meanwhile was home to subsistence farmers living in small groups dominated largely by Germanic speakers Although having some iron tools and weapons these mostly illiterate peoples worked mainly in wood and never built in stone The farther east one went the simpler it became fewer iron tools and ever less productive economies And yet ten centuries later from the Atlantic to the Urals the European world had turned Slavic speakers had largely superseded Germanic speakers in central and Eastern Europe literacy was growing Christianity had spread and most fundamentally Mediterranean supremacy was broken Bringing the whole of first millennium European history together and challenging current arguments that migration played but a tiny role in this unfolding narrative Empires and Barbarians views the destruction of the ancient world order in light of modern migration and globalization patterns Publishers Weekly ,1975 Athletic-cultural Archaeological Sites in the Greco-Roman World Russell L.
