The Cuban Revolution Marc Kaplan,2012-09-17 Jack Kaiser is a professor of English at a Los Angeles community college He presents himself as an enlightened politically progressive metrosexual teaching courses with names like Film and Feminism In his free time however he prowls the brothels of Tijuana and the sex tourism hot spots of Cuba Without his being consciously aware of it his classroom lectures begin to turn into psychodramas in which he attempts to reconcile the contradictory worlds in which he lives His life is brought to crisis when he busts a female student for plagiarism and she responds with a bogus sexual harassment charge that becomes a lawsuit Kaiser awaiting trial and seeking some kind of redemption precipitously undertakes a mission to smuggle books into Cuba to deliver to a mysterious fellow named L zaro Perdomo His trip becomes an odyssey through Havana s sexual underground a world of party girls drag queens and Santer a and culminates with a final confrontation in a Los Angeles courtroom

Crossing Sex and Gender in Latin America V. Lewis,2010-08-02 Signifying others or signs of life This book critically examines the ways in which crossing sex and gender is imagined in key cultural texts from contemporary Latin America Unlike previous studies Crossing Sex and Gender in Latin America does not hold that sexually diverse figures are always and only performative or allegorical and instead places the accent on questions of the presence or absence of an account of subjectivity in contemporary representation Via analysis of selected films and literary works of Reinaldo Arenas Mayra Santos Febres Pedro Lemebel among others the author reflects on the political implications of recent visions 1985 2005

Cuban-American Literature of Exile Isabel Alvarez-Borland,1998 The Cuban revolution of 1959 initiated a significant exodus with more than 700 000 Cubans eventually settling in the United States This community creates a major part of what is now known as the Cuban diaspora In Cuban American Literature of Exile Isabel Alvarez

Borland forces the dialogue between literature and history into the open by focusing on narratives that tell the story of the 1959 exodus and its aftermath Alvarez Borland pulls together a diverse array of Cuban American voices writing in both English and Spanish often from contrasting perspectives and approaches over several generations and waves of immigration Writers discussed include Guillermo Cabrera Infante Reinaldo Arenas Roberto Fernandez Achy Obejas and Cristina Garcia The author s analysis of their works uncovers a movement from narratives that reflect the personal loss caused by the historical fact of exile to autobiographical writings that reflect the need to search for a new identity in a new language to fictions that dramatize the authors constructed Cuban American personae If read collectively she argues these sometimes dissimilar texts appear to be in dialogue with one another as they all document a people s quest to reinvent themselves outside their nation of origin Cuban American Literature of Exile encourages readers to consider the evolution of Cuban literature in the United States over the last forty years Alvarez Borland defines a new American literature of Cuban heritage and documents the changing identity of an exiled literature

Latin American Writers on Gay and Lesbian Themes David William Foster, 1994-11-07 Gay and lesbian themes in Latin American literature have been largely ignored This reference fills this gap by providing more than a hundred alphabetically arranged entries for Latin American authors who have treated gay or lesbian material in their works Each entry explores the significance of gay and lesbian themes in a particular author s writings and closes with a bibliography of primary and secondary sources The figures included have a professed gay identity or have written on gay or lesbian themes in either a positive or negative way or have authored works in which a gay sensibility can be identified The volume pays particular attention to the difficulty of ascribing North American critical perspectives to Latin American authors and studies these authors within the larger context of Latin American culture The book includes entries for men and women and for authors from Latin American countries as well as Latino writers from the United States The entries are written by roughly 60 expert contributors from Latin America the U S and Europe

