Modern Chinese Artists Michael Sullivan, 2006-04-03 An important reference source for scholars and students of modern Chinese art collectors museums and libraries dealers and auction houses It includes biographical entries for approximately 800 Chinese artists who grew up or were trained in China and who are likely to be represented in collections exhibitions and auctions within and outside China

The Forger's Creed J. P. Park, 2025 The first in depth look at the history and legacies of forgeries in Chinese art In 1634 scholar official Zhang Taijie b ca 1588 published a book titled A Record of Treasured Paintings C Baohui lu presenting an extensive catalogue of a purportedly vast painting collection he claimed to have built However the entire book is Zhang's meticulously crafted forgery he even forged paintings to match the documentation and profited from trading them Furthermore the book intriguingly mirrors unfounded art historical claims of its time Prominent figures like Dong Qichang 1555-1636 made entirely fabricated arguments to assert legitimate lineages in Chinese art designed to create a fictionalized history shaped by preferred beliefs rather than reality While presenting the first comprehensive exploration of various forgery practices in early modern China fabricated texts forged paintings and fictitious art history The Forger's Creed examines the cultural social and genealogical desires anxieties and tensions prevalent in early modern China Through thorough scrutiny of the historical irregularities introduced by these forgeries J P Park highlights a peculiar and paradoxical phenomenon wherein forgeries transform into legitimate materials across Chinese history

Harmony Garden J. D. Schmidt, 2013-12-16 This is the first complete study of China's most popular eighteenth century poet in any Western language The work consists of a detailed biography a study of Yuan's revolutionary reinterpretation of Chinese literary theory and an analysis of his many contributions to the more original genres of Qing dynasty 1644-1911 poetry such as narrative historical didactic eccentric and nature verse The study is concluded by a generous and representative sampling of Yuan's poetry in translation the first to do justice to the wide variety and richness of his oeuvre Although many shorter poems are selected this is the first translation to include his outstanding longer poetry Harmony Garden will completely revise current attitudes in the west concerning classical Chinese literature during the eighteenth century a period that was long viewed as one of decline but now appears to equal the golden ages of antiquity

Painters and Politics in the People's Republic of China, 1949-1979 Julia Frances Andrews, Andrews, Julia Frances Andrews, Center for Chinese Studies (Ann Arbor, Mich.), 1994-01-01 That Julia Andrews has reached sources that are so sensitive and difficult with such success is remarkable The book is unquestionably a brilliant job well written understandable and of enormous scholarly value

