Patient Power:

Patient Power John C. Goodman, Gerald Musgrave, 1992-10-01 Argues for a health care system that would restore power and responsibility to the individual consumer and taking it out of the hands of government and insurance companies The Connected Customer Stefan H.K. Wuyts, Marnik G. Dekimpe, Els Gijbrecchts, F.G.M. (Rik) Pieters, 2011-01-19 In today's connected consumer environment customers are better informed and harder to please but they also leave a more visible evidence trail in the form of improved databases and customer information Consumers are increasingly interconnected through various sorts of social networks a trend that is facilitated by recent advances in electronic media and telecommunication i.e. MySpace Facebook Twitter and Cyworld Consumers are also increasingly connected with brands and seek to play a more participative role in their relationship with companies stimulating companies to reconsider how to connect with consumers This book consists of a collection of chapters by thought leaders in the field of marketing and beyond that deals with the rich facets of connectivity This edited volume is a great source of research ideas and fresh theory building for academics and students in marketing and related fields who wish to understand this exciting field It will be a source of inspiration for practitioners who are eager to take up the challenge and adapt their marketing strategies to the changing nature of consumer and business markets The Ends of Human Life Ezekiel J. Emanuel, 1991 Ezekiel Emanuel trained as both a physician and a political theorist rejects the claim that most of today's dilemmas of medical ethics are created by advances in medical technology He maintains that the seemingly endless debates are the inevitable consequence of liberal political values He proposes an alternative ideology a liberal communitarianism that imagines a federation of political communities dedicated to democratic deliberations to guide the formulation of laws and policies The Body in Theory Becky R. McLaughlin, Eric Daffron, 2021-09-06 The body has always had the potential to unsettle us with its strange exigencies and suppurations its demands and desires and thus throughout the ages it has continued to be a subject of interest and obsession This collection of twelve peer reviewed essays on Jacques Lacan and Michel Foucault interrogates the body in all of its beauty and with all of its blights and blemishes Written by a diverse body of scholars art historians cultural theorists English professors philosophers psychoanalysts and sociologists from North America and Europe these essays bring into conversation two intellectual giants frequently seen as antagonists and thus rarely seen together Topics covered include the intersections of Foucault and Lacan and how they bring to light new thoughts on the senses the self destructive body ableism and disability in Guillermo del Toro's film The Shape of Water body image and the ego selfie culture and metamorphosis in Ottessa Moshfegh's novel My Year of Rest and Relaxation among others The Mindful Health Care Professional - E-Book Carmelina D'Arro, 2023-09-12 2025 PROSE Award Category Winner in Nursing Allied Health Services Selected for Doody's Core Titles 2024 in Patient Education Research shows that what makes or breaks the success of a health care professional is more than the ability to provide accurate diagnosis and treatment An HCP's success hinges on
