Pakistan An Introduction:

Pakistan Herbert Feldman,1968 Pakistan ,1968 Pakistan Pippa Virdee,2021-11-25 What is Pakistan The name refers to a seventy year old post colonial product of the bloodiest partition of territory and population that accompanied the end of British empire in South Asia But the region of the Indus Valley has a four thousand year old history and was the site of one of the earliest and greatest riverine civilisations in the world Although the modern nation of Pakistan as we know it was created as a homeland for the Muslims of British India it is impossible to understand the complex tapestry of linguistic ethnic and cultural identities and tensions of the region without tracing its deep past This Very Short Introduction looks at Pakistan as one of the two nation states of the Indian sub continent that emerged in 1947 Pippa Virdee reaches into the ancient past to demonstrate the influence of trajectories of human settlement and civilisation on Pakistan s contemporary political arena and shows how the longer continuities between the land and its peoples are as important as the short term changes in the political landscape She considers Pakistan s religion and society the state and the military everyday life popular culture languages and literature as well as Pakistan s relationship with the rest of the world Virdee also looks to the challenges of the 21st century and the future of Pakistan Very Short Introductions Brilliant Sharp Inspiring ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable Islam and Pakistan's Political Culture Farhan Mujahid Chak,2014-09-04 This book explores the ideological rivalry which is fuelling political instability in Muslim polities discussing this in relation to Pakistan It argues that the principal dilemma for Muslim polities is how to reconcile modernity and tradition It discusses existing scholarship on the subject outlines how Muslim political thought and political culture have developed over time and then relates all this to Pakistan s political evolution present political culture and growing instability The book concludes that traditionalist and secularist approaches to reconciling modernity and tradition have not succeeded and have in fact led to instability and that a revivalist approach is more likely to be successful

A Historical Atlas of Pakistan Robert Greenberger,2002-12-15 Maps and text chronicle the history of Pakistan from the ancient Indus Valley civilizations to the rule of Pervez Musharraf Production of Postcolonial India and Pakistan Ted Svensson,2013-07-31 This work seeks to examine the event and concurrent transition that the inauguration of India and Pakistan as postcolonial states in August 1947 constituted and effectuated Analysing India and Pakistan together in a parallel and mutually dependant reading and utilizing primary data and archival materials Svensson offers new insights into the current literature seeking to conceptualise independence through partition and decolonisation in terms of novelty and as a restarting of time Through his analysis Svensson demonstrates the constitutive and inexorable entwinement of contingency and restoration of openness and closure in the establishment of the postcolonial state It is maintained that those involved in instituting the new state in a moment devoid of fixity and foundation anchor it in preceding beginnings The work concludes with the proposition that the novelty should not only be regarded as contained in the moment of transition It should also be seen as contained in the pledge in the promise and the gesturing towards a future community Distinct from most other studies on the partition and independence the book assumes the constitutive moment as the focal point offering a new approach to the study of partition in British India decolonisation and the institutional of the postcolonial state This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of international relations South Asian studies and political and postcolonial theory

Are Pakistan's Women Entrepreneurs Being Served by the Microfinance Sector? Mehnaz Safavian, Aban Haq, 2013-07-19 Financial services are important for women who are starting and growing a business but in Pakistan microfinance providers MFPs are not reaching Pakistan s businesswomen Only 59 percent of microfinance clients are women yet the majority of these loans are passed on the male members of the household husbands fathers and sons The practice of passing on loans to male household members is quite widespread women may be bearing all the transaction costs and risks of accessing loans but are not the final beneficiaries Second a very low proportion of female microfinance clients are entrepreneurs The report explores why businesswomen in Pakistan may not be using microfinance products to meet their start up and working capital requirements in spite of identifying access to finance as a key constraint to their business operations Against this backdrop access to finance remains the biggest challenge for a woman who wants to start or grow a business Yet less than a quarter of the entrepreneurs identified through business development service providers were currently borrowing from microfinance lenders Even among those entrepreneurs that borrow dissatisfaction is high Why Women borrower entrepreneurs are not able to access individual loan products but instead are consistently relegated to group lending But group loans are very costly for a woman who is running a business and the loans are too small to fulfill working capital needs Businesswomen are rarely given the opportunity to access individual loan products which are usually offered exclusively to male borrowers and women are not given opportunities to graduate from group loans to individual loans over time Lending practices often are discriminatory requiring husbands permission male guarantors and unmarried women are rarely considered as potential clients Although MFIs understand that women s inclusion is integral to the objectives of microfinance the practice of passing on loans raises serious issues about consumer protection for women clients and the best and most effective solutions to these challenges could and should come from the sector itself Designing better products that reach the needs of emerging women entrepreneurs could prove to be good business achieving double bottom line objectives Investing in financial literacy and education of both men and women borrowers can help curb the demand for pass through loans and help lower risks associated with deceptive practices

