Roma In An Expanding Europe:

Roma in an Expanding Europe Dena Ringold, Mitchell Alexander Orenstein, Erika Wilkens, 2005 Following the enlargement of the European Union in May 2004 Roma or gypsies are now the largest minority group in Europe They are also one of the poorest and most vulnerable groups living mainly in Central and Eastern Europe suffering poverty levels as high as ten times that found within majority populations The lack of information about the living conditions and needs of Roma people compound these stark gaps in human development outcomes This publication prepared for a conference held in Budapest Hungary in June 2003 brings together original sociological research evaluations of programme initiatives and the first comparative cross country household survey on ethnicity and poverty It finds that Roma poverty is multi faceted and can only be addressed by a inclusive policy approach which respects their diversity

Minority Rights Protection in International Law Dr Helen O'Nions, 2012-12-28 There are approximately ten million Roma in Europe making them the continent s largest non territorial minority Despite this fact the Roma continue to experience routine discrimination and marginalization in European countries As a result they are seldom engaged in national political activism and are frequently at the bottom of the economic and social ladder The severity of exclusion experienced by the Roma in societies which have long paid heed to the notion of individual universal human rights combined with their geographical dispersal and heterogeneous nature makes the study of the Roma highly informative This book examines the theoretical debate concerning the most appropriate way of protecting the fundamental human rights of the Roma which also illuminates ways in which the rights of minority groups can be protected more generally As a result this work will be a valuable resource for social scientists and practitioners in the field of human rights
