Recovering The Past Celtic And Roman Mission:

Recovering the Past John Finney, 1996 John Finney's account of and exploration of the differences between Celtic and Roman evangelism will challenge and change the way we evangelise

A Celtic Model of Ministry Jerry C. Doherty, 2003 Why is the Christian Church declining in numbers and effectiveness in the twenty first century In A Celtic Model of Ministry Jerry Doherty, experienced clergyman and Celtic scholar shows that the decline is caused by a crisis of individualism a crisis of faith and a crisis of lifestyle Doherty responds to these crises by providing a Celtic spirituality by way of ministry of early Celtic Christians in Ireland Wales Scotland Brittany and the Isle of Man He provides a model for ministry today in the local congregation and a guideline for the successful future of the Church modeled after the early Celtic communities Doherty applies the model in congregational development studies and ministry He explores the problems that have caused the decline of the Church and how paradigms of ministry in current use are no longer adequate In A Celtic Model of Ministry Doherty proposes that a new model for thinking and building ministry today especially in the local congregation may be found in early Celtic Christian communities Churches need to be a spiritual center a learning center and a community center A Celtic Model of Ministry uses Celtic spirituality in a practical way for ministry in the local congregation and is written primarily for professionals clergy and church workers but can be easily read by lay people Chapters are A Crisis of Individualism The Solution Community Celtic Spirituality and Community Creating Community A Crisis of Faith and A Crisis of Lifestyle

Christianity Encountering World Religions (Encountering Mission) Terry C. Muck, Frances S. Adeney, 2009-04-01 The current religious climate poses unique challenges to those engaged in mission Thus the authors of this book propose a new yet very biblical model for interacting with people of other faiths They term this model giftive mission as it is based on the metaphor of free gift We bear the greatest gift possible the gospel message Adopting this perspective not only has the potential for greater missionary success but also enables us to more closely imitate God's gracious activity in the world The core of the book explores eleven practices that characterize giftive mission Each practice is illustrated through the story of a figure from mission history who embodied that practice Further discussion shows how to incorporate these practices in specific mission settings

Going Full Circle Mark Powers, 2013-07-03 In the grip of serious numerical decline American Evangelical churches are now experiencing a missional movement God is calling his people to return to a biblical lifestyle that goes full circle in continual worship discipleship and missions Mark Powers connects the dots between these three main elements of authentic Christian living He presents a theology of missional worship a detailed discipleship plan and a strategy for local music missions Going Full Circle uses everyday language to present a simple thought process to move worshipers and worship leaders to become worshipping disciples on mission Are you a casualty of worship wars Are you worried about the decline of your church Are you thrilled with fast growth churches but sense there must be something more than spectator worship Are you confused by the word missional that seems to be popping up everywhere This book is for you and your friends Read it share it and join the movement The Chant of Life Mark L. MacDonald,2003 What does it mean to inculturate liturgy Why is it necessary What value does it hold for the people Does it impact the church as a whole What does the process of inculturation teach about liturgy Bishop McDonald as editor has assembled a broad list of contributors who address the issues of liturgical inculturation from theological scriptural musical spiritual and pastoral perspectives in the context of the Native American community The discussions are of value to the wider church as it looks forward to a new era

