Thinking About Art Penny Huntsman, 2015-11-04 Thinking about Art explores some of the greatest works of art and architecture in the world through the prism of themes instead of chronology to offer intriguing juxtapositions of art and history. The book ranges across time and topics from the Parthenon to the present day and from patronage to ethnicity to reveal art history in new and varied lights. With over 200 colour illustrations and a wealth of formal and contextual analysis, Thinking about Art is a companion guide for art lovers, students and the general reader and is also the first A level Art History textbook written by a skilled and experienced teacher of art history, Penny Huntsman. The book is accompanied by a companion website at www.wiley.com/go/thinkingaboutart.

Color Chart Ann Temkin, 2008 Color Chart celebrates a paradox: the lush beauty that results when contemporary artists assign colour decisions to chance, readymade, source or arbitrary system. Midway through the 20th century, long-held convictions regarding the spiritual truth or scientific validity of particular colours gave way to an excitement about colour as a mass-produced and standardized commercial product. The Romantic quest for personal expression instead became Andy Warhol's 'I want to be a machine'; the artistry of mixing pigments was eclipsed by Frank Stella's 'Straight out of the can, it can't get better than that.' This book and the exhibition it accompanies is the first devoted to this pivotal transformation and features work by some forty artists ranging from Ellsworth Kelly and Gerhard Richter to Sherrie Levine and Damien Hirst.

How Alternative is Alternative? Matthew M. Mars, Hope Jensen Schau, 2022-08-23 Asking How alternative are alternative marketscapes Volume 29 of Advances in the Study of Entrepreneurship, Innovation and Economic Growth provides entrepreneurs and companies a concise understanding of alternative marketscapes through theoretical arguments and case studies paving the way for development and success.
