Paul Women And Wives Marriage And Womens Ministry In The Letters Of Paul

Carol Ann Newsom, Sharon H. Ringe

Paul Women And Wives Marriage And Womens Ministry In The Letters Of Paul:

Paul, Women, and Wives Craig S. Keener, 1992-06-01 Paul's letters stand at the center of the dispute over women the church and the home with each side championing passages from the Apostle Now in a challenging new attempt to wrestle with these thorny texts Craig Keener delves as deeply into the world of Paul and the apostles as anyone thus far Acknowledging that we must take the biblical text seriously and recognizing that Paul's letters arose in a specific time and place for a specific purpose Keener mines the historical lexical cultural and exegetical details behind Paul's words about women in the home and ministry to give us one of the most insightful expositions of the key Pauline passages in years

Women's Bible Commentary Carol Ann Newsom, Sharon H. Ringe, 1998-01-01 In the critically acclaimed best seller Women's Bible Commentary an outstanding group of women scholars introduced and summarized each book of the Bible and commented on those sections of each book that have particular relevance to women focusing on female characters symbols life situations such as marriage and family the legal status of women and religious principles that affect relationships of women and men Now this expanded edition provides similar insights on the Apocrypha presenting a significant view of the lives and religious experiences of women as well as attitudes toward women in the Second Temple period This expanded edition sets a new standard for women's and biblical studies A Theology of Paul and His Letters Douglas J.

Moo, 2021-10-26 A landmark study of the apostle's writings by one of the world's leading Pauline scholars Winner of the 2022 ECPA Christian Book Award for Bible Reference Works This highly anticipated volume gives pastors scholars and all serious students of the New Testament exactly what they need for in depth study and engagement with one of Christian history's most formative thinkers and writers A Theology of Paul and His Letters is a landmark study of the apostle's writings by one of the world's leading Pauline scholars Douglas J. Moo Fifteen years in the making this groundbreaking work is organized into three major sections Part 1 provides an overview of the issues involved in doing biblical theology in general and a Pauline theology in particular Here Moo also sets out the methodological issues formative influences and conceptual categories of Paul's thought Part 2 moves on to Paul's New Testament writings where Moo describes each Pauline letter with particular relevance to its theology Part 3 offers a masterful synthesis of Paul's theology under the overarching theme of the gift of the new realm in Christ Engaging insightful and wise this substantive evangelical treatment of Paul's theology offers extensive engagement with the latest Pauline scholarship without sacrificing its readability This volume brings insights from over thirty years of experience studying teaching and writing about Paul into one comprehensive guide that will serve readers as a go to resource for decades to come ABOUT THE SERIES The Biblical Theology of the New Testament BTNT series provides upper college and seminary level textbooks for students of New Testament theology interpretation and exegesis Pastors and discerning theology readers alike will also benefit from this series Written at the highest level of academic excellence by recognized experts in the field the BTNT series not only offers a comprehensive exploration of the theology of every book of the New Testament including introductory issues and major themes but also shows how each book relates to the broad picture of New Testament Theology

Valued by God Sheri A. Bradley, 2024-06-28 In Valued by God Sheri A. Bradley challenges the traditional constraints placed on women in the church arguing that these limits not only undermine women's God-given talents but also hurt the church's mission. This book is a clarion call for modern-day churches to rethink and reconstruct their approach to women in ministry. Bradley posits that by aligning with the value that God places on all individuals, churches will not only move towards gender equality but will also discover a fuller expression of the Christian faith community. Embracing a future where the diverse gifts of every person are not only recognized but celebrated will foster a more vibrant and dynamic body of Christ. Through rigorous scholarship and passionate advocacy, Bradley offers an invitation to a reformation of perspective that is rooted in biblical truth, historical awareness, and a heartfelt conviction that every believer, regardless of gender, is indeed valued by God.

Jesus, Paul, and Power Rick F. Talbott, 2010-08-01 Jesus of Nazareth and Paul of Tarsus represent two of the most influential figures of history because of the expansion of later Christianity. But Christianity's historical development includes a checkered and troubling past of abusive power that also impugns both Jesus and Paul. European colonialism carried the gospel to the world, claiming Jesus and Paul as architects of its oppressive empire-building. Modern churches in America quote Jesus and Paul to inspire, inform, and justify a host of cultural values that often include the subordination of women and marginalization of others who differ in beliefs, values, and lifestyles. Talbott analyzes how Jesus and Paul responded to the systems of oppressive power in their day and how each, in turn, used power to form their respective communities. The conclusions are based on the most recent scholarly approaches to Jesus and Paul and will enable modern readers to judge for themselves how Jesus and Paul envisioned the use of power among their communities.

Hostility in the House of God Dillon T. Thornton, 2016-07-30 Virtually all scholars acknowledge the presence of opponents in 1 and 2 Timothy, but there is considerable disagreement over the identity of these opponents and the author's way of handling them. In this volume, Thornton provides a critique of a number of extant theories, including Gnostic Jewish and proto-Montanist identifications, and develops a rigorous methodology for unmasking the opponents who appear in these letters. He argues that the opponents came from within the Christian community in Ephesus and that their teaching is best described as an erroneous eschatological position that derived from the complexity of Paul's views. He also argues that the author of the books of Timothy engaged with the false teachers in significant ways throughout the letters and draws attention to a number of literary and theological maneuvers that were intended to counteract the opponents' influence and/or to bolster the faithful community's confidence as it struggled against the opponents. Thornton's meticulous investigation sheds new light on the hostility that plays such a large part in 1 and 2 Timothy.

The Bible in History David W. Kling, 2004 No one can doubt that the Bible has exerted a tremendous influence on Western civilization since the dawn of Christianity. In this book, Kling traces the story of how specific biblical texts have emerged to be the inspiration of movements and collective responses that have changed the course of history Galatians Craig S. Lathrop, 2011-02-14 God has accomplished many great things through the church but can the church be even more effective Is there something the church can do to be both more pleasing to the Lord and more productive Answer the Prayer of Jesus speaks to these questions The church can be more effective if it seeks to answer the prayer of Jesus in John 17 Unity is important to the mission of the church of Jesus Christ In this book both the challenges and possibilities of unity are examined Drawing from Scripture and his experiences of contemporary church life the John Lathrop gives specific examples of unity He also offers practical advice about how one can become part of the answer to the prayer of Jesus This book will enable you to see a small portion of what God is doing in the world today and will encourage you to become part of it
