Pale Bird Spouting Fire:

Pale Bird, Spouting Fire Susan Yuzna, 2000 Susan Yuzna's new collection of poetry builds on the success of her 1995 Akron Poetry Prize winner Her Slender Dress which also won the Poetry Society of America's Norma Farber First Book Award. The new poems speak in a voice recognizably Yuzna's though now deepened and darkened with a quickening twist of mordant humor. Feisty or contemplative in Eden or on the mean streets these poems look at the long tradition of women struggling towards fulfillment. Using figures mythical and real from Venus to Billie Holiday Yuzna explores the links that exist between the physical transformations unique to female experience and their spiritual and emotional epiphanies. Encompassing these themes is the paradox of poetry though a small thing a pale bird it is also a source of passion and power spouting fire strong enough to lift us beyond the commonplace to change daily experience into moments when we recognize the presence of the extraordinary.

Requiem for the Orchard Oliver De la Paz, 2010 These are vivid visceral poems about coming of age in a place where the Ferris Wheel was the tallest thing in the valley where a boy would learn to fire a shotgun at nine and wring a chicken's neck with one hand by twirling the bird and whipping it straight like a towel. In spite of such hardscrabble cruelties or because of them there is also a real tenderness in these poems the revelations of bliss driving along an empty highway like opening a heavy book letting the pages feather themselves and finding a dried flower. The poet has a gift for rendering his world in cinematic images. In short these poems are the stuff of life itself ugly and beautiful wherever or whenever we happen to live it.

Martin Espada Other Latitudes Brian Brodeur, 2008 Attempting to repair the fissures of everyday life Brian Brodeur negotiates the psychological distances between desire and disgust humor and catastrophe banality and dream. The poems of Other Latitudes begin in the realm of personal experience and expand into larger territories of cultural narcissism and political blindness. These poems meditate on the tenuous relationship between artist and subject the curiosities of self-inflicted wounds and the presence of hope in a landscape that is intrinsically scarred. Brodeur's debut illustrates the conflict between inner lives and their outward appearances with an eye turned to the unforgiving natural world.

Fire Wheel Sharmila Voorakkara, 2005 Collection of original poems by Sharmila Voorakkara. Provided by publisher.

The Bride Minaret Heather Derr-Smith, 2008 Heather Derr Smith's second collection journeys to the rough core of desire creating and destroying binaries along the way. Familiar artifacts of domesticity become as volatile as land mines and the streets of Damascus Calcutta and other faraway locales obliterate the American landscape. Yet Derr Smith's poetry transcends time and place illuminating the ties that bind man to woman mother to child. The Bride Minaret is a relentless chronicle of experience where the sacred and profane become interchangeable where every tent has a name and every name is the breath of you.

Detail from The Garden of Earthly Delights Dennis Hinrichsen, 2000 In the title poem Detail from The Garden of Earthly Delights Dennis Hinrichsen writes a line about his failing grandfather that could encompass the entire book. But then the mystery takes over. Ranging from backyard trees to the Shroud of Turin from a John Wayne movie to the passionate poetry of Catullus Hinrichsen explores the pulse and counterpulse that pull us simultaneously towards life and death often leaving us stranded in the zone between them where the erotic and the spiritual the extravagant and the mundane inform our daily lives If any solace is to be found there these poems suggest that it will come through acceptance and celebration of all the uneasy but natural juxtapositions that constitute the world we know The Skewed anointings by which the earth is strangely stained and blessed

Mistaking the Sea for Green Fields Ashley Capps, 2006 In her first book Mistaking the Sea for Green Fields Ashley Capps sounds like the voice of a fresh generation of poets where the familiar turns suddenly elliptical straight talk goes engagingly crooked and the lyric negotiates with the matter of fact Desperate for something solid to believe in Capps still mistrusts authority feeling disenchanted with God family eros even her own impulsive self And yet while the absence of faith hints at despair these poems often achieve almost in spite of themselves an odd buoyancy Playful fearless wary there is a dazzling resilience in this book One poem can make a grand and eccentric claim I forgive the afterlife while another takes as its title something humbler and more poisonous God Bless Our Crop Dusted Wedding Cake No matter how adrift this poet may feel poetry itself remains her anchor and lifeline

The Zones of Paradise Lynn Powell, 2003 Lynn Powell's earlier work has deservedly brought her prestigious prizes and a loyal following Now in The Zones of Paradise Powell extends her range and raises her language to a new intensity These poems travel from Australia to New Mexico from the Garden of Eden to her own back yard in Ohio and everywhere they tremble with the restless exploration of desire thwarted or fulfilled my heart another Magellan of memory and want The Zones of Paradise may offer a vision of what it is like to live in the fallout of The Fall but Powell's lines dazzle with their sensuous intelligence and vivid wit introducing an undaunted Eve who can announce I want to take April as my personal savior In poems that embrace both the risks and pleasures of experience Lynn Powell celebrates the only world we know

The Book of Accident Beckian Fritz Goldberg, 2006 In her latest collection of poems The Book of Accident Beckian Fritz Goldberg invites the reader into a shadowy atmosphere where her language prowls among strange images hummingbirds become a fistful of violet amphetamines and desire gnaws away like a live rat sewed up inside us Reading The Book of Accident is like entering a graphic novel with missing panels a noir world of queasy glints and feral adolescents a world where no one has to love you Characters go by odd names Torture Boy Skin Girl Lala Petite Wolf Boy his body pale as the plucked end of light They are punk kids fending for themselves in an expressionistic version of those old stories that began Let's take the children out to the woods and leave them And on every page there is Goldberg's hard edged wit with the speed and flash of a video game These poems show mercy but give no ground They make you feel heartbroken and frightened and exhilarated at the same time

