Romantic Vision, Ethical Context Géza von Molnár,1986 Private Lives in the Public Sphere Todd Kontje,2010-11 Private Lives in the Public Sphere examines the Bildungsroman in the context of the rapid changes that affected the German literary revolution that made up for its belatedness in its rapidity and scope The nature and quantity of reading material produced the social status of the writer and the reading habits of the public changed dramatically within a few decades At the beginning of the century the new texts that appeared at the annual book fairs were primarily written in Latin and devoted to theology By the end of the century the number of new publications each year has increased almost exponentially with the novel leading the way This new institution of literature constituted an important part of what J instead it transforms reality and the Bildungsroman is the genre that examines this transformation

BOOK JACKET Irony and Idealism Fred Rush,2016-09-22 Irony and Idealism investigates the historical and conceptual structure of the development of a philosophically distinctive conception of irony in early to mid nineteenth century European philosophy The principal figures treated are the romantic thinkers Friedrich Schlegel and Novalis Hegel and Kierkegaard Fred Rush argues that the development of philosophical irony in this historical period is best understood as providing a way forward in philosophy in the wake of Kant and Jacobi that is discrete from and many times opposed to German idealism Irony and Idealism argues against the grain of received opinion that among the German romantics Schlegel s conception of irony is superior to similar ideas found in Novalis It also presents a sustained argument showing that historical reconsideration of Schlegel has been hampered by contestable Hegelian assumptions concerning the conceptual viability of romantic irony and by the misinterpretation of what the romantics mean by the absolute Rush argues that this is primarily a social ontological term and not as is often supposed a metaphysical concept Kierkegaard although critical of the romantic conception deploys his own adaptation of it in his criticism of Hegel continuing and in a way completing the arc of irony through nineteenth century philosophy The book concludes by offering suggestions meant to guide contemporary reconsideration of Schlegel s and Kierkegaard s views on the philosophical significance of irony

Subversive Sublimities Eitel Friedrich Timm, 1992 This anthology of critical essays pursues a field of scholarship that has only recently caught fire the dark side of the German Enlightenment The most prominent of German enlightened poets and thinkers Goethe Schiller Lichtenberg Tieck among others were conspicuously prone to the ideology of shamans occultists and charlatans of modern science and psychology And yet the studies published here for the first time argue that the fascination with magic and the occult are not symptoms of a dying age but subversively productive elements so that the subversiveness of irrationalism may be said to have become a progressive rather than a reactionary force Novalis:

Orienting the Self Debra N. Prager, 2014 Follows the evolution of the Orient as a positive literary device in German literature and demonstrates how it was used to explore subjectivity and the possibility of wholeness For centuries Europe s eastward gaze has been wary if not hostile Medieval man envisaged grotesque beings at the world s edge and scanned the steppes and straits on the immediate horizon for the Asian or Arab hordes that might swarm across them Through the Crusades the early modern era and the age of imperialism Europeans regarded the Eastern subject as requiring both discovery and conquest Conveniently the Oriental came to represent fanaticism terrorism moral laxity and inscrutability among other stereotypes The list of German literary works that reinforced negative clich s about the East is long but

Orienteering the Self argues for the presence in the German literary tradition of a powerful perception of the East as the scene of desire fantasy and fulfillment It follows the evolution of the Orient as a literary device and demonstrates how it was used to explore subjectivity and the possibility of wholeness The five works treated in this study Parzival Fortunatus Effi Briest Heinrich von Ofterdingen and The Magic Mountain are narratives of development in which the encounter with the East is central to the progression toward selfhood and the promise of fulfillment Debra N Prager is Associate Professor of German at Washington and Lee University

Wordsworth and English Literary Pilgrimage in the Nineteenth Century Keith Hanley, 2025-06-12 Using Wordsworth as a focal point this book describes how in the period of Romanticism and beyond the historical practice of pilgrimage became internalised figuratively and psychologically so as to represent Christian discourse in nineteenth century English literature It surveys the imaginative relocation of Jerusalem and Rome to real and present places thereby creating the nation's sacred imaginary Wordsworth is presented as central to founding a literary religious discourse on the sacred site of the Lake District Also explored are the ways in which other Victorian writers such as Ruskin and Newman participated in that construction by their own literary pilgrimages Overall this book revises assumptions about the decline of the religious imagination in nineteenth century English literature and fundamentally reappraises the function of Romantic and Victorian representations of the sacred in forming the nation and empire

Writing the Voice of Pleasure A. Callahan, 2001-11-09 The Voice of Pleasure makes a persuasive and fascinating argument that the romantic couple of Western representation is not heterosexual Nor is it homosexual With insightful new readings of landmarks of Western culture from Tristan and Yseult to Seinfeld Callahan demonstrates that the illusion of heterosexuality is created by a male artist's assumption of a feminine voice to express desire Named the troubadour effect for the first time here this tradition of male femininity in romantic writing results in a cultural model of desire best described as heterosexuality without women The most compelling aspect of the book is its attention to the effect of this paradox on women writers Illuminating her argument with striking examples from the troubadour to Toni Morrison the author shows how women writers inscribe their vagabondage a term she coins to name the consequences of the troubadour effect for women's agency as both writers and lovers

Mysticism and Materialism in the Wake of German Idealism W. Ezekiel Goggin, Sean Hannan, 2022-03-30 This book argues that the rediscovery of mystical theology in nineteenth century Germany not only helped inspire idealism and romanticism but also planted the seeds of their overcoming by way of critical materialism Thanks in part to the

Neoplatonic turn in the works of J G Fichte as well as the enthusiasm of mining engineer Franz X von Baader mystical themes gained a critical currency and mystical texts returned to circulation This reawakening of the mystical tradition influenced romantic and idealist thinkers such as Novalis and Hegel and also shaped later critical interventions by Marx Benjamin and Bataille Rather than rehearsing well known connections to Swedenborg or B hme this study goes back further to the works of Meister Eckhart Nicholas of Cusa Catherine of Siena and Angela of Foligno The book offers a new perspective on the reception of mystical self interrogation in nineteenth century German thought and will appeal to scholars of philosophy history theology and religious studies

Redeeming Words David Michael Kleinberg-Levin, 2013-11-01 Probing study of how literature can redeem the revelatory redemptive powers of language In this probing look at Alfred D blin s 1929 novel Berlin Alexanderplatz and the stories of W G Sebald Redeeming Words offers a philosophical meditation on the power of language in literature David Kleinberg Levin draws on the critical theory of Benjamin and Adorno the idealism and romanticism of Kant Hegel H lderlin Novalis and Schelling and the nineteenth and twentieth century thought of Nietzsche Heidegger and Derrida He shows how D blin and Sebald writers with radically different styles working in different historical moments have in common a struggle against forces of negativity and an aim to bring about in response a certain redemption of language Kleinberg Levin considers the fast paced staccato and hard cut sentences of D blin and the ghostly languorous and melancholy prose fiction of Sebald to articulate how both writers use language in an attempt to recover and convey this utopian promise of happiness for life in a time of mourning