Soulfaring Cintra Pemberton,1999-10 Pilgrimage going to ancient holy sites in search of God has become increasingly popular for people seeking to deepen their relationship with the Holy Sister Cintra Pemberton seeks to enrich the experiences of today s pilgrims by helping them draw on the history of pilgrimage itself as well as by suggesting particularly rich sites to visit Part One of Soulfaring explores the history of pilgrimage beginning in Celtic times and moving through the early Christian period the Middle Ages and even the revival of pilgrimage today Part Two explores fifteen sites in Wales Ireland Scotland and the Isle of Man Each of the descriptions of the various sites includes not only suggestions of what may be seen there but the author s personal meditations on the experience of the Holy in each place Transnational Religious Organization and Practice Stanley J. Valayil C. John,2018-02-19 In Transnational Religious Organization and Practice Stanley John provides the first in depth analysis of a migrant Christian community in the Arabian Gulf The book explores how Kerala South India Pentecostal churches in Kuwait organize and practice their Christian faith given the status of their congregants as temporary economic migrants and noting that the transient status heightens their transnational orientation toward their homeland in India The research follows a twofold agenda first examining the unique sociopolitical and migrational context within which the KPCs function and second analyzing the transnational character and structural patterns that have emerged in this context The ethnographic research identifies and analyzes the emerging structures and practices of the KPCs through three lenses networks agents and mission This study concludes with a proposal for an interdisciplinary theoretical framework to be employed in the study of transnational religious communities Pneumanaut Eric Keck,2006 Marks of the Body of Christ Carl E. Braaten,Robert W. Jenson,1999 Martin Luther once listed seven marks of the church those defining ecclesial features that show where the true church is to be found This insightful volume brings together essays by ten leading Catholic Episcopal Lutheran Methodist and Orthodox theologians each analyzing one of the seven traditional marks of the church and discussing how it is found or not found in today s churches Writing about each mark of the church are these scholars Gerhard O Forde and Richard Lischer on proclamation Susan K Wood and John H Erickson on baptism K Paul Wesche and Richard A Norris Jr on the eucharist David S Yeago on the office of the Keys Carl E Braaten on ordination Robert W Jenson on catechesis and William J Abraham on discipleship The picture of contemporary church life that is developed by these authors is grim but their analyses and practical suggestions are both constructive and necessary Sharing Friendship John B. Thomson,2016-03-03 Sharing Friendship represents a post liberal approach to ecclesiology and theology generated out of the history practices and traditions of the Anglican Church Drawing on the theological ethics of Stanley Hauerwas this book explores the way friendship for the stranger emerges from contextually grounded reflection and conversations with contemporary Anglican theologians within the English tradition including John Milbank Oliver O Donovan Rowan Williams Daniel Hardy and Anthony Thiselton Avoiding abstract definitions of character mission or friendship John Thomson explores how the history of the English Church reflects a theology of friendship and how discipleship in the New Testament the performance of worship and the shape of Anglican ecclesiology are congruent with such a theology The book concludes by rooting the theme of sharing friendship within the self emptying kenotic performance of Jesus mission and looks at challenges to the character of contemporary Anglican ecclesiology represented by secularization and globalization as well as by arguments over appropriate new initiatives such as Fresh Expressions Luke-Acts Improv: Biblical Narratives That Get You Into the Act Jamie Greene,2010-12 Gospel Witness through the Ages David M. Gustafson,2022-02-24 A definitive history of Christian evangelism including noteworthy persons movements and methods from the past Christians have been sharing the good news of Jesus Christ with nonbelievers for two thousand years Within this deep history is wisdom for today including numerous models for understanding what evangelism is and how it should be done In Gospel Witness through the Ages David Gustafson introduces readers to evangelism s noteworthy persons movements and methods from the entire scope of church history including both examples to emulate and examples to avoid With this thorough historical approach Gustafson expands the reader s conception of the evangelistic task and suggests new ways to shape our identity as gospel witnesses today through the influence of these earlier generations of Christians With discussion questions for further reflection and primary sources from major evangelistic figures of the past Gospel Witness through the Ages is the most definitive history of evangelism available essential for understanding how Christians today can continue proclaiming the gospel to the whole world as Christians have in every century past Under the Rule of Christ Paul S. Fiddes,2007-08 In this book the Principals of the six Baptist colleges in Great Britain take up a request to write about Baptist spirituality They propose that the spirituality of Baptists in all its diversity is characterized by living under the rule of Christ While all Christian spiritual traditions affirm this truth they suggest that there is a particular sense of being under Christ s rule which has been shaped by the story of Baptists and by their way of being church through the centuries Elaborating the main theme chapters explore various dimensions of spirituality giving attention to God and to others developing spirituality through suffering having spiritual liberty within a community living under the rule of the Word in Christ and scripture integrating the Lord s Supper with the whole of life and engaging in the mission of God from an experience of grace Together the writers present an understanding of prayer and life in which Christ is both the final authority and the measure of all things

Church Planting in the Secular West Paas,2016 An expert study of church planting in the most secular part of contemporary Europe In this book Stefan Paas offers thoughtful analysis of reasons and motives for missionary church planting in Europe and he explores successful and unsuccessful strategies in that post Christian secularized context Drawing in part on his own involvement with planting two churches in the Netherlands Paas explores confessional motives growth motives and innovation motives for church planting in Europe tracing them back to different traditions and reflecting on them from theological and empirical perspectives He presents examples from the European context and offers sound advice for improving existing missional practices Paas also draws out lessons for North America in a chapter coauthored with Darrell Guder and John Franke Finally Paas weaves together the various threads in the book with a theological defense of church planting Presenting new research as it does this critical missiological perspective will add significantly to a fuller understanding of church planting in our contemporary context

Pilgrimage and England's Cathedrals

Dee Dyas, John Jenkins, 2020-08-07 A brilliant breakthrough in pilgrimage studies An exemplary study that shows how to bring together different academic and institutional interests in a common cause understanding the relationship between pilgrimage and English cathedrals over time A publication that will hopefully inspire similar collaborative studies around the globe John Eade Professor of Sociology and Anthropology University of Roehampton UK People who oversee minister lead worship guide welcome manage market promote and maintain cathedrals will find this book an indispensable treasure It is aware of the awesome complexity inherent in cathedral life but it doesn't duck the issues its clear eyed focus is on the way people experience cathedrals and how these extraordinary holy places can speak and connect with all the diversity represented by the people who come to them In a spiritually hungry age this book shows us how to recognise and meet that hunger This book will be required reading for all us insiders trying to invite and signpost access to holy ground The Very Reverend Adrian Dorber Dean of Lichfield Chair of the Association of English Cathedrals This book looks at England's cathedrals and their relationship with pilgrimage throughout history and in the present day The volume brings together historians social scientists and cathedral practitioners to provide groundbreaking work comprising a historical overview of the topic thematic studies and individual views from prominent clergy discussing how they see pilgrimage as part of the contemporary cathedral experience

