Pakistan The Formative Phase 1857 1948:

Pakistan, the Formative Phase, 1857-1948 Khalid B. Sayeed, 1968 Sir Syed Ahmed Khan's remarkable achievements the emergence of the Indian National Congress and the Muslim League the partition of Bengal the granting of separate electorates the Khilafat Movement and the last minute manoeuvrings of both sides as the prospect of Independence drew nearer are all excellently told Impacting on this entire complex set of events for better or worse is the policy of the British Government Pakistan Khalid Bin Sayeed, 1968 Pakistan Khalid Bin Sayeed, George Cunningham, 1968 Pakistan, the Formative Phase Khalid B. Sayeed; with a Foreword by George Cunningham. 2nd Ed Khalid Bin SAYEED, 1968 Pakistan Khalid B. Sayeed, 1992 Partition's First Generation Amber H. Abbas, 2020-11-26 The Mohammadan Anglo Oriental College MAO that became the Aligarh Muslim University AMU in 1920 drew the Muslim elite into its orbit and was a key site of a distinctively Muslim nationalism Located in New Dehli the historic centre of Muslim rule it was home to many leading intellectuals and reformers in the years leading up to Indian independence During partition it was a hub of pro Pakistan activism The graduates who came of age during the anti colonial struggle in India settled throughout the subcontinent after the Partition They carried with them the particular experiences values and histories that had defined their lives as Aligarh students in a self consciously Muslim environment surrounded by a non Muslim majority This new archive of oral history narratives from seventy former AMU students reveals histories of partition as yet unheard In contrast to existing studies these stories lead across the boundaries of India Pakistan and Bangladesh Partition in AMU is not defined by international borders and migrations but by alienation from the safety of familiar places The book reframes Partition to draw attention to the ways individuals experienced ongoing changes associated with partitioning the process through which familiar spaces and places became strange and sometimes threatening and they highlight specific never before studied sites of disturbance distant from the borders 1947 Richard A. Leiby, 2025-02-07 World War II ended in 1945 but its effects were still being felt long after the surrender of Nazi Germany and Imperial Japan Shortages in food energy and industrial production continued to plague much of the world especially Europe where strained economies teetered on the verge of collapse As millions of war weary people across the globe struggled to build a better future the decisions made in 1947 proved crucial in ending the wartime milieu and ushering in a new and more stable age This book explores a wide variety of topics ranging from U S politics and international relations to big band jazz music race relations in sports and television technology to tell the story of a world in transition While focusing on the experiences of less well known individuals who are often excluded from histories of the period the author combines information from interviews with archival and secondary sources to explain why 1947 was a pivotal year in the emergence of the contemporary world Islamabad and the Politics of International Development in Pakistan Markus

Daechsel,2015-03-19 This book offers a transnational history of Pakistan's development in the 1950s and 1960s and the creation of the capital city Islamabad

India, Pakistan, and Democracy Philip Oldenburg,2010-09-13 The question of why some countries have democratic regimes and others do not is a significant issue in comparative politics This book looks at India and Pakistan two countries with clearly contrasting political regime histories and presents an argument on why India is a democracy and Pakistan is not Focusing on the specificities and the nuances of each state system the author examines in detail the balance of authority and power between popular or elected politicians and the state apparatus through substantial historical analysis India and Pakistan are both large multi religious and multi lingual countries sharing a geographic and historical space that in 1947 when they became independent from British rule gave them a virtually indistinguishable level of both extreme poverty and inequality All of those factors militate against democracy according to most theories and in Pakistan democracy did indeed fail very quickly after Independence It has only been restored as a facade for military bureaucratic rule for brief periods since then In comparison after almost thirty years of democracy India had a brush with authoritarian rule in the 1975-76 Emergency and some analysts were perversely reassured that the India exception had been erased But instead after a momentous election in 1977 democracy has become stronger over the last thirty years Providing a comparative analysis of the political systems of India and Pakistan as well as a historical overview of the two countries this textbook constitutes essential reading for students of South Asian History and Politics It is a useful and balanced introduction to the politics of India and Pakistan

Constitution-making in Asia H. Kumarasingham,2016-03-31 Britain's main imperial possessions in Asia were granted independence in the 1940s and 1950s and needed to craft constitutions for their new states Invariably the indigenous elites drew upon British constitutional ideas and institutions regardless of the political conditions that prevailed in their very different lands Many Asian nations called upon the services of Englishman and Law Professor Sir Ivor Jennings to advise or assist their own constitution making Although he was one of the twentieth century's most prominent constitutional scholars his opinion and influence were often controversial and remain so due to his advocating British norms in Asian form This book examines the process of constitutional formation in the era of decolonisation and state building in Asia It sheds light upon the influence and participation of Jennings in particular and British ideas in general on democracy and institutions across the Asian continent Critical cases studies on India Pakistan Sri Lanka Malaysia and Nepal all linked by Britain and Jennings assess the distinctive methods and outcomes of constitution making and how British ideas fared in these major states The book offers chapters on the Westminster model in Asia Human Rights Nationalism Ethnic politics Federalism Foreign influence Decolonisation Authoritarianism the Rule of Law Parliamentary democracy and the power and influence of key political actors Taking an original stance on constitution making in Asia after British rule it also puts forward ideas of contemporary significance for Asian states and other emerging democracies engaged in constitution making regime change and seeking to understand their colonial past The first political historical or constitutional analysis
