Foursome Carolyn Burke, 2020-03-10 A captivating spirited account of the intense relationship among four artists whose strong personalities and aesthetic ideals drew them together pulled them apart and profoundly influenced the very shape of twentieth century art New York 1921 acclaimed photographer Alfred Stieglitz celebrates the success of his latest exhibition the centerpiece a series of nude portraits of his soon to be wife the young Georgia O Keeffe The exhibit acts as a turning point for the painter poised to make her entrance into the art scene There she meets Rebecca Salsbury the fianc of Stieglitz s prot g Paul Strand marking the start of a bond between the couples that will last more than a decade and reverberate throughout their lives In the years that followed O Keeffe and Stieglitz become the preeminent couple in American modern art spurring on each other s creativity Observing their relationship leads Salsbury to encourage new artistic possibilities for Strand and to rethink her own potential as an artist

A Sense of Things Bill Brown, 2010-12-28 In May 1906 the Atlantic Monthly commented that Americans live not merely in an age of things but under the tyranny of them and that in our relentless effort to sell purchase and accumulate things we do not possess them as much as they possess us For Bill Brown the tale of that possession is something stranger than the history of a culture of consumption It is the story of Americans using things to think about themselves Brown s captivating new study explores the roots of modern America s fascination with things and the problem that objects posed for American literature at the turn of the century This was an era when the invention production distribution and consumption of things suddenly came to define a national culture Brown shows how crucial novels of the time made things not a solution to problems but problems in their own right Writers such as Mark Twain Frank Norris Sarah Orne Jewett and Henry James ask why and how we use objects to make meaning to make or remake ourselves to organize our anxieties and affections to sublimate our fears and to shape our wildest dreams Offering a remarkably new way to think about materialism A Sense of Things will be essential reading for anyone interested in American literature and culture

Greater American Camera Monica Bravo, 2021-01-01 An engaging investigation of how the relationships between four U S photographers and Mexican artists forged new developments in modernism Photographers Edward Weston Tina Modotti Paul Strand and Helen Levitt were among the U S artists who traveled to Mexico during the interwar period seeking a community more receptive to the radical premises of modern art Looking closely at the work produced by these four artists in Mexico this book examines the vital role of exchanges between the expatriates and their Mexican contemporaries in forging a new photographic style Monica Bravo offers fresh insights concerning Weston s friendship with Diego Rivera Modotti s images of labor which she published alongside the writings of the Stridentists Strand s engagement with folk themes and the work of composer Carlos Ch vez and the influence of Manuel lvarez Bravo on Levitt s contributions to a New World surrealism Exploring how these dialogues resulted in a distinct kind of modernism characterized by inter American interests the book reveals the ways in which cross border collaboration shaped a new greater American aesthetic

Translating Southwestern Landscapes

Audrey Goodman, 2022-02-08 Winner of the Western Literature Association s Thomas J Lyon Award Whether as tourist s paradise countercultural destination or site of native resistance the American Southwest has functioned as an Anglo cultural fantasy for more than a century In Translating Southwestern Landscapes Audrey Goodman excavates this fantasy to show how the Southwest emerged as a symbolic space from 1880 through the early decades of the twentieth century Drawing on sources as diverse as regional magazines and modernist novels Pueblo portraits and New York exhibits Goodman has crafted a wide ranging history that explores the invention translation and representation of the Southwest Its principal players include amateur ethnographer Charles Lummis who conflated the critical work of cultural translation pulp novelist Zane Grey whose bestselling novels defined the social meanings of the modern West fashionable translator Mary Austin whose re expressions of Indian song are contrasted with recent examples of ethno poetics and modernist author Willa Cather who demonstrated an immaterial feeling for landscape from the Nebraska Plains to Acoma Pueblo Goodman shows how these writers as well as photographers such as Paul Strand Ansel Adams and Alex Harris exhibit different phases of the struggle between an Anglo calling to document Native and Hispanic difference and America s larger drive toward imperial mastery In critiquing photographic representations of the Southwest she argues that commercial interests and eastern prejudices boiled down the experimental images of the late nineteenth century to a few visual myths the persistence of wilderness the innocence of early portraiture and the purity of empty space An ambitious synthesis of criticism and anthropology art history and geopolitical theory Translating Southwestern Landscapes names the defining contradictions of America s most recently invented cultural space It shows us that the Southwest of these early visitors is the only Southwest most of us have ever known
