Painting Girls

Richard A. Posner

Painting Girls:

British and Irish Paintings in Public Collections Christopher Wright, Catherine May Gordon, 2006-01-01 This book sets a new standard as a work of reference It covers British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth and it encompasses nearly 9 000 painters and 90 000 paintings in more than 1 700 separate collections The book includes as well pictures that are now lost some as a consequence of the Second World War and others because of de accessioning mostly from 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion By listing many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works including around 13 000 which do not yet have any form of attribution this book becomes a unique and indispensable work of reference one that will transform the study of British and Irish painting

Painting Circles John Szostak, 2017-01-16 Painting Circles addresses the changing professional milieu of artists in early 20th century Japan particularly the development of new social roles and networks and how these factors informed the development of artistic identity The focus of the study is the Nihonga painter Tsuchida Bakusen 1887 1936 who in 1918 founded an exhibition collective the Kokuga Society in response to increasing dissatisfaction with the nation s government sponsored exhibition salon The study examines efforts by Bakusen and company to establish an independent position vis vis the arts establishment by demonstrating their reflexive knowledge of Western modernist art movements on the one hand and on the other by showing their deep commitment to preserving traditional Japanese painting themes media and techniques into the 20th century

Sex and Reason Richard A. Posner, 1992 Posner s rational choice theory is the first comprehensive approach to sexuality and its social controls Drawing on the fields of biology law history religion and economics this sweeping study examines societies from ancient Greece to today s Sweden and issues from incest taboos and date rape to gay marriage and Baby M
