Painting Poetry Turners Verse:

Painting and Poetry Andrew Wilton, 1991-01 In the Mind's Eye Alexandra K. Wettlaufer, 2021-11-08 This comparative interdisciplinary study investigates the relationship between literature and the visual arts in France and Britain from 1750 1900 Through a close examination of the prose writings of Diderot Baudelaire and Ruskin read against the background of contemporary philosophy aesthetics and theories of language In the Mind s Eye proposes a new interpretation of the influence and rivalries underlying the development of art criticism as a genre during this period The visual impulse the desire to transcend the limitations of language and make the reader see is located within the historical traditions of ekphrasis enargeia and the paragone while in each chapter the individual author s theories of the mind memory and imagination provide a critical framework for his stylistic experiments In the Mind s Eye presents an in depth analysis of the cultural theoretical and aesthetic implications of artistic border crossings and by contextualizing the movement toward visual verbal hybridity in the fiction and criticism of Diderot Baudelaire and Ruskin brings new perspectives to nineteenth century studies in art and literature Cultivating Picturacy James A. W. Heffernan, 2006 While words typically frame and regulate our experience of art the study explains how pictures can contest the authority of the words we use to interpret art Painting and Poetry Andrew Wilton, Joseph Mallord William Turner, Tate Gallery, 1990 Studies in the Spectator Role Michael Benton, 2017-09-25 Michael Benton s book develops the concept of spectatorship as an answer to these questions It explores the similarities and differences in our experiences of literature and the visual arts and discusses their implications for pedagogy and their applications in cross curricular work in the classroom Teachers will find that while many of the visual and verbal texts may be familiar the approaches to them offer fresh insights and a rich agenda for the classroom Shakespeare Fielding Hogarth Blake Wordsworth Constable Turner the Pre Raphaelites Wilfred Owen Paul Nash Stanley Spencer Ted Hughes and Seamus Heaney the range of authors and artists discussed is both extensive and relevant to the National Curriculum and to post 16 and undergraduate courses The Earth on Show Ralph O'Connor, 2008-09-15 At the turn of the nineteenth century geology and its claims that the earth had a long and colorful prehuman history was widely dismissed as dangerous nonsense But just fifty years later it was the most celebrated of Victorian sciences Ralph O Connor tracks the astonishing growth of geology s prestige in Britain exploring how a new geohistory far more alluring than the standard six days of Creation was assembled and sold to the wider Bible reading public Shrewd science writers O Connor shows marketed spectacular visions of past worlds piquing the public imagination with glimpses of man eating mammoths talking dinosaurs and sea dragons spawned by Satan himself These authors including men of science women clergymen biblical literalists hack writers blackmailers and prophets borrowed freely from the Bible modern poetry and the urban entertainment industry creating new forms of literature in order to transport their readers into a vanished and alien past In exploring the use of poetry and spectacle in the promotion of popular science O Connor proves that geology s success owed much to the literary techniques of its authors An innovative blend of the history of science literary criticism book history and visual culture The Earth on Show rethinks the relationship between science and literature in the nineteenth century The Green Fuse Peter Dale, 2025-06-12 Dig deep into our powerful connection with gardens across media and realms of human experience from music to philosophy painting to religion Why do interiors of houses mimic nature the wallpapers and curtains flowers in vases a vaporizer in the bathroom Why do we so often connect our childhoods with gardens Why has the myth of a lost Eden been so ubiquitous and so formative The Green Fuse Essays in Making Sense of Gardens explores our deep rooted impulses to create gardens examining them through the lenses of history religion nostalgia and myth It connects gardens with the other arts painting music literature and theater and contemplates their intellectual and philosophical significance Blending lyrical reflections with research The Green Fuse offers an unusually wide ranging and thoughtful perspective on gardens and why we make them It will be ideal for all readers interested in gardening and its cultural implications Landscape between Ideology and the Aesthetic Andrew Hemingway, 2016-11-28 At a time of growing interest in relations between Marxism and Romanticism Andrew Hemingway's essays on British art and art theory reopen the question of Romantic painting's ideological functions and in some cases its critical purchase Half the volume exposes the voices of competing class interests in aesthetics and art theory in the tumultuous years of British history between the American Revolution and the 1832 Parliamentary Reform Act Half offers new perspectives on works by some of the most important landscape painters of the time John Constable J M W Turner John Crome and John Sell Cotman Four essays are hitherto unpublished and the remainder have been updated and in several cases substantially rewritten for this volume A Companion to Vergil's Aeneid and its Tradition Joseph Farrell, Michael C. J. Putnam, 2014-01-28 A Companion to Vergil's Aeneid and its Tradition presents a collection of original interpretive essays that represent an innovative addition to the body of Vergil scholarship Provides fresh approaches to traditional Vergil scholarship and new