Roman Chichester:

Roman Chichester Alec Down, 1988 A synthesis of his six volumes of excavations and of other work in and around Chichester is provided by this coherent account of the Roman town its formation its development its inhabitants and its decline   The Towns of Roman Britain ,2017-07-05 This edition of the text has been rewritten and re illustrated to take account of the extensive new excavations and interpretations that have taken place since the book was first published twenty years ago The central section of the text covers the origin development public and private buildings fortifications character and demise of each of the twenty one major towns of the province the provincial capital of London the coloniae Colchester Lincoln Gloucester and York the first civitas capitals Canterbury Verulamium and Chelmsford from client kingdoms to civitas Caister by Norwich Chichester Silchester and Winchester Flavian expansion Cirencester Dorchester Exeter Leicester and Wroxeter and Hadrianic stimulation Caerwent Carmarthen Brough on Humber and Aldborough The introductory chapters address the general questions of definition and urbanization while the concluding chapter examines the reasons for the decay and final demise   The Story of Roman Bath Patricia Southern, 2015-01-15 A comprehensive history of Roman Bath

Agriculture and Industry in South-Eastern Roman Britain David Bird, 2016-12-31 The ancient counties surrounding the Weald in the SE corner of England have a strongly marked character of their own that has survived remarkably well in the face of ever increasing population pressure The area is however comparatively neglected in discussion of Roman Britain where it is often subsumed into a generalised treatment of the civilian part of Britannia that is based largely on other parts of the country This book aims to redress the balance The focus is particularly on Kent Surrey and Sussex account is taken of information from neighboring counties particularly when the difficult subsoils affect the availability of evidence An overview of the environment and a consideration of themes relevant to the South East as a whole accompany 14 papers covering the topics of rural settlement in each county crops querns and millstones animal exploitation salt production leatherworking the working of bone and similar materials the production of iron and iron objects non ferrous metalworking pottery production and the supply of tile to Roman London Agriculture and industry provides an up to date assessment of our knowledge of the southern hinterland of Roman London and an area that was particularly open to influences from the Continent   The Towns of Roman Britain John Wachter, 2020-08-18 This book aims to examine and define the functions of towns in Roman Britain and to apply the definition so formed to Romano British sites to consider the towns foundation political status development and decline and to illustrate the town s individual characters and their surroundings   Highways and Byways in Sussex

Edward Verrall Lucas, 1904   Sussex Archaeological Collections Henry Campkin, 2025-07-20 Reprint of the original first published in 1874 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage   The English Settlements John Nowell Linton Myres, 1989 The dark ages of English history between the collapse of Roman rule in the early fifth century and the emergence of the Anglo Saxon kingdoms in the seventh century are examined in this study which draws attention to political and social factors linking Roman Britain to Anglo Saxon England

Communities and Connections Chris Gosden, Helena Hamerow, Philip de Jersey, Gary Lock, 2007-11-08 For almost forty years the study of the Iron Age in Britain has been dominated by Professor Sir Barry Cunliffe Between the 1960s and 1980s he led a series of large scale excavations at famous sites including the Roman baths at Bath Fishbourne Roman palace and Danebury hillfort which revolutionized our understanding of Iron Age society and the interaction between this world of barbarians and the classical civilizations of the Mediterranean His standard text on Iron Age Communities in Britain is in its fourth edition and he has published groundbreaking volumes of synthesis on The Ancient Celts OUP 1997 and on the peoples of the Atlantic coast Facing the Ocean OUP 2001 This volume brings together papers from more than thirty of Professor Cunliffe's colleagues and students to mark his retirement from the Chair of European Archaeology at the University of Oxford a post which he has held since 1972 The breadth of the contributions extending over 800 years and ranging from the Atlantic fringes to the eastern Mediterranean is testimony to Barry Cunliffe's own extraordinarily wide interests

Towns in Decline, AD100-1600 Terry Slater, 2017-07-05 Many European towns have experienced loss of population degradation of physical structure and profound economic change at least once since the height of the Roman Empire This volume is an examination of the various causes of these changes the results which flowed from them and the reasons why some urban centres survived revived and eventually flourished again while others failed and died The contributors bring to bear the techniques of history and archaeology the perspectives of economics agronomy medicine architecture and planning geography and law to the study The result is a synthesis which connects the Decline of the Roman Empire to the effects of the Black Death and the economic transformation of Renaissance Florence