Poets and Saints

Jamie George, 2016-09-01 One of the most beautiful ways to know God better is to learn from those who served Him in other times and cultures The poets and saints of Christian history were imperfect yet they offer wisdom across the centuries that is as powerful today as it was to their contemporaries In Poets and Saints Jamie George takes readers from a pub in Oxford to a cathedral in the Italian hills to a rooftop in Switzerland and beyond as he offers insight into the minds and hearts of Christians such as John Newton C S Lewis and Saint Therese

Dictionary of Theologians Jonathan Hill, 2010-03-25 An exhaustive guide to every significant Christian theologian who lived from the first century to 1308 the year in which John Duns Scotus died The dictionary encompasses the Catholic Orthodox Nestorian and Monophysite traditions including information not previously available in English Thoroughly indexed the dictionary incorporates common variants of names and concepts which will help and direct the reader The main criterion for inclusion has been contribution to the development of Christian theology Sub criteria by which that is measured include above all originality and influence on later figures With over 290 entries the dictionary provides a handy summary of theologians lives and writings together with recent scholarship as well as an up to date definitive bibliography listing primary texts translations and secondary literature in the major western European languages Useful for all levels of academia no other text matches the depth of the dictionaryis bibliographies The unprecedented thoroughness of Hill s compilation provides an essential resource for studies at all levels on such a large and varied range of Church thinkers Post-Christendom

Studies: Volume 5 Steven M. Studebaker, Lee Beach, Gordon L. Heath, 2021-08-17 Post Christendom Studies publishes research on the nature of Christian identity and mission in the contexts of post Christendom Post Christendom refers to places both now and in the past where Christianity was once a significant cultural presence though not necessarily the dominant religion Sometimes Christendom refers to the official link between church and state The term post Christendom is often associated with the rise of secularization religious pluralism and multiculturalism in western countries over the past sixty years Our use of the term is broader than that however Egypt for example can be considered a post Christendom context It was once a leading center of Christianity Christendom moreover does not necessarily mean official public and dominant religion For example under Saddam Hussein Christianity was probably a minority religion but for the most part Christians were left alone After America deposed Saddam Christians began to flee because they became a persecuted minority In that sense post Saddam Iraq is an experience of post Christendom it is a shift from a cultural context in which Christians have more or less freedom to exercise their faith to one where they are persecuted and or marginalized for doing so The Gifted Church W. Clay Jackson MD DipTh, 2025-02-13 What if we re missing something The New Testament describes a vibrant church empowered by the Holy Spirit with supernatural gifts of manifestation service and leadership which turned the known world upside down within three generations But as the freedom of the operation of the Holy Spirit waned and post apostolic leaders consolidated power within hierarchical systems that missional momentum was truncated In this pivotal work Dr Jackson brings an Apostolic hermeneutic to the scriptures and mountain of classical and contemporary sources to demonstrate that this historical declension from scriptural truths began its long reversal with the Reformation culminating in the worldwide outpouring of the Holy Spirit in the early 20th century The restorationist impulse of the pioneers of modern Pentecostalism caused them to embrace previously neglected manifestation gifts charismata but did not substantially alter their ecclesiology as they failed to fully actualize the edification gifts domata Dr Jackson details the function and characteristics of each edification gift or speaking leadership role within a scriptural framework of an apostolic team He warns against excesses and abuses of power and reminds each disciple maker that the character of the Giver not the characteristics of the gift is the true determinant of our ability to serve faithfully This book will challenge the pastor theologian to rethink church leadership and to reengage the whole church in the kingdom expansion that characterized early

Christianity It will provide enrichment and clarity regarding the roles of those who portray and embody various types of edification leadership gifts The result will be a church whose missional impulse is not outsourced to designees but internalized within each member of a Body that is equipped for service within local and global contexts

Sacred Space for the Missional Church William R. McAlpine, 2011-02-14 Sacred Space for the Missional Church examines the strong link between the theology and mission of the Church and the spaces in which and from which that theology and mission are lived out The author demonstrates that the built environment is not incidental or even subservient to mission Rather it is a key player in the fulfillment and the communication of that mission The book begins with a working definition of the missional church underscoring the connection between God's mission missio Dei and the Church's mission The reader is presented with historical and theological frameworks for sacred space and reminded of the pivotal role of the built environment in the fulfillment of the mission of the Church The design and construction of sacred spaces are shown to be fundamentally a theological exercise and not solely a matter of function pragmatics and fiscal astuteness The author questions the uncritical application of blanket statements such form must follow function and challenges the conviction that it does not matter where worship occurs only that it occurs The book addresses genuine concerns such as legitimizing the cost of church buildings and concludes with practical suggestions and essential questions that must be considered in posturing the built environment within the missional praxis of the Church
