THOUGHTS ON PAKISTAN M.K. GANDHI, The Muslim Leaguers have today raised the slogan that ten crores of Indian Muslims are in danger of being submerged and swept out of existence unless they constitute themselves into a separate state I call the slogan scare mongering pure and simple It is nonsense to say that any people can permanently crush or swamp out of existence one fourth of its population which the Mussalman s are in India But I would have no hesitation in conceding the demand of Pakistan if I could be convinced of its righteousness of that it is good for Islam But I am firmly convinced that the Pakistan demand as put forth by the Muslim League is unislamic and I have not hesitated to call it sinful Islam stands for the unity and brotherhood of mankind not for disrupting the oneness of the human family Therefore those who want to divide India into possibly warring groups are enemies alike of India and Islam They cut me to pieces but they cannot make me subscribe to something which I consider to be wrong M K Gandhi to the Muslim Leaguers and M A Jinnah Harijan Oct 6 1946 At this juncture we should try to understand the genesis of this almost pathological abhorrence of Gandhiji to the concept of Pakistan and consequent partitioning of India and trace its roots We must keep in mind two fundamental tenets of Gandhian philosophy which principally governed the thought process behind penning the articles that follow in this book The views sentiments expressed in this book of Mahatma Gandhi some seventy four years ago hold good even today The very demand of Pakistan he has characterised as a sin The recent tragic happenings have amply proved what an unmitigated sin it is A complete and coherent picture of the Pakistan problem as viewed by Gandhi has been reproduced from the pages of Harijan which he edited besides many press notes on the issue At the end copious appendixes have also been incorporated

Pakistan Usama Butt, Julian Schofield, 2012-02-13. The killing of Osama Bin Laden highlighted the tense relationship between the US and Pakistani governments. This book considers the evolving nature of this relationship and Pakistan's place within the global order. Whereas standard accounts focus on the US-Pakistan relationship in isolation, Pakistan: The US Geopolitics and Grand Strategies provides a broader geopolitical perspective. It analyses Pakistan's relations with the US after a decade of the war on terror as well as Pakistan's regional relations, which provides the reader with a comprehensive understanding of Pakistan's interests. Contributions from experts in both Pakistan and the West make this book vital reading for anyone seeking to understand this troubled nation. Pakistan David Cumming, 2004. Pakistan at Seventy Shahid Burki, Iftikhar Ahmed Chowdhury, Asad Butt, 2019-06-07. This handbook examines Pakistan's 70-year history from a number of different perspectives. When Pakistan was born, it did not have a capital, a functioning government or a central bank. The country lacked a skilled workforce. While the state was in the process of being established, eight million Muslim refugees arrived from India who had to be absorbed into a population of 24 million people. However, within 15 years, Pakistan was the fastest growing and transforming economy in the developing world, although the political evolution of the country during this period was not equally successful. Pakistan has vast agricultural and human resources and its location promises trade, investment and other opportunities. Chapters in the volume, written by experts in the field, examine government and politics, economics, foreign policy and environmental issues as well as social aspects of Pakistan's development, including the media, technology, gender and education. Shahid Javed Burki is an economist who has been a member of the faculty at Harvard University, USA, and Chief Economist, Planning and Development Department, Government of the Punjab. He has also served as Minister of Finance in the Government of Pakistan and has written a number of books and journal and newspaper articles. He joined the World Bank in 1974 as a senior economist and went on to serve in several senior positions. He was the first Director of the China Department, 1987-94, and served as the Regional Vice President for Latin America and the Caribbean during 1994-99. He is currently the Chair of the Board of Directors of the Shahid Javed Burki Institute of Public Policy at NetSol BIPP in Lahore. Iftikhar Ahmed Chowdhury is a career Bangladeshi diplomat and former Minister of Foreign Affairs in the Government of Bangladesh, 2007-08. He has a PhD in international relations from the Australian National University, Canberra. He began his career as a member of the civil service of Pakistan in 1969. Dr. Chowdhury has held senior diplomatic positions in the course of his career, including as Permanent Representative of

Bangladesh to the United Nations in New York 2001 07 and in Geneva 1996 2001 and was ambassador to Qatar Chile Peru and the Vatican He is currently a visiting senior research fellow at the Institute of South Asian Studies National University of Singapore Asad Ejaz Butt is the Director of the Burki Institute of Public Policy Lahore Pakistan Pakistan-Japan Relations Ahmad Rashid Malik,2008-09-03 This book examines the complex nature of Pakistan Japan relations focusing on two key factors economic interests and security concerns in the US led global security system Providing a thorough analysis of the history of relations between the countries it also sets out future prospects for economic and diplomatic relations

Pamphlets Relating to India-Pakistan Dispute India. Ministry of Information and Broadcasting,1965 Ahmadi and Christian Socio-Political Responses to Pakistan's Blasphemy Laws Qaiser Julius,2017-09-30 The roots of Pakistan s blasphemy laws can be traced back to the British colonial rule in India but their harsher clauses were added to the Pakistan Penal Code during a wave of intense Islamization in the 1980s Everyone in Pakistan is threatened by the misuse of these laws even Muslims however a disproportionate number of victims targeted by these laws have come from two minority groups the Ahmadis and Christians Dr Qaiser Julius focuses on how these two groups have been affected by Pakistan s blasphemy laws their different reactions to these laws and more specifically why they are responding differently despite living under the same circumstances In this well structured and understandable study Julius provides a valuable tool for Christians to understand what it means to be a minority in a hostile culture This thorough analysis presents a way forward for the Christian church in Pakistan providing hope amidst the discrimination and persecution East Pakistan ,1950 Pakistan Factor and the Competing Perspectives in India Raja Qaiser Ahmed,2021-11-29 The book discusses the Pakistan factor in Indian foreign policy covering the evolution of both Indian nationalism and Hindu nationalism and their impact on India s foreign policy framework To explain the bipartisanship on Pakistan in India it separates party centric foreign policy views of national parties of India Then it explains India s Pakistan policy from multiple aspects It underscores India s pursuit of policy choices under Modi and ends with a discussion on the future of India Pakistan relations Pakistan ,2008
