The Vienna School of Art History Matthew Rampley, 2015-06-26 Matthew Rampley's The Vienna School of Art History is the first book in over seventy five years to study in depth and in context the practices of art history from 1847 the year the first teaching position in the discipline was created to 1918 the collapse of Austria Hungary It traces the emergence of art history as a discipline the establishment of norms of scholarly inquiry and the involvement of art historians in wider debates about the cultural and political identity of the monarchy The so called Vienna School plays the central role in the study but Rampley also examines the formation of art history elsewhere in Austria Hungary Located in the Habsburg imperial capital Vienna art historians frequently became entangled in debates that were of importance to art historians elsewhere in the Empire and Rampley pays particular attention to these areas of overlapping interest He also analyzes the methodological innovations for which the Vienna School was well known Rampley focuses most fully however on the larger political and ideological context of the practice of art history particularly the way in which art historical debates served as proxies for wider arguments over the political social and cultural life of the Habsburg Empire

Medieval East Central Europe in a Comparative Perspective Gerhard Jaritz, Katalin Szende, 2016-05-12 Medieval East Central Europe in a Comparative Perspective draws together the new perspectives concerning the relevance of East Central Europe for current historiography by placing the region in various comparative contexts The chapters compare conditions within East Central Europe as well as between East Central Europe the rest of the continent and beyond Including 15 original chapters from an interdisciplinary team of contributors this collection begins by posing the question What is East Central Europe with three specialists offering different interpretations and presenting new conclusions The book is then grouped into five parts which examine political practice religion urban experience and art and literature The contributors question and explain the reasons for similarities and differences in governance and strategies for handling allies enemies or subjects in particular ways They point out themes and structures from town planning to religious orders that did not function according to political boundaries and for which the inclusion of East Central European territories was systemic The volume offers a new interpretation of medieval East Central Europe beyond its traditional limits in space and time and beyond the established conceptual schemes It will be essential reading for students and scholars of medieval East Central Europe Historical Monuments in Hungary László Gerő,1902 Culture and Customs of Hungary Oksana Ritz-Buranbaeva,Vanja Mladineo,2011-09-22 This book provides a one stop introduction to the history culture and personalities of Hungary a fascinating country located at the heart of Europe and born at the crossroads of civilizations Hungary today is most certainly a Central European nation in terms of a modern geopolitical and cultural understanding of Europe Additionally it has occupied a central position in the constellation of European kingdoms for centuries The story of Hungary is about a country at the heart of Europe geographically as well as culturally and of a people quite distinct from their eastern and western neighbors yet irrevocably intertwined with them in terms of their histories and futures Culture and Customs of Hungary is an absolute must have for high school public and undergraduate library bookshelves Readers will explore Hungary s fascinating contemporary life and culture in this unique and all encompassing reference work that highlights the most important Hungarian historical personalities and explains their role in the development of Hungarian culture and society as well as their standing in modern Hungary Topics covered include history art including literature architecture film and music customs and traditions modern society and culture media gender roles language and religion Eastern Europe in the Middle Ages (500-1300) (2 vols) Florin Curta,2019-07-08 Winner of the 2020 Verbruggen prize This book provides a comprehensive synthesis of scholarship on Eastern Europe in the Middle Ages The goal is to offer an overview of the current state of research and a basic route map for navigating an abundant historiography available in more than 10 different languages The literature published in English on the medieval history of Eastern Europe books chapters and articles represents a little more than 11 percent of the historiography The companion is therefore meant to provide an orientation into the existing literature that may not be available because of linguistic barriers and in addition an introductory bibliography in English Winner of the 2020 Verbruggen prize awarded annually by the De Re Militari society for the best book on medieval military history The awarding committee commented that the book has an enormous range and yet is exceptionally scholarly with a fine grasp of detail Its title points to a general history of eastern Europe but it is dominated by military episodes which make it of the highest value to anybody writing about war and warmaking in this very neglected area of Europe See inside the book Central Europe in the High Middle Ages Nora Berend,Przemysław Urbańczyk,Przemysław Wiszewski,2013-12-19 This groundbreaking comparative history of the early centuries of Bohemia Hungary and Poland sets the development of each polity in the context of the central European region as a whole Focusing on the origins of the realms and their development in the eleventh and twelfth centuries the book concludes with the thirteenth century when significant changes in social and economic structures occurred The book presents a series of thematic chapters on every aspect of the early history of the region covering political religious economic social and cultural developments including an investigation of origin myths that questions traditional national narratives It also explores the ways in which west European patterns were appropriated and adapted through the local initiatives of rulers nobles and ecclesiastics in central Europe An ideal introduction to the essential themes in medieval central European history the book sheds important new light on regional similarities and differences Hungary Adrian Phillips, Jo Scotchmer, 2005 This thorough guide to Hungary shows there is much to explore beyond its popular capital Budapest A wide range of activities sightseeing and travel options are provided to aid independent travelers There is No Czech Culture in Upper Hungary Lajos Steier, 1920 INTER-ENG 2020 Liviu Moldovan, Adrian Gligor, 2021-05-31 These proceedings contain research papers that were accepted for presentation at the 14th International Conference Inter Eng 2020 Interdisciplinarity in Engineering which was held on 8-9 October 2020 in T rgu Mure Romania It is a leading international professional and scientific forum for engineers and scientists to present research works contributions and recent developments as well as current practices in engineering which is falling into a tradition of important scientific events occurring at Faculty of Engineering and Information Technology in the George Emil Palade University of Medicine Pharmacy Science and Technology of T rgu Mures Romania The Inter Eng conference started from the observation that in the 21st century the era of high technology without new approaches in research we cannot speak of a harmonious society The theme of the conference proposing a new approach related to Industry 4.0 was the development of a new generation of smart factories based on the manufacturing and assembly process digitalization related to advanced manufacturing technology lean manufacturing sustainable manufacturing additive manufacturing and manufacturing tools and equipment The conference slogan was Europe's future is digital a broad vision of the Industry 4.0 concept beyond direct manufacturing in the company Papers Read at the Royal Institute of British Architects, 1867