Big Muddy River of Stars Alison Pelegrin, 2007 In Big Muddy River of Stars her second full length collection of poems Alison Pelegrin continues her celebration of the quirks and characters of south Louisiana tempered now by the devastations of hurricane Katrina and its aftermath These sassy poems come on like a carnival parade with boisterous shout outs to sleepy rivers and Big Shot soda crawfish and trailer trash and those git r dones who rebuild homes ravaged by hurricane and high water Presiding over the book is the spirit of Chinese poet Li Po Pelegrin s prodigal mentor and drinking buddy Sharing his exultation and taste of recklessness she wants to write the Li Po way wine and the wide world And she does With lines that laugh and rage and slur in the piquant tongue of her native Louisiana Pelegrin knows how to play the blues in a bold and irreverent key     Delicate Bait Roger Mitchell,2003 In Delicate Bait Roger Mitchell explores the small histories of the self in the larger world intent on giving everything its just place and name The poems roam over field and seashore and city inventing a world so similar to the world itself it becomes the world Whether musing on the past or searching for something even memory can t reach Mitchell faces up to the wobble of most things human with a combination of stoicism and wonder and a language as supple as the spoken word Winner of the 2002 Akron Poetry Prize     Cage of Water Dennis Hinrichsen,2004 The poems in Dennis Hinrichsen s Cage of Water explore collisions of spirit and matter that thorn and thistle bath as he states in the book s final poem where the limitations and entanglements of the flesh give over to provisional and sometimes fractured radiance and everlasting This radiance takes many forms an uncle with Down Syndrome calling out the makes of cars through the hrsh lght Gds lght faltring ner th crwn of the skul a woman s neck cords flaring leaping out in muscular form fluted arc briefly held instant his father sleeping bird cry pouring out of him like string or knotted rain as the narrator resists waking him and lets mosquitoes feed Confronted with the natural world Hinrichsen peers closely at such things as mules standing in the rain the flight of a swallowtail or cloudwork lighting the weave of trout and fashions uncanny threadings of self and other Throughout the book Hinrichsen transcends the bright beautiful cage of the senses in lines and stanzas that are alert to the fluidity and exactness of perception to find the measureless silk of our common existence     The Good Kiss George Bilgere,2002 The Good Kiss is a collection of poems dealing loosely with the subjects of divorce sexuality and American culture from the 1950 s to today The poems vary in tone from the fairly serious to the reflective and meditative to the wryly comic Perhaps it is fair to say that this range of tones exists within many of the individual poems and is their defining characteristic Poems like What I Want and The Good Kiss are good examples of these quirky rather unexpected tonal shifts and blendings     Poetry Harriet Monroe,2000     The North Dakota Quarterly ,1999     The Laurel Review ,2003     A Letter to Serafin John Minczeski,2009 A Letter from Serafin is a multi layered archeological dig into the author s past Poland s past by way of his great grandfather Serafin the mythological past of Medieval paintings the historical past of Auschwitz through the concentration camps and the personal pasts that confront him with his own stinging failures and invisibilities made visible     Blues for Bill Kurt Brown,2005 Blues for Bill was born out of the desire to perpetuate the memory of our dear friend and teacher Bill Matthews Bill s work will last without our help of course but what of our memories of Bill himself This collection of poems ensures that the world will remember his graciousness intelligence knowledge style good humor capacity for friendship immense talent and wit It s Bill himself this anthology memorializes the character and soul of this most unique man The poems included were written by people who knew Bill in a variety of ways under myriad circumstances as friend both old and new as mentor and teacher as colleague as father The book s introduction was penned by Bill s long time friend Russell Banks Many of the contributors names will be familiar such as Sharon Olds Stanley Plumly Dave Smith Henry Taylor David Wojahn Susan Wood and Baron Wormser others are perhaps not as well known but their poems are remarkable true testaments to Bill

Half/mask Roger Mitchell,2007 In Half Mask Roger Mitchell goes in search of the magic that remains when the world is stripped down to an inhospitable beauty Many of these starkly lyrical poems explore the human and natural communities found on tundra and borrow freely from the great narrative and sculptural traditions of the Inuit and other rugged people who have learned to live intensely under challenging conditions Whether in the High Arctic or in different places where human life has a loose fit Mitchell discovers a land rich in imagery and metaphor for describing experience at a fundamental level out at the edge of what we can know Alone and far away remote a step or two beyond human real being An effort to understand and sympathetically inhabit the earth drives these poems even in the barren isolation of their settings and gives to Half Mask its emotional resonance

How We Spent Our Time Vern Rutsala,2006 Nearly every poem in How We Spent Our Time flies at its mast a title in the form of a gerund or gerund phrase that humble verbal noun The book s table of contents therefore reads like an equally humble enumeration of the ways a human lifetime can be paid out so to speak looking getting owning learning We all do them all And yet there is exceptional artistry in the testimonials these doings make witness to The arrangement of the poems within the text is part of it Note how keeping immediately precedes spending in the poems Keeping It Together and Spending the Night these poems are conversational but endlessly skilful in the ways they keep the language vivid and fresh and surprising How We Spent Our Time is flush with pangs and satisfactions abundant with wisdom and delight