Cuba and the Fall Eduardo González, 2010-08-05 The literature of Cuba argues Eduardo González in this new book takes on quite different features depending on whether one is looking at it from the inside or from the outside a view that in turn is shaped by official political culture and the authors it sanctions or by those authors and artists who exist outside state policies and cultural politics González approaches this issue by way of two twentieth century writers who are central to the canon of gay homoerotic expression and sensibility in Cuban culture José Lezama Lima 1910 1976 and Reinaldo Arenas 1943 1990 Drawing on the plots and characters in their works González develops both a story line and a moral tale revolving around the Christian belief in the fall from grace and the possibility of redemption that bring the writers into a unique and revealing interaction with one another The work of Lezama Lima and Arenas is compared with that of fellow Cuban author Virgilio Piñera 1912 1979 and in a wider context with the non Cuban writers John Milton Nathaniel Hawthorne William Faulkner John Ruskin and James Joyce to show how their themes get replicated in González s selected Cuban fiction Also woven into this interaction are two contemporary films The Devil's Backbone 2004 and Pan's Labyrinth 2007 whose moral and political themes enhance the ethical values and conflicts of the literary texts Referring to this eclectic gathering of texts González charts a cultural course in which Cuba moves beyond the Caribbean and into a latitude uncharted by common words beyond the tyranny of place

The Paradox of Suicide and Creativity M.F. Alvarez, 2020-11-12 If creativity is the highest expression of the life impulse why do creative individuals who have made lasting contributions to the arts and sciences so often end their lives M F Alvarez addresses this central paradox by exploring the inner lives and works of eleven creative visionaries who succumbed to suicide Through a series of case studies Alvarez shows that creativity and suicide are both attempts to authenticate and resolve personal catastrophes that have called into question the most basic conditions of human existence A Companion to Modern Spanish American Fiction Donald Leslie Shaw, 2002 With such figures as Jorge Luis Borges Miguel Ángel Asturias and Gabriel García Márquez both the latter Nobel Prizewinners Spanish American fiction is now unquestionably an integral part of the mainstream of Western literature This book draws on the most recent research in describing the origins and development of narrative in Spanish America during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries tracing the pattern from Romanticism and Realism through Modernismo Naturalism and Regionalism to the Boom and beyond It shows how while seldom moving completely away from satire social criticism and protest Spanish American fiction has evolved through successive phases in which both the conceptions of the writer's task and presumptions about narrative and reality have undergone radical alterations DONALD SHAW holds the Brown Forman Chair of Spanish American literature in the University of Virginia The Ties That Bind Sara E. Cooper, 2004-04-30 The Ties That Bind comprises the first collection of critical essays that explore the family system in Spanish and Latin American culture This thought provoking volume addresses the intersection of language narrative structure social reality and family dynamics through examples from a diverse range of literary works including Cervantes Don Quijote Reinaldo Arenas Celestino antes del alba and the Chicano film My Family Mi Familia Issues of feminism gender and sexuality abuse trauma and communication take the forefront in this ground breaking book which takes psychological literary criticism a step beyond traditional psychoanalytical approaches

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Latino Literature Nicolás Kanellos, 2008-08-30 From East L A to the barrios of New York City and the Cuban neighborhoods of Miami Latino literature or literature written by Hispanic peoples of the United States is the written word of North America's vibrant Latino communities Emerging from the fusion of Spanish North American and African cultures it has always been part of the American mosaic Written for students and general readers this encyclopedia surveys the vast landscape of Latino literature from the colonial era to the present Aiming to be as broad and inclusive as possible the encyclopedia covers all of native North American Latino literature as well as that created by authors originating in virtually every country of Spanish America and Spain Included are more than 700 alphabetically arranged entries written by roughly 60 expert contributors While most of the entries are on writers such as Julia Alvarez Sandra Cisneros Lorna Dee

Cervantes Oscar Hijuelos and Piri Thomas others cover genres ethnic and national literatures movements historical topics and events themes concepts associations and organizations and publishers and magazines Special attention is given to the cultural political social and historical contexts in which Latino literature has developed Entries cite works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography Entries cite works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography The encyclopedia gives special attention to the social cultural historical and political contexts of Latino literature thus making it an ideal tool to help students use literature to learn about history and cultural diversity
