The Novel Map Patrick M. Bray, 2013-01-31 Focusing on Stendhal G rard de Nerval George Sand mile Zola and Marcel Proust The Novel Map Mapping the Self in Nineteenth Century French Fiction explores the ways that these writers represent and negotiate the relationship between the self and the world as a function of space in a novel turned map With the rise of the novel and of autobiography the literary and cultural contexts of nineteenth century France reconfigured both the ways literature could represent subjects and the ways subjects related to space In the first person works of these authors maps situate the narrator within the imaginary space of the novel Yet the time inherent in the text s narrative unsettles the spatial self drawn by the maps and so creates a novel self one which is both new and literary The novel self transcends the rigid confines of a map In this significant study Patrick M Bray charts a new direction in critical theory

The Birth and Unfolding of Phases in History Michael A. Susko, 2025-09-10 The Birth and Unfolding of Phases in History From Neolithic to World Pueblo and U S History brings together four major works into a single arc of human time Michael A Susko argues that the rhythm of history is not confined to the rise of empires but begins in the Neolithic with triadic 45 year generations that set the first phases of historical time in motion Using this framework the book explores Neolithic atlatl y k as a non empire model of symbolic and generational phasing This Initial work is in progress World history through Egypt Judah Israel Rome and the Medieval Modern era contrasting empire based and prophetic alternatives Ancestral Pueblo history as a more egalitarian path outside empire's mold U S history as a largely empire driven model tempered by ideals of freedom and equality This panoramic view balances empire and non empire trajectories showing how civilizations universalize their visions either through force or through sharing covenant and inclusion Written in accessible language yet grounded in rigorous patterning it invites readers to see history not as inevitable empire but as a set of choices that continue to shape our present and future      Sea, Land and Air ,1920      The Unfolding Word Zach Keele,2020-12-16 Is the Bible one story or many The Bible is more than a collection of isolated stories it is a transformative unfolding Word that shapes and changes its readers Too often the Bible can be misunderstood or hard to comprehend How does the Bible with its various authors genres and styles all separated by hundreds of years tell a single story In The Unfolding Word Zach Keele helps readers understand the narrative shape of the Bible and how each of its parts collectively tell one grand story      Mapping Michel Serres Niran Abbas,2009-12-14 Provides an extremely valuable introduction to the work of Michel Serres for an English speaking audience as well as offering useful critical approaches for those already familiar with its outlines Robert Harrison Stanford University blurb from review pending permission The work of Michel Serres including the books Hermes The Parasite The Natural Contract Genesis The Troubadour of Knowledge and Conversations on Science Culture and Time has stimulated readers for years as it challenges the boundaries of science literature culture language and epistemology The essays in Mapping Michel Serres written by the leading interpreters of his work offer perspectives from a range of disciplinary positions including literature language studies and cultural theory Contributors include Maria Assad Hanjo Berressem Stephen Clucas Steven Connor Andrew Gibson Ren Girard Paul Harris Marcel H naff William Johnsen William Paulson Marjorie Perloff Philipp Schweighauser Isabella Winkler and Julian Yates      Mapping, Connectivity, and the Making of European Empires Luis Lobo-Guerrero,Laura Lo Presti,Filipe dos Reis,2021-06-29 This volume seeks to collectively explore how maps can be used to understand the making of European empires how the epistemological practices embedded in them can be approached to understand European imperial space making and how maps can be seen as representations of imaginaries of connectivity Rehearsing mapping s past and its multifarious relations with European imperial orders is not merely an historical exercise to contribute to a global history of cartography What binds the several interventions is rather an awareness that looking at a particular moment of the past with composite methodologies and interdisciplinary gazes may harbour potential discoveries on the context embedded relations between mapping connectivity and European empire to which we are not yet attuned By exploring the imaginaries of the world in the mapping of Western modern empires the book also links to the burgeoning literature on the history of international relations and empire The emphasis on empires serves here as an important corrigendum for IR s state centrism and Eurocentrism and contributes to further erode the myth of Westphalia