insights into unfamiliar aspects of Vergil's textual history Features contributions by an international team of the most distinguished scholars Represents a distinctively original approach to Vergil scholarship John Ruskin Andrew Ballantyne, 2015-06-15 John Ruskin 1819 1900 was the most prominent art and architecture critic of his time Yet his reputation has been overshadowed by his personal life especially his failed marriage to Effie Gray which has cast him in the history books as little more than a Victorian prude In this book Andrew Ballantyne rescues Ruskin from the dustbin of history's trifles to reveal a deeply attuned thinker one whose copious writings had tremendous influence on all classes of society from roadmenders to royalty Ballantyne examines a crucial aspect of Ruskin's thinking the notion that art and architecture have moral value Telling the story of Ruskin's childhood and enduring devotion to his parents who fostered his career as a writer on art and architecture he explores the circumstances that led to Ruskin's greatest works such as Modern Painters The Seven Lamps of Architecture The Stones of Venice and Unto This Last He follows Ruskin through his altruistic ventures with the urban poor to whom he taught drawing motivated by a profound conviction that art held the key to living a worthwhile life Ultimately Ballantyne weaves Ruskin's story into a larger one about Victorian society a time when the first great industrial cities took shape and when art could finally reach beyond the wealthy elite and touch the lives of everyday people The Symbolic Design of Windsor-Forest Pat Rogers,2004 This is the first detailed exploration of one of the earliest major poems by Alexander Pope Windsor Forest 1713 The book reveals how Pope used the artistic conventions of the Stuart court such as masque architecture allegorical painting and heraldry to create the last great Renaissance poem in English A coherent symbolic design is constructed around the themes of the river and the forest Pope organizes the structure and style of the poem to create a prophetic version of nationhood drawing on such sources as the plays of Ben Jonson the Whitehall paintings of Rubens the architecture of Inigo Jones the panegyric work of Dryden and the topographical poetry of Drayton The political dimensions of the poem are considered in relation to the foundation of the South Sea Company in 1711 with its foreshadowing of imperial issues to come The book will spark further interest in a poem that has been gaining increasing attention recently from writers such as E P Thompson and Laura Brown It shows the centrality of Windsor Forest in Pope's own career and the centrality of Pope in the debates of his time Pat Rogers is DeBartolo Professor in the Liberal Arts at the University of English Accents Christiana Payne,2018-01-18 In the century following the foundation of the Royal Academy in 1768 British art had an international reputation prints spread knowledge of the work of British artists around the globe and it was widely seen as the product of a modern commercial society and much admired by artists as diverse as Goya in Spain Delacroix in France and Bierstadt in America In recent years scholars working on this period have become increasingly aware of the international context of their subject but there has been no systematic analysis of the reception of British art abroad This collection of essays looks at the uses made of the paintings of Reynolds Hogarth Lawrence and their contemporaries on the continent of Europe and in the colonies and ex colonies of Australia and America The authors go beyond the simple issue of influence to consider how ideas and artistic conventions originating in the British Isles were adapted appropriated or resisted in these new environments In the process some surprising views of British art emerge demonstrating how a multi faceted view from the outside can correct and enrich the narrative produced within a national school and revealing some of the important connections that are obscured when art is studied as it so often is within narrow national boundaries The Romantic Imagination Frederick Burwick,Jürgen Klein,1996 J.M.W. Turner Peter Ackroyd,2007-12-18 In this second volume in the Ackroyd's Brief Lives series bestselling author Peter Ackroyd brings us a man of humble beginnings crude manners and prodigious talents the nineteenth century painter J M W Turner Joseph Mallord William Turner was born in London in 1775 His father was a barber and his mother came from a family of London butchers His speech was recognizably that of a Cockney and his language was the language of the streets As his finest paintings show his language was also the language of light Turner's landscapes extraordinary studies in light colour and texture caused an uproar during his lifetime and earned him a place as one of the greatest artists in history Displaying his artistic abilities as a young child Turner entered the Royal Academy of Arts when he was just fourteen years old A year later his paintings appeared in an important public exhibition and he rapidly achieved prominence becoming a Royal Academician in 1802 and Professor of Perspective at the Academy from 1807 1837 His private life however was less orderly Never married he spent much time living in taverns where he was well known for his truculence and his stinginess with money Peter Ackroyd deftly follows Turner s first loves of architecture engraving and watercolours and the country houses cathedrals and landscapes of England While his passion for Italy led him to oil painting Turner s love for London remained central to his heart and soul and it was within sight of his beloved Thames that he died in 1851 His dying words were The sun is God Also available in ACKROYD S BRIEF LIVES Chaucer Tombs of the Ancient Poets

