Yvon Wang,2021-03-15 Reinventing Licentiousness navigates an overlooked history of representation during the transition from the Qing Empire to the Chinese Republic a time when older hierarchical notions of licentiousness were overlaid by a new pornographic regime Y Yvon Wang draws on previously untapped archives ranging from police archives and surveys to ephemeral texts and pictures to argue that pornography in China represents a unique configuration of power and desire that both reflects and shapes historical processes On the one hand since the late imperial period pornography has democratized pleasure in China and opened up new possibilities of imagining desire On the other ongoing controversies over its definition and control show how the regulatory ideas of premodern cultural politics and the popular products of early modern cultural markets have contoured the globalized world Reinventing Licentiousness emphasizes the material factors particularly at the grassroots level of consumption and trade that governed proper sexual desire and led to ideological shifts around the definition of pornography By linking the past to the present and beyond Wang s social and intellectual history showcases circulated pornographic material as a motor for cultural change The result is an astonishing foray into what historicizing pornography can mean for our understandings of desire legitimacy capitalism and culture Muqarnas Gülru Necipoğlu,Karen Leal,2010-11-11 The articles in Muqarnas 27 address topics such as spolia in medieval Islamic architecture Islamic coinage in the seventh century the architecture of the Alhambra from an environmental perspective and Ottoman Mamluk gift exchange in the fifteenth century The volume also features a new section entitled Notes and Sources with pieces highlighting primary sources such as Akbar s Kath sarits gara Muqarnas An Annual on the Visual Cultures of the Islamic World is sponsored by the Aga Khan Program for Islamic Architecture at Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Cambridge Massachusetts The Official Catalogue of the Tennessee Centennial and International Exposition, Nashville, Tennessee, U.S.A., May 1st to October 31st, 1897 Nashville (Tenn.).
