That Furious Lesbian Robert A Schanke, 2016-09-06 In this first book length biography of Mercedes de Acosta theatre historian Robert A Schanke adroitly mines lost archival materials and mixes in his own interviews with de Acosta's intimates to correct established myths and at last construct an accurate detailed and vibrant portrait of the flamboyantly uninhibited early twentieth century author poet and playwright Born to wealthy Spanish immigrants Mercedes de Acosta 1893-1968 lived in opulence and traveled in the same social circles as the Astors and Vanderbilts Introduced to the New York theater scene at an early age her dual loves of performance and of women informed every aspect of her life thereafter Alice B Toklas's observation Say what you will about Mercedes she's had the most important women in the twentieth century was well justified as her romantic conquests included such internationally renowned beauties as Greta Garbo Marlene Dietrich Isadora Duncan and Eva Le Gallienne as well as Alla Nazimova Tamara Karsavina Pola Negri and Ona Munson More than a record of her personal life and infamous romances this account offers the first analysis of the complete oeuvre of de Acosta's literary works including three volumes of poetry two novels two film scripts and a dozen plays Although only two of her plays were ever published during her lifetime four of them were produced featuring such stage luminaries as John Gielgud Ralph Richardson and Eva Le Gallienne Critics praised her first volume of poetry Moods in 1919 and predicted her rise to literary fame but the love of other women that fueled her writing also limited her opportunities to fulfill this destiny Failing to achieve any lasting fame she died in relative poverty at the age of seventy five De Acosta lived her desires publicly with verve and vigor at a time when few others would dare and for that she paid the price of marginalized obscurity Until now With That Furious Lesbian Schanke at last establishes Mercedes de Acosta's rightful place as a pioneer and indeed a champion in the early struggle for lesbian rights in this country Robert A Schanke has edited a companion to this biography Women in

Turmoil Six Plays by Mercedes de Acosta also available from Southern Illinois University Press Women in Turmoil

Robert A Schanke, 2008-08-18 In this first publication of six plays by the flamboyantly uninhibited author poet and playwright Mercedes de Acosta 1893 1968 theater historian Robert A Schanke rescues these lost theatrical writings from the dusty margins of obscurity Often autobiographical always rife with gender struggle and still decidedly stageworthy Women in Turmoil Six Plays by Mercedes de Acosta constitutes a significant find for the canon of gay and lesbian drama In her 1960 autobiography Here Lies the Heart de Acosta notes that as she was contemplating marriage to a man in 1920 she was in a strange turmoil about world affairs my own writing suffrage sex and my inner spiritual development The voice in these plays is that of a lesbian in turmoil marginalized and ignored Her same sex desires and struggles for acceptance fueled her writings and nowhere is that more evident than in the plays contained herein The women characters struggle with unfulfilling marriages divorce unrequited sexual desire suppressed identity and a longing for recognition Of the six plays only the first two were ever produced Jehanne d Arc 1922 premiered in Paris with de Acosta s lover at the time Eva Le Gallienne starring and Norman Bel Geddes designing the set and lights In 1934 de Acosta adapted it into a screenplay for Greta Garbo then her lover but it was never filmed Portraying rampant anti Semitism in a small New England town Jacob Slovak 1923 was performed both on Broadway and in London with the London production starring John Gielgud and Ralph Richardson The Mother of Christ 1924 is a long one act play written for the internationally known actress Eleonora Duse After Duse s death several other actresses including Eva Bartok Jeanne Eagels and Lillian Gish explored productions of the play Igor Stravinsky wrote a score Norman Bel Geddes designed a set and Gladys Calthrop designed costumes However the play was never produced Her most autobiographical play World Without End 1925 and her most sensational play The Dark Light 1926 both unfold through plots of sibling rivalry incest and suicide With overtones of Ibsen Illusion 1928 continues the themes of de Acosta s previous plays with her rough and seedy cast of characters but here the playwright s drama grows to incorporate a yearning for belonging as well as strong elements of class conflict What notoriety remains associated with de Acosta has less to do with her writing than with her infamous romances with the likes of Greta Garbo Marlene Dietrich Isadora Duncan Alla Nazimova Eva Le Gallienne Tamara Karsavina Pola Negri and Ona Munson Through this collection of six powerfully poignant dramas editor Robert A Schanke strives to correct myths about Mercedes de Acosta and to restore both her name and her literary achievements to their proper place in history Robert A Schanke has authored the original biography That Furious Lesbian The Story of Mercedes de Acosta also available from Southern Illinois University Press Historical Dictionary of Contemporary American Theater: 1930-2010 James Fisher, 2011-06-01 From legends like Eugene O Neill Tennessee Williams and Arthur Miller to successful present day playwrights like Neil LaBute Tony Kushner and David Mamet some of the most important names in the history of theater are from the past 80 years Contemporary American theater has produced some of the most memorable beloved and important plays in history including Death of a Salesman A Streetcar Named Desire

Angels in the American Theater Robert A Schanke, 2007-03-07 Angels in the American Theater Patrons Patronage and Philanthropy examines the significant roles that theater patrons have played in shaping and developing theater in the United States Because box office income rarely covers the cost of production other sources are vital Angels financial investors and backers have a tremendous impact on what happens on stage often determining with the power and influence of their money what is conceived produced and performed But in spite of their influence very little has been written about these philanthropists Composed of sixteen essays and fifteen illustrations Angels in the American Theater explores not only how donors became angels but also their backgrounds motivations policies limitations support and successes and failures Subjects range from millionaires Otto Kahn and the Lewisohn sisters to foundation giants Ford Rockefeller Disney and Clear Channel The first book to focus on theater philanthropy Angels in the American Theater employs both a historical and a chronological format and focuses on individual patrons foundations and corporations Passing Performances Robert A. Schanke, Kimberley Bell Marra, 2023-06-20 Passing Performances gathers a range of critical and biographical essays on notable personalities whose major contributions to the stage occurred before 1969 the year of the Stonewall riots that kicked off the gay rights movement in the United States How these theater practitioners variously passed i.e. managed unconventional sexual inclinations both on and offstage significantly determined the course of their personal and professional lives and thus the course of U.S. theater history The actors directors producers and agents examined here include Edwin Forrest Charlotte Cushman and Adah Isaacs Menken whose personal lives and careers traded on the same sex erotics of true love in the antebellum period Elisabeth Marbury Elsie de Wolfe Elsie Janis Nance O'Neil and Alla Nazimova whose intimate female liaisons were variously interpreted around the turn of the century the lavender marriages of Alfred Lunt to Lynne Fontanne and Guthrie McClintic to Katharine Cornell the lesbian collaborations of Margaret Webster and Cheryl Crawford the comic antics of Monty Woolley which negotiated codified constructions of homosexual perversion in the post-Freudian interwar years and the on and offstage performances of Mary Martin and Joe Cino which resisted the paranoid enforcements of heterosexual normality in the McCarthy era Central to these investigations are the complex connections of performances of sexuality and gender and their different implications for men and women practitioners working under pervasive sexism and homophobia The volume also includes striking archival photographs of the performers and their performances and an index to facilitate the cross referencing of subjects intersecting careers Passing Performances will engage both general and academic readers interested in theater gay and lesbian history American studies and biography Robert A Schanke is