Joan Lebold Cohen author of The New Chinese Painting

The Painter from Shanghai: A Novel Jennifer Cody Epstein, 2008-03-17 Reminiscent of Memoirs of a Geisha a reimagining of the life of Pan Yuliang and her transformation from prostitute to post Impressionist Down the muddy waters of the Yangtze River and into the seedy backrooms of The Hall of Eternal Splendor through the raucous glamour of prewar Shanghai and the bohemian splendor of 1920s Paris and back to a China ripped apart by civil war and teetering on the brink of revolution this novel tells the story of Pan Yuliang one of the most talented and provocative Chinese artists of the twentieth century Jennifer Cody Epstein's epic brings to life the woman behind the lush Cezannesque nude self portraits capturing with lavish detail her life in the brothel and then as a concubine to a Republican official who would ultimately help her find her way as an artist Moving with the tide of historical events The Painter from Shanghai celebrates a singularly daring painting style one that led to fame notoriety and ultimately a devastating choice between Pan's art and the one great love of her life Tao Yuanming and Manuscript Culture Xiaofei Tian, 2011-07-01 Winner of a 2006 Choice Magazine Outstanding Academic Title Award As medieval Chinese manuscripts were copied and recopied through the centuries both mistakes and deliberate editorial changes were introduced thereby affecting readers' impressions of the author's intent In Tao Yuanming and Manuscript Culture Xiaofei Tian shows how readers not only experience authors but produce them by shaping texts to their interpretation Tian examines the mechanics and history of textual transmission in China by focusing on the evolution over the centuries of the reclusive poet Tao Yuanming into a figure of epic stature Considered emblematic of the national character Tao Yuanming also known as Tao Qian 365-427 c.e. is admired for having turned his back on active government service and city life to live a simple rural life of voluntary poverty The artlessness of his poetic style is held as the highest literary and moral ideal and literary critics have taken great pains to demonstrate perfect consistency between Tao Yuanming's life and poetry Earlier work on Tao Yuanming has tended to accept this image interpreting the poems to confirm the image Tao Yuanming and Manuscript Culture is a study of how this cultural icon was produced and of the elusive traces of another historical Tao Yuanming behind the icon By comparing four early biographies of the poet Tian shows how these are in large measure constructed out of Tao Yuanming's self image as projected in his poetry and prose Drawing on work in European medieval literature she demonstrates the fluidity of the Chinese medieval textual world and how its materials were historically reconfigured for later purposes Tian finds in Tao's poetic corpus not one essentialized Tao Yuanming but multiple texts continuously produced long after the author's physical demise Her provocative look at the influence of manuscript culture on literary perceptions transcends its immediate subject and has special resonance today when the transition from print to electronic media is shaking the literary world in a way not unlike the transition from handwritten to print media in medieval China The Dictionary of Art: A to Anckermann Jane Turner, 1996 Online ed provides access to the entire 45,000 plus articles of Grove's Dictionary of art 1996 34 vols with constant additions of new material and updates to the text plus extensive image links 中国书画 Yushu Wang, 2005 Xu Bing and Contemporary Chinese Art Hsingyuan Tsao, Roger T. Ames, 2011-09-01 How Chinese is contemporary Chinese art Treasured by collectors critics and art world cognoscenti this art developed within an avant garde that looked West to find a language to strike out against government control Traditionally Chinese artistic expression has been related to the structure and function of the Chinese language and the assumptions of Chinese natural cosmology Is contemporary Chinese art rooted in these traditions or is it an example of cultural self colonization Contributors to this volume address this question going beyond the more obvious political and social commentaries on contemporary Chinese art to find resonances between contemporary artistic ideas and the indigenous sources of Chinese cultural self understanding Focusing in particular on the acclaimed artist Xu Bing this book looks at how he and his peers have navigated between two different cultural sites to establish a third place a place from which to appropriate Western ideas and use them to address centuries old Chinese cultural issues within a Chinese cultural discourse Xuanhe Catalogue of Paintings, 2019-05-31

Xuanhe Catalogue of Paintings is the first complete translation of the well known document produced at the court of Emperor Huizong r 1100 1125 Dated to 1120 the Catalogue is divided into ten categories of subject matter Under Daoist and Buddhist Subjects Figural Subjects Architecture Barbarian Tribes Dragons and Fish Landscape Domestic and Wild Animals Flowers and Birds Ink Bamboo and Vegetables and Fruit are biographies of 231 painters ranging from famous early masters such as Wu Daozi ca 685 758 and Li Cheng 919 967 to otherwise unknown artists of the Song dynasty court including fourteen eunuch officials and sixteen male and female members of the royal family Titles of their pictures held in the palace collection are listed for each artist These 6 396 paintings testify to the visual culture experienced by viewers of the twelfth century The author s Introduction analyzes the Catalogue as a source of evidence about the formation of the Song dynasty palace collection and argues that the majority of its pictures were already in the collection before Huizong s reign as a result of conquest confiscation tribute gift culture collecting by earlier emperors and the production of academy artists and regular officials at the Song court Under Huizong s reign around a thousand other pictures were added to the Catalogue through acquisition and reattribution Open access edition funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities The Painting Master's Shame Amy McNair, 2024-09-09

Overturning the long held assumption that the Xuanhe Catalogue of Paintings was the work of the Northern Song emperor Huizong r 1100 1126 Amy McNair argues that it was compiled instead under the direction of Liang Shicheng Liang a high ranking eunuch official who sought to raise his social status from that of despised menial to educated elite had privileged access to the emperor and palace McNair s study based on her translation and extensive analysis of the text of the Xuanhe Catalogue of Paintings offers a definitive argument for the authorship of this major landmark in Chinese painting criticism and clarifies why and how it was compiled The Painting Master's Shame describes the remarkable circumstances of the period around 1120 when the catalogue was written The political struggles over the New Policies the promotion of the scholar amateur ideal in painting criticism and practice and the rise of eunuch court officials as a powerful class converged to allow those officials the unprecedented opportunity to enhance their prestige through scholarly activities and politics McNair analyzes the catalogue s central polemical narrative the humiliation of the high ranking minister mistakenly called by the lowly title Painting Master as the key to understanding Liang Shicheng s methods and motives Painting the City Red Yomi Braester, 2010-04-07

