the Annual Reports issued by the Museum during the relevant years. Together, the two volumes testify to the tremendous contributions made to knowledge by the curators and conservators of the Metropolitan and by the many other experts who have contributed to the Museum's exhibition catalogues. Various issues of the Bulletin emphasize the great sweep of the Museum's acquisitions during these years, and the exhibition catalogues, a number of them Alfred H. Barr Jr. Award or the George Wittenborn Award, testify to the continuity of the institution's dedicated program to enrich people's lives through knowledge of art. This title was originally published in 2006. Lines of Connection Edina Adam, Jamie Gabbarelli, 2025-03-04 The first volume to chart the rich and reciprocal relationship between drawing and printmaking from the fifteenth to nineteenth centuries. While often viewed and studied separately, drawings and prints have always been closely intertwined. They facilitated and generated the production of one another, and in some instances, clear distinctions between the two dissolved. Many artists created drawings specifically intended for translation into print, and an even greater number used prints as a training tool, copying from them to hone drawing skills. This reciprocal relationship goes even deeper, however, as innovative artists made fascinating hybrid works that blurred the boundaries between the two media, pushing against modern definitions and hierarchies. Lines of Connection charts these historical and geographical continuities for the first time by bringing together works on paper of superb quality, foregrounding issues of artistic process and collaboration, technical innovation, and creative ingenuity. Featuring over 170 prints and drawings by such artists as Albrecht Dürer, Parmigianino, Hendrick Goltzius, Maria Sibylla Merian, Rembrandt van Rijn, and William Blake, this catalogue is a rich narrative introduction to the compelling yet understudied relationship between drawing and printmaking Figures of Ill Repute Charles Bernheimer, 1989 Examines the representations of prostitution in the art and literature of nineteenth century France with regard to how this reflected the attitudes of society Henri Matisse Catherine Bock-Weiss, 1996 First Published in 1996 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company How Prints Look William Mills Ivins, Marjorie B. Cohn, 1987 The most famous introduction to prints Through a series of enlarged details of prints in various media Ivins makes clear the stylistic qualities peculiar to each technique Choice
