Vestiges of Colonial Empire in France R. Aldrich, 2004-12-10 This book offers the first comprehensive study of sites of memory in France connected to the history of French imperialism and colonialism and the ways that the French have remembered or forgotten their colonial past Through a study of monuments memorials museum collections and other sites of memory in France connected with France's overseas empire this book analyzes the way in which French authorities marked the Paris and provincial landscapes with these reminders of France's colonial mission during the period of imperial expansion and the fate of these sites in the post colonial period and what that evolution reveals about French memory and amnesia of the colonial epoch

Angkor Wat - A Transcultural History of Heritage Michael Falser, 2019-12-16 This book unravels the formation of the modern concept of cultural heritage by charting its colonial postcolonial nationalist and global trajectories By bringing to light many unresearched dimensions of the twelfth century Cambodian temple of Angkor Wat during its modern history the study argues for a conceptual connected history that unfolded within the transcultural interstices of European and Asian projects With more than 1 400 black and white and colour illustrations of historic photographs architectural plans and samples of public media the monograph discusses the multiple lives of Angkor Wat over a 150 year long period from the 1860s to the 2010s Volume 1 Angkor in France reconceptualises the Orientalist French colonial discovery of the temple in the nineteenth century and brings to light the manifold strategies at play in its physical representations as plaster cast substitutes in museums and as hybrid pavilions in universal and colonial exhibitions in Marseille and Paris from 1867 to 1937 Volume 2 Angkor in Cambodia covers for the first time in this depth the various on site restoration efforts inside the Archaeological Park of Angkor from 1907 until 1970 and the temple's gradual canonisation as a symbol of national identity during Cambodia's troublesome decolonisation 1953-89 from independence to Khmer Rouge terror and Vietnamese occupation and finally as a global icon of UNESCO World Heritage since 1992 until today

Congratulations to our author Michael Falser who received the prestigious 2021 ICAS Book Prize in the Ground Breaking Subject Matter category

Decolonial Heritage Aníbal Arregui, Gesa Mackenthun, Stephanie Wodianka, 2018 The volume attempts to triangulate three vibrant discourses of our times It combines postcolonial and decolonial readings of cultural conflicts with assessments of ecological dimensions of those conflicts as well as their significance within discourses on natural and cultural world heritage The examples from four continents range from the medieval Middle East already shaken by a convergence of ecological and social disaster to modern imaginary constructions of medieval Vikings the persistence of Indigenous knowledge in the Arctic literary poetics of patrimony and the heritage politics of Mediterranean urban architecture Authors ask which strategies societies in developing countries use to defend their cultural and ecological uniqueness and integrity while being penetrated by environmental hazards and hegemonizing Western forms of heritage culture or how western societies construct their own past in ways that are sometimes reminiscent of traditional imaginations of a pre modern past petrified eternally in an ideal moment of time Colonial and historical forms of heritagization of human and non human environments the essays show answer to pressing emotional needs for a sense of stability But the desire for nostalgia frequently commodified tends to collide with the similarly pressing need for political and economic survival in a rapidly changing world and in the face of accelerating extraction practices Without being able to solve this dilemma the volume makes an interdisciplinary contribution to taking intellectual stake of the asymmetrical politics and poetics of heritage and collective cultural memory

Faces of Muhammad John Tolan, 2025-03-04 Heretic and impostor or reformer and statesman The contradictory Western visions of Muhammad In European culture Muhammad has been vilified as a heretic an impostor and a pagan idol But these aren't the only images of the Prophet of Islam that emerge from Western history Commentators have also portrayed Muhammad as a visionary reformer and an inspirational leader statesman and lawgiver In Faces of Muhammad John Tolan provides a comprehensive history of these changing complex and contradictory visions Starting from the earliest calls to the faithful to join the Crusades against the Saracens he traces the evolution of Western conceptions of Muhammad through the Reformation the Enlightenment and the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and up to the present day Faces of Muhammad reveals a lengthy tradition of positive portrayals of Muhammad that many will find surprising To Reformation polemicists the spread of Islam attested to the corruption of the established Church and prompted them to depict Muhammad as a champion of reform In revolutionary England writers on both sides of the conflict drew parallels between Muhammad and Oliver Cromwell asking whether the prophet was a rebel against legitimate authority or the bringer of a new and just order Voltaire first saw Muhammad as an archetypal religious fanatic but later claimed him as an enemy of superstition To Napoleon he was simply a role model a brilliant general orator and leader The book shows that Muhammad wears so many faces in the West because he has always acted as a mirror for its writers their portrayals revealing more about their own concerns than the historical realities of the founder of Islam

Colonial Food in Interwar Paris Lauren Janes, 2016-02-25 In the wake of the First World War in which France suffered severe food shortages colonial produce became an increasingly important element of the French diet The colonial lobby seized upon these foodstuffs as powerful symbols of the importance of the colonial project to the life of the French nation But how was colonial food really received by the French public And what does this tell us about the place of empire in French society In Colonial Food in Interwar Paris Lauren Janes disputes the claim that empire was central to French history and identity arguing that the distrust of colonial food reflected a wider disinterest in the empire From Indochinese rice to North African grains and tropical fruit to curry powder this book offers an intriguing and original challenge to current orthodoxy about the centrality of empire to modern France by examining the place of colonial foods in the nation's capital