Ahmadi and Christian Socio-Political Responses to Pakistan's Blasphemy Laws Qaiser Julius, 2017-09-30 The roots of Pakistan s blasphemy laws can be traced back to the British colonial rule in India but their harsher clauses were added to the Pakistan Penal Code during a wave of intense Islamization in the 1980s Everyone in Pakistan is threatened by the misuse of these laws even Muslims however a disproportionate number of victims targeted by these laws have come from two minority groups the Ahmadis and Christians Dr Qaiser Julius focuses on how these two groups have been affected by Pakistan's blasphemy laws their different reactions to these laws and more specifically why they are responding differently despite living under the same circumstances In this well structured and understandable study Julius provides a valuable tool for Christians to understand what it means to be a minority in a hostile culture This thorough analysis presents a way forward for the Christian church in Pakistan providing hope amidst the discrimination and persecution

Pakistan's Nuclear Future Henry D. Sokolski, 2009 Unfortunately a nuclear terrorist act is only one and hardly the most probable of several frightening security threats Pakistan now faces or poses We know that traditional acts of terrorism and conventional military crises in Southwest Asia have nearly escalated into wars and more recently even threatened Indian and Pakistani nuclear use Certainly the war jitters that attended the recent terrorist attacks against Mumbai highlighted the nexus between conventional terrorism and war For several weeks the key worry in Washington was that India and Pakistan might not be able to avoid war Similar concerns were raised during the Kargil crisis in 1999 and during the Indo Pakistani conventional military tensions that arose in 2001 and 2002 crises that most analysts including those who contributed to this volume believe could have escalated into nuclear conflicts The intent of this book is to conduct a significant evaluation of these threats Its companion volume Worries Beyond War published in 2008 focused on the challenges of Pakistani nuclear terrorism These analyses offer a window into what is possible and why Pakistani nuclear terrorism is best seen as a lesser included threat to war and terrorism more generally Could the United States do more with Pakistan to secure Pakistan's nuclear weapons holdings against possible seizure It is unclear This book argues that rather than distracting our policy leaders from taking the steps needed to reduce the threats of nuclear war we would do well to view our worst terrorist nightmares for what they are subordinate threats that will be limited best if the risk of nuclear war is reduced and contained

Cleaning Pakistan's Air Ernesto Sánchez-Triana, Santiago Enriquez, Javaid Afzal, Akiko Nakagawa, Asif Shuja Khan, 2014-06-26 The extent of urban air pollution in Pakistan South Asia's most urbanized country is among the world's most severe significantly damaging human health quality of life and the economy and environment of Pakistan The harm from Pakistan's urban air pollution is among the highest in South Asia exceeding several high profile causes of mortality and morbidity in Pakistan Improved air quality management AQM in Pakistan can have notable economic and health benefits For example the estimated health benefits per dollar spent on cleaner diesel are approximately US 1 1 5 for light duty diesel vehicles and US 1 5 2 4 for large buses and trucks This report advocates that Pakistan allocate resources to AQM because its air quality is severely affecting millions of Pakistanis and because experiences around the world indicate that interventions can significantly improve air quality This report details a broad spectrum of research on Pakistan's AQM challenges and identifies a comprehensive set of steps to improve air quality The research presented here underpins the conclusions that addressing Pakistan's urban air pollution requires coordinated interventions to strengthen AQM build agencies institutional capacity bolster AQM's legal and regulatory framework implement policy reforms and investments and fill knowledge gaps However Pakistan's policy makers face major obstacles including limited financial human and technical resources and can pursue only a few AQM interventions at the same time In the short term Pakistan's AQM should give highest priority to reducing pollutants linked to high morbidity and mortality PM_{2.5} and precursors like SO_x and NO_x from mobile sources A second level short term priority could be PM_{2.5} SO_x and emissions of toxic metals from stationary sources An important medium term priority should be mass transportation in major cities controlling traffic and restricting private cars during high pollution episodes A long term priority could be taxing hydrocarbons based on their contribution to greenhouse gases