Nora Goldschmidt, Barbara Graziosi, 2018-09-13 Tombs of the Ancient Poets explores the ways in which the tombs of the ancient poets real or imagined act as crucial sites for the reception of Greek and Latin poetry Drawing together a range of examples it makes a distinctive contribution to the study of literary reception by focusing on the materiality of the body and the tomb and the ways in which they mediate the relationship between classical poetry and its readers From the tomb of the boy poet Quintus Sulpicius Maximus which preserves his prize winning poetry carved on the tombstone itself to the modern votive offerings left at the so called Tomb of Virgil from the doomed tomb hunting of long lost poets graves to the graveyard of the imagination constructed in Hellenistic poetry collections the essays collected here explore the position of ancient poets tombs in the cultural imagination and demonstrate the rich variety of ways in which they exemplify an essential mode of the reception of ancient poetry poised as they are between literary reception and material culture Indian Renaissance

Hermionede Almeida, 2017-07-05 Indian Renaissance British Romantic Art and the Prospect of India is the first comprehensive examination of British artists whose first hand impressions and prospects of the Indian subcontinent became a stimulus for the Romantic Movement in England it is also a survey of the transformation of the images brought home by these artists into the cultural imperatives of imperial Victorian Britain The book proposes a second Indian Renaissance for British and European art and culture and an undeniable connection between English Romanticism and British Imperialism Artists treated in depth include James Forbes James Wales Tilly Kettle William Hodges Johann Zoffany Francesco Renaldi Thomas and William Daniell Robert Home Thomas Hickey Arthur William Devis R H Colebrooke Alexander Allan Henry Salt James Baillie Fraser Charles Gold James Moffat Charles D Oyley William Blake J M W Turner and George Chinnery The Cambridge Introduction to Byron Richard Lansdown, 2012-03-29 A clear jargon free and comprehensible survey of a diverse and voluminous canonical British author Literacy, Narrative and Culture Jens Brockmeier, David R Olson, Min

Wang, 2013-12-16 An important contribution to the multi disciplinary study of literacy narrative and culture this work argues that literacy is perhaps best described as an ensemble of socially and historically embedded activities of cultural practices It suggests viewing written language producing and distributing deciphering and interpreting signs are closely related to other cultural practices such as narrative and painting The papers of the first and second parts illustrate this view in contexts that range from the pre historical beginnings of tracking signs in hunter gatherer cultures and the emergence of modern literate traditions in Europe in the 17th to 19th century to the future of electronically mediated writing in times of the post Gutenberg galaxy The chapters of the third present results of recent research in developmental and educational psychology Contributions by leading experts in the field make the point that there is no theory and history of writing that does not presuppose a theory of culture and social development At the same time it demonstrates that every theory and history of culture must unavoidably entail a theory and history of writing and written culture This book brings together perspectives on literacy from psychology linguistics history and sociology of literature philosophy anthropology and history of art It addresses these issues in plain language not coded in specialized jargon and addresses a multi disciplinary forum of scholars and students of literacy narrative and culture

J.M.W. Turner and the Subject of History Leo Costello, 2017-07-05 J M W Turner and the Subject of History is an in depth consideration of the artist s complex response to the challenge of creating history paintings in the early nineteenth century Structured around the linked themes of making and unmaking of creation and destruction this book examines how Turner s history paintings reveal changing notions of individual and collective identity at a time when the British Empire was simultaneously developing and fragmenting Turner similarly emerges as a conflicted subject one whose artistic modernism emerged out of a desire to both continue and exceed his eighteenth century aesthetic background by responding to the altered political and historical circumstances of the nineteenth century

Visions of Venice in Shakespeare Laura Tosi, Shaul Bassi, 2016-03-03 Despite the growing critical relevance of Shakespeare s two Venetian plays and a burgeoning bibliography on both The Merchant of Venice and Othello few books have dealt extensively with the relationship between Shakespeare and Venice Setting out to offer new perspectives to a traditional topic this timely collection fills a gap in the literature addressing the new historical political and economic questions that have been raised in the last few years The essays in this volume consider Venice a real as well as symbolic landscape that needs to be explored in its multiple resonances both in Shakespeare s historical context and in the later tradition of reconfiguring one of the most represented cities in Western culture Shylock and Othello are there to remind us of the dark sides of the myth of Venice and of the inescapable fact that the issues raised in the Venetian plays are tremendously topical we are still haunted by these theatrical casualties of early modern multiculturalism
