Rome Done Lightly George Adamson, 1972-01-01      Rome Done Lightly, 1972-01-01      Dictionary of British Cartoonists and Caricaturists Mark Bryant, Simon Heneage, 2022-01-25 Originally published in 1994 this dictionary provides a unique who's who of the major figures in the world of British cartoons and caricatures. It was the first book to encompass the entire field from c 1730 when Hogarth published the first of his modern moral pictures to 1980. In addition to describing the careers and achievements of the artists and the characteristics of their styles, more than 500 entries give details of their publications, their illustrations to books and periodicals, exhibitions of their work, public collections in which their work is represented, and literature on or referring to them. More than 150 illustrations are included. This is a comprehensive reference work and will be of interest to social and political historians as well as cartoon and caricature enthusiasts.

Originally published in 2000, this indispensable handbook offers a unique who's who of all the major artists working in Britain in the twentieth century and contains nearly 500 entries. Extensively illustrated, the book provides information on the work of artists such as Steve Bell, Gerald Scarfe, Posy Simmonds, Ronald Searle, Trog Mac, and Larry, as well as such past masters as David Low, Vicky, H. M. Bateman, Illingworth, Heath, Robinson, and more. The dictionary concentrates primarily on political cartoonists, caricaturists, and joke or gag cartoonists actively working for the main Fleet Street national dailies and weeklies from 1900 to 1995. Each entry is cross-referenced and provides a concise biographical outline with an account of the artist's style, influences, and preferred medium. Where relevant, the entry includes suggestions for further reading and notes solo exhibitions, books, illustrated works, and works held in public collections. The Dictionary of Twentieth-Century British Cartoonists and Caricaturists offers an insight into the lives of satirical artists working during a century that provoked cartoonists and caricaturists to a pitch of comic and artistic invention that has rarely been matched. Hidden Love (married first) Lovis.L., Sofia Levine married a man she had known for less than 24 hours. The marriage was the result of an agreement between their grandfathers. At first, her half-sister even tried to take her place in the marriage. After all, Rome Beckett was the sole heir of a wealthy family. With his good looks, he was the object of many women's affections in the city. Rumor had it that Rome Beckett was cold and aloof and many were waiting to see Sofia become the laughingstock of the high society as a discarded wife After the wedding they treated each other with respect and Sofia believed that in time there might be a little love between them That is until one day she overheard him casually talking to a friend saying It s nothing more than fulfilling the familys wishes It was a business marriage from the start and she had developed feelings she shouldn t have She quickly moved out of that home In the pouring rain the once proud man humbled by love held her hand with trembling fingers Let s go home please