The Ahmadis and the Politics of Religious Exclusion in Pakistan Ali Usman Qasmi, 2014-05-15 In this path breaking new work Ali Usman Qasmi traces the history of the political exclusion of the Ahmadiyya religious minority in Pakistan by drawing on revealing new sources This volume is the first scholarly study of the declassified material of the court of inquiry that produced the Munir Kiyani report of 1954 and the proceedings of the national assembly that declared the Ahmadis non Muslims through the second constitutional amendment in 1974 The Ahmadis and the Politics of Religious Exclusion in Pakistan chronicles anti Ahmadi violence and the legal and administrative measures adopted against them and also addresses wider issues of the politics of Islam in postcolonial Muslim nation states and their disputative engagements with ideas of modernity and citizenship Winner of the Karachi Literary Festival Peace Prize 2015

Pakistan's Tactical Nuclear Weapon: Conflict Redux Brigadier Gurmeet Kanwal, Dr Monika Chansoria, 2013-10-15 Tactical Nuclear Weapons TNWs often referred to as battlefield sub strategic or non strategic nuclear weapons usually have a plutonium core and are typically distinct from strategic nuclear weapons Therefore they warrant a separate consideration in the realm of nuclear security The yield of such weapons is generally lower than that of strategic nuclear weapons and may range from the relatively low 0.1 kiloton to a few kilotons Pakistan's quest to acquire tactical nuclear weapons has added a dangerous dimension to the already precarious strategic equation in South Asia The security discourse in the subcontinent revolves around the perennial apprehension of a conventional or sub conventional conflict triggering a chain reaction eventually paving the way for a potential nuclear crisis haunting peace and stability in the region Pakistan believes that the successful testing of the 60 km nuclear capable short range missile Hatf 9 Nasr adds deterrence value to Pakistan's strategic weapons development programme at shorter ranges In paradox the fact remains that this step has further lowered Pakistan's nuclear threshold through the likely use of TNWs The introduction of TNWs into the tactical battle area further exacerbates credibility of their control Pakistan has not formally declared a nuclear doctrine but it is well known that nuclear weapons are its first line of defence The use of TNWs in the India Pakistan case will alter the strategic scenario completely as Pakistan would threaten India with the use of TNWs in the event of New Delhi responding against Islamabad with a conventional strike in reaction to a 26/11 style terrorist attack Pakistan forgets that given its offensive strategic posture and continuing involvement in terror strikes in India it is New Delhi which is confronted with the problem of developing a strategy to counter Pakistan's first strike and proxy war in the light of its declared no first use policy This edited volume attempts to address and decipher complex issues including aspects such as China's WMD collaboration with Pakistan nuclear command and control dynamics within Pakistan overall rationale and implications of TNWs safety and security of nuclear weapons scenarios for nuclear usage India's potential response options and more specifically the technical aspects of the Nasr delivery system

Exploring the Bias Elspeth Page, Jyotsna Jha, 2009 Focusing on seven case studies of secondary schools in India Malaysia Nigeria Pakistan Samoa Seychelles and Trinidad Tobago this book analyses whether schools perpetuate gender stereotypes and investigates how this can be prevented It provides insights and recommendations useful for policy makers and educators worldwide

New Perspectives on Pakistan's Political Economy Matthew McCartney, S. Akbar Zaidi, 2019-09-19 This volume makes a major intervention in the debates around the nature of the political economy of Pakistan focusing on its contemporary social dynamics This is the first comprehensive academic analysis of Pakistan's political economy after thirty five years and addresses issues of state class and society examining gender the middle classes the media the bazaar economy urban spaces and the new elite The book goes beyond the contemporary obsession with terrorism and extremism political Islam and simple civilian military relations and looks at modern day Pakistan through the lens of varied academic disciplines It not only brings together new work by some emerging scholars but also formulates a new political economy for the country reflecting the contemporary reality and diversification in the social sciences in Pakistan The chapters dynamically and dialectically capture emergent processes and trends in framing Pakistan's political economy and invite scholars to engage with and move beyond these concerns and issues