An examination of the role of cinema and theater in representing urban transformations in China from 1949 to the present      Chinese Art Theory II Jixiang Peng, 2025-08-15 As the second volume of a two volume set on Chinese art theory this book introduces the typology of Chinese art and expands on the aesthetic and artistic theories of Chinese traditional art The first part of this volume introduces representative genres of Chinese traditional art including literary works painting and calligraphy It covers scholar artist art folk art palace art and religious art at various levels and dimensions The book demonstrates how Chinese traditional art uniquely embodies the nation s aesthetic sensibility while reflecting its distinctive national traits in both creation and appreciation The second part distills these theories to identify the fundamental principles and aesthetic characteristics that best represent the artistic spirit of Chinese tradition Throughout this book illustrates how traditional Chinese art reflects the cultural mindset and aesthetic consciousness of its people This book is a valuable read for students and scholars of art studies especially Chinese art theory and history It will also appeal to anyone interested in the philosophical and aesthetic foundations of Chinese traditional art      Poetry and Painting in Song China Alfreda Murck, 2020-10-26 Throughout the history of imperial China the educated elite used various means to criticize government policies and actions During the Song dynasty 960 1278 some members of this elite found an elegant and subtle means of dissent landscape painting By examining literary archetypes the titles of paintings contemporary inscriptions and the historical context Alfreda Murck shows that certain paintings expressed strong political opinions some transparent others deliberately concealed She argues that the coding of messages in seemingly innocuous paintings was an important factor in the growing respect for painting among the educated elite and that the capacity of painting s systems of reference to allow scholars to express dissent with impunity contributed to the art s vitality and longevity      International Directory of Art Libraries Thomas E. Hill, 2012-10-25 The International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions IFLA is the leading international body representing the interests of library and information services and their users It is the global voice of the information profession The series IFLA Publications deals with many of the means through which libraries information centres and information professionals worldwide can formulate their goals exert their influence as a group protect their interests and find solutions to global problems      World Antiquarianism Alain Schnapp, 2014-02-01 The term antiquarianism refers to engagement with the material heritage of the past an engagement that preceded the modern academic discipline of archaeology Antiquarian activities result in the elaboration of particular social behaviors and the production of tools for exploring the collective memory This book is the first to compare antiquarianism in a global context examining its roots in the ancient Near East its flourishing in early modern Europe and East Asia and its manifestations in nonliterate societies of Melanesia and Polynesia By establishing wide reaching geographical and historical perspectives the essays reveal the universality of antiquarianism as an embodiment of the human mind and open new avenues for understanding the representation of the past from ancient societies to the present      Essential Terms of Chinese Painting Maria CHENG, TANG Wai Hung, Eric CHOY, 2018-05-02

Essential Terms of Chinese Painting provides a comprehensive coverage of the broad spectrum of Chinese painting Through an array of some 900 terms it exhibits the history of Chinese culture as interpreted by artists and portrayed in their work In masterful detail it describes not only the artistic implements and drawing styles but also how these are influenced by changing cultural considerations over time such as religion philosophy intellectual ideas and political developments From the broad view of how the change of dynasties affected painting trends in both format and subject to the smallest detail of the methods used to paint different styles of tree branches this is a full compendium of the scope and depth of artwork from China This volume features twelve chapters which explore all major areas of art including techniques implements and materials inscriptions and seals painting and mounting formats for all categories including landscape bird and flower figure and auspicious paintings provide a helpful resource for readers to enjoy Chinese art with over 500 full colour illustrations and pictures to further elaborate the terms discussed serve as an introduction to begin a true understanding of traditional Chinese painting
