Balzac Reframed Zahra Tavassoli Zea, 2019-11-14 This book examines the theoretical affiliations between the most notable proponent of literary realism Honoré de Balzac and two understated but key representatives of the French New Wave: Éric Rohmer and Jacques Rivette It argues that their film criticism which gradually led to the establishment of a common aesthetic vision of cinema the politique des auteurs owes more to Balzac and the nineteenth century novel than to any intellectual trend of the immediate post war period By considering the films of Rohmer and Rivette as an extension of their writings essays film reviews scriptwriting novels and interviews this volume analyses the changing and sometimes opposed ways in which they applied Balzacian principles and themes to their cinematic practice Essentially it understands the exchange between art forms past traditions and contemporaneous currents as the overlooked yet common thread that links these three authors through their own re appropriations of classical and romantic aesthetics in their explorations of modern French society In doing so this study provides further nuance to the conservative versus progressist rupture that is generally assumed between the two directors and offers an innovative reading of The Human Comedy in the light of post war ideas on authorship film adaptation classicism and modernism

Music in Cinema Michel Chion, 2021-10-12 Michel Chion is renowned for his explorations of the significance of frequently overlooked elements of cinema particularly the role of sound In this inventive and inviting book Chion considers how cinema has deployed music He shows how music and film not only complement but also transform each other The first section of the book examines film music in historical perspective and the second section addresses the theoretical implications of the crossover between art forms Chion discusses a vast variety of films across eras genres and continents embracing all the different genres of music that filmmakers have used to tell their stories Beginning with live accompaniment of silent films in early movie houses the book analyzes Al Jolson's performance in The Jazz Singer the zither in The Third Man Godard's patchwork sound editing the synthesizer welcoming the flying saucer in Close Encounters of the Third Kind and the Kinshasa orchestra in Félicité among many more Chion considers both original scores and incorporation of preexisting works including the use and reuse of particular composers across cinematic traditions the introduction of popular music such as jazz and rock and directors attraction to atonal and dissonant music as well as musique concr te of which he is a composer Wide ranging and original Music in Cinema offers a welcoming overview for students and general readers as well as refreshingly new and valuable perspectives for film scholars

The Film Cheat Murray Pomerance, 2020-10-15 Murray Pomerance venerated film scholar is the first to take on the cheat in film where cheating constitutes a collection of production performance and structuring maneuvers intended to foster the impression of a screen reality that does not exist as presented This usually calls for a suspension of disbelief in the viewer but that rests on the assumption that disbelief is problematic for viewership and that we must find some way to suspend or disconnect it in order to allow for the entertainment of the fiction in its own terms The Film Cheat explores forty five aspects of the cheat analyzing classic films such as Singin in the Rain and Chinatown to more contemporary films like The Revenant and Baby Driver with Pomerance engaging his encyclopedic knowledge of film history to point out numerous instances of suspensions of disbeliefs Whether or not Gene Kelly is actually dancin in the rain or if Elliott is really flying on his bicycle carrying E T these cheats are what make movie magic Elegantly weaving the narrative for one to dip into at random or to read from cover to cover Pomerance turns things upside down so that the audience actually finds pleasure in the cheat itself pleasure in the disbelief To see the elegant fake the supremely accomplished simulacrum is a pleasure in its own right indeed one of the fundamental pleasures of cinema