Land of Two Rivers Nitish K. Sengupta, 2011 Land of Two Rivers chronicles the story of one of the most fascinating and influential regions in the Indian subcontinent The confluence of two major river systems Ganga and Brahmaputra created the delta of Bengal an ancient land known as a center of trade learning and the arts from the days of the Mahabharata and through the ancient dynasties During the medieval era this eventful journey saw the rise of Muslim dynasties which brought into being a unique culture quite distinct from that of northern India The colonial conquest in the eighteenth century opened the modern chapter of Bengal's history and transformed the social and economic structure of the region Nitish Sengupta traces the formation of Bengali identity through the Bengal Renaissance the growth of nationalist politics and the complex web of events that eventually led to the partition of the region in 1947 analyzing why despite centuries of shared history and culture the Bengalis finally divided along communal lines The struggle of East Pakistan to free itself from West Pakistan's dominance is vividly described documenting the economic exploitation and cultural oppression of the Bengali people Ultimately under the leadership of Bangabandhu Mujibur Rahman East Pakistan became the independent nation of Bangladesh in 1971 Land of Two Rivers is a scholarly yet extremely accessible account of the development of Bengal sketching the eventful and turbulent history of this ancient civilization rich in scope as well as in influence Water for Food Security Claudia Ringler, Arif Anwar, 2016-03-22 Pakistan's water management is at a critical watershed The world's seventh most populous country faces serious challenges that will require improvements in both the hardware and software of agricultural water management Water shortages are growing rapidly as a result of growing demand across all water using sectors Rapid population growth from 175 million people in 2010 to an estimated 236 million by 2030 and 280 million by 2050 and international food price spikes create pressure to increase agricultural production of staples but demand for cash crops is also growing rapidly including for cotton fruit trees and tobacco to raise rural incomes and generate rural employment to absorb the relatively young rapidly growing rural population Water management is also increasingly affected by climate change including an increased number of flood and drought events and growing energy shortages which affect how water is being sourced and used Last but not least Pakistan's political situation is fragile which has reduced incentives to invest in enhanced agricultural water and other technologies How Pakistan addresses these challenges will be decisive for its population's future water and food security for economic growth and for environmental sustainability It will also affect water and food outcomes globally due to the interconnectedness of global food trade This book was published as a special issue of Water International Real Estate in South Asia Prashant Das, Ramya Aroul, Julia Freybote, 2019-06-03 This book provides insights into commercial and residential real estate markets in one of the world's fastest growing regions South Asia Despite being the growth leader of the future South Asia is among the least integrated regions with a large need for real estate specific information and knowledge Scholars and industry practitioners from a variety of backgrounds come together to provide pan regional and country specific insights into amongst others institutional economic and real estate market characteristics real estate specific legislation real estate financing development and urban planning practices in Bangladesh Bhutan India the Maldives Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka A particular focus of the book is on topics such as the provision of affordable housing sustainability innovative office concepts such as co working and the development of real estate investment trust REIT markets in South Asia This book integrates knowledge on real estate markets in and across South Asian countries by means of country profiles and case studies to provide industry professionals policy makers and scholars with a fundamental understanding of characteristics opportunities and challenges in the region The book is intended for readers with interests in real estate development finance and investment urban planning and housing in South Asia It is also suitable as a reference textbook for undergraduate and graduate students in programs focusing on real estate economic development urban planning and public policy in South Asia and other emerging countries The Weaknesses in the International Protection of Minority Rights Javaid

Rehman,2021-10-05 The issue of minority rights continues to occupy a sensitive position in international law Historical as well as contemporary events show that the subject is also capable of engulfing the international community as a whole The contention of the present study is that international law is in itself a difficult medium for providing adequate rights for minorities and for effectively safeguarding those rights This volume analyses the weaknesses in the international protection of minority rights through a detailed examination of the practices and policies of Pakistan Thought provoking and original in its approach this volume will prove to be of enormous value to international human rights lawyers and to scholars engaged in the study of minority rights in South Asia and Pakistan Cotton Production Khawar Jabran,Bhagirath Singh
